Lord Chamberlain's Office, January 30, 1786.

TO prevent the Inconveniencies which have arisen from the Space before Their Majesties, which is allotted for Minuet Dancing, being exceed- ingly crowded, it is requested, that those Ladies only who mean to dance will send for Dancers Tickets, and sit in those Places, as the Seats have been found too few to accommodate the Dancers.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, January 30, 1786.

SUCH Ladies as desire to dance Minuets at the Ball which is to be at St. James's on Thursday the 9th of February next, are requested to send their Names and Rank, in Writing, to this Office, on or before Tuesday the 7th, and to send for their Tickets the next Day (Wednesday) between the Hours of Ten in the Morning and Two in the Afternoon.

N. B. No Attendance will be given at this Office on the Day of the Ball after Two o'Clock.

Whitehall, February 3, 1786.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that, in the Evening of Thursday the 6th Day of October last, a Cutter belonging to His Majesty's Sloop Pylades, stationed off the Ram Head to intercept any Smuggling Boats that might attempt to land, having discovered a small Cutter lying-to, and several Boats near her, rowed along-side, when the Smugglers fired a Swivel Gun at them, which killed one of their Men.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Murder, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of the Persons on board the said Smuggling Cutter, who will discover his Accomplices therein, (except the Person who actually fired the said Swivel Gun,) so that they, or any of them, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

S Y D N E Y.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs do hereby promise a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted) to be paid by the Receiver-General of His Majesty's Customs, on the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

Whitehall, February 3, 1786.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that on Friday the 27th Day of January last, about Seven o'Clock in the Evening, some Person unknown knocked at the Door of the Dwelling-house of Mr. Gee, of Hendon, Farmer, and upon its being opened, Five Men, armed with Pistols and Cutlasses, rushed in, knocked down Mr. Gee and a Man Servant then in the House, inhumanly cut and wounded Mr. Gee in his Head and Arms, fired a Pistol at him, which fortunately missed, nearly cut off one of the Servant's Fingers, and proceeded to rob and plunder the House of what Plate and Money they could find: That the Number of Villains concerned in this daring Outrage is supposed to be Eight or Ten, and that they had a Hackney Coach and a Cart waiting near the House.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the audacious Outrage and Robbery above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them (except the Person who actually fired the Pistol) who shall discover his Accomplices therein, so that they or any Two of them may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

S Y D N E Y.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of FORTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person making such Discovery as above-mentioned (except as is before excepted) to be paid by Mr. John Bond, of Hendon, upon the Conviction of any Two or more of the Offenders.

Whitehall, January 16, 1786.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, That on Saturday the 7th Instant, between the Hours of Ten and Eleven at Night, as Joseph Treacher, of the Parish of St. Olave Southwark, Farrier, was passing over St. George's Fields, he was met near the King's Arms Public House by Two Men, who attempted to rob him of his Watch, and, upon his refusing to deliver the same, one of them fired a Pistol at him, the Ball from which entered his Head, and he now lies dangerously ill in Consequence thereof.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person who fired the said Pistol, and wounded the said Joseph Treacher as above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to his Accomplice in the said Attempt, if he will surrender himself, and make such Discovery of the Person aforesaid, so that he may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

S Y D N E Y.

And, as a further Encouragement, I do hereby promise a Reward of TWENTY POUNDS to be paid by me to the Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, on the Conviction of the said Offender.

S. Dendy,

Lord Chancellor, Friday the 27th Day of January, in the Twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, 1786; between Stephen Goddard and William Johnson, Plaintiffs; Thomas Francis Pritchard and Elizabeth his Wife, Defendants.

FORASMUCH as this Court was this present Day informed by Mr. Richards, of Counsel for the Plaintiffs, that the Plaintiffs, on the 13th Day of October last, filed their Bill in this Court against the Defendants, and took out Process of Subpœna to compel them to appear to and answer the same, returnable on the 7th Day of November last; and that it appears by the Affidavit of Henry Roffer, that the said Defendants having been duly served with the said Writ of Subpœna, and having neglected to appear accordingly, a Writ of Attachment issued against them, directed to the Sheriff of Middlesex, for their said Contempt; and that diligent Search and Enquiry hath been made for the said Defendants at their last known Place of Abode (the Place where they were served with the said Subpœna) and where the said Defendants formerly lived, in order to attach them for their said Contempt, and compel them to appear to the Plaintiffs Bill, but that the said Defendants cannot be found so as to be attached, and that there is just Ground to believe that the said Defendants do abscond or secrete themselves to avoid being served with the Process of this Court; and the said Affidavit being now read, it is ordered, that the Defendants Thomas Francis Pritchard, and Elizabeth his Wife, do appear to the Plaintiffs Bill on or before the 21st Day of February next.
