MRS. WHITEHEAD, of No. 57, Great Mary-bonnet-street, Portland-place, aged Fifty-two Years, was, for a Series of Years, afflicted by a Complication of Disorders, resulting from a Foulness and Weakness of Stomach, attended with such violent Pains of the Bowels as rendered her Existence miserable by Day, and totally prevented her Rest by Night, which reduced her to a State truly pitiable and alarming. From various Prescriptions she experienced but a temporary Alleviation of her Pains; which speedily returned with increasing Violence, that threatened her immediate Dissolution. At the Instance of some Friends she was prevailed upon to try the ORIENTAL VEGETABLE CORDIAL; the first Glass of which diffused a Warmth through the animal Frame, and, by persevering in the Use of the Cordial a few Days, she was perfectly restored to Ease, to the great Satisfaction of her Family and Friends.—The Case of Mrs. PERCHARD, to whom Mrs. W. recommended the Cordial, and who was perfectly restored, was a more fixed and excruciating cholicky Complaint, attended with chronic Infirmities.—Mrs. Whitehead, who is now in perfect Health, will with Pleasure answer any personal Enquiries on the Subject.

The extraordinary Influence that the ORIENTAL VEGETABLE CORDIAL imparts to the Stomach, from its tonic and invigorating Qualities, is strongly exemplified by the immediate Effects produced by taking it, when the Stomach is overloaded with Food, nauseated with Surfeit, or debilitated by Intemperance.

To constitutionally weak Stomachs it affords a pleasing Sensation; it accelerates the Process of Digestion; corrects Crudities, and removes the Cholick and Flatulencies; it diffuses a genial Warmth that cherishes the animal Spirits, and takes away the Lethargy and Langour that so greatly embitters the Hours of nervous People, and the unerring Test of Experience has confirmed its Utility.

Sold under the Sanction of His Majesty, by Mr. B. Cornwell, at his House No. 13, Conduit-street, Hanover-square, London, in Bottles of 5s. or the Quantity of Six Bottles at 1l. 3s. 3d. with proper Directions for its Use; by Mr. N. La Favre, Grafton-street, Dublin; and by at least One Vender in most Towns in Great Britain, &c.
