Whitehall, March 18.

THE King has been pleased to present the Reverend Lambton Loraine, Bachelor of Laws, to the Rectory of Nelfton, alias Nayleston, in the County of Leicester and Diocese of Lincoln, void by the Death of the Reverend Doctor Richard Bentley.

The King has been pleased to grant to Thomas Thomas, Esq; and his Issue, and to Barbara Thomas his Sister, His Royal Licence and Authority to take and bear the Surnames of Barrett Lennard, and also to bear the Arms of Lennard and Barrett Quarterly, as particularly described in the last Will of the late Right Honourable Thomas Barrett Lennard, Baron Dacre, deceased, such Arms being first duly exemplified according to the Laws of Arms, and recorded in the Heralds Office; and also to order that this His Majesty's Concession and Declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 15th of February, 1786,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act for further continuing for a limited Time an Act made in the Twenty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for preventing certain Instruments from being required from Ships belonging to the United States of America; and to give to His Majesty, for a limited Time, certain Powers for the better carrying on Trade and Commerce between the Subjects of His Majesty's Dominions and the Inhabitants of the said United States; and for continuing for a limited Time an Act made in the Twenty-fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act to extend the Powers of an Act, made in the Twenty-third Year of His present Majesty, for giving His Majesty certain Powers for the better carrying on Trade and Commerce between the Subjects of His Majesty's Dominions, and the Inhabitants of the United States of America, to the Trade and Commerce of this Kingdom with the British Colonies and Plantations in America, with Respect to certain Articles therein mentioned," It is enacted, That the said Acts, and all the Matters and Things therein contained, shall continue and be in Force until the 5th Day of April 1786: His Majesty doth thereupon, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order and declare, That any Rice, being the Growth or Production of any of the Territories of the United States of America, which hath been imported since the 1st Day of January 1786, or shall be hereafter imported directly from thence into any of the Ports of this Kingdom, in pursuance of His Majesty's Order in Council dated the 8th of April 1785, may, upon the Importer paying down in ready Money the Duty commonly called the Old Subsidy (except as hereinafter excepted) be warehoused under His Majesty's Locks, in such Warehouses as shall be approved of for that Purpose by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, or any Four or more of them, upon the Importer's own Bond for Payment of all further Duties due for such Rice, within Eighteen Months, according to the net Weight and Quantity of such Rice at the Time it shall have been or shall be so landed; but it is His Majesty's Pleasure nevertheless, that upon the Importation of any such Rice into the Ports of London, Bristol, Portsmouth, Cowes, Liverpool, Lancaster, Falmouth, Poole, Whitehaven, Hull, Greenock and Port Glasgow, or either of them, in the Manner hereinbefore expressed, the Importer shall be at Liberty, until further Order, to enter into Bond for the Payment, as well of the Duty commonly called the Old Subsidy, as of all the further Duties due for such Rice, but without any Allowance for prompt Payment of the said Duty commonly called the Old Subsidy, or any other of the Duties which were formerly payable in ready Money; and that if any Rice, which has been so imported since the 1st Day of January 1786, or shall be hereafter imported during the Continuance of this Order, from the Territories of the said United

United States, shall be taken within the Time hereinbefore mentioned out of the Warehouses wherein the same shall be secured under His Majesty's Locks, in Manner hereinbefore directed, at any of the Ports of this Kingdom, or at either of the Ports above-mentioned respectively, as the Case may be, to be exported directly from thence, the Bonds which shall be entered into for Payment of the said Duties shall be discharged, in like Manner as Bonds entered into for the Duties upon Tobacco are directed to be discharged by any Act of Parliament in Force: And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly. W. Fawkener.

Excise-Office, London, March 9, 1786.

WHEREAS on the Night between the 5th and 6th ultimo, the Excise Store-Room at Holt, in Norfolk, was broke open by some Persons unknown, and robbed of several small Cases, containing about Seventy Gallons of Foreign Brandy, Seventy-nine Gallons of Foreign Geneva, and Twelve Gallons of Rum.

The Commissioners of Excise for bringing the Offenders to Justice do hereby offer a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS to any Person or Persons who shall apprehend or discover any of the Parties concerned in the said Burglary, so that he or they may be apprehended, to be paid by their Secretary, on Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, That on Sunday the 26th Day of February last, between Nine and Ten o'Clock in the Evening, George Tantt, Coachman to Laurence Holker, Esq; of the Parish of Bexley in the County of Kent, having driven his said Master Home from a Neighbour's House where he had dined, and having put up his Horses in the Stable, which is immediately across the Road, and within a Hundred Yards of his said Master's House, (having a Lanthorn with a lighted Candle in it,) he was, suddenly and without any Words being spoken, shot at; that he just saw a Man fire, but could not perceive whether it was from a Gun or Pistol; that he had no distinct View of the Man so as to know him again. That the Lanthorn was shot from out of his Hand, which he found in the Road the next Morning much shattered; and that upon his crying out "Murder," the Person who shot at him immediately ran away.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in firing at the said George Tantt as abovementioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually fired) who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or any one of them may be apprehended and convicted thereof. S Y D N E Y.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person making such Discovery as abovementioned, to be paid upon the Conviction of any one of the said Offenders, by Mr. Williams, Attorney, at Dartford.

East-India House, February 15, 1786.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies, do hereby give Notice,

That the Transfer Books of the said Company's Stock will be shut on Thursday the 9th of March next, at Two o'Clock, and opened again on Thursday the 13th of April following.

That a Quarterly General Court of the said Company will be held at their House in Leadenhall-street, on Wednesday the 22d of March next, at Eleven in the Forenoon, and to consider of confirming the Suspension of the 11th and 23d Bye-Laws, on the Application made by the Executors of Captain Peter Stoakes, deceased; also to consider of suspending the said Bye-Laws on the Application made by Mr. William Smith, late Commander of the Ship Houghton.

And that the Lists of the Members of the said Company will be ready to be delivered at this House on Monday the 27th of said March.

Navy-Office, March 16, 1786.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, That on Tuesday the 4th of April next, at One o'Clock, they will be ready to treat with such Persons as may be willing to supply Canvas to be delivered at His Majesty's Yards at Deptford, Woolwich and Plymouth. No Tender will be received after Twelve o'Clock.

General Post-Office, November 5, 1785.

MR. PALMER having engaged to accomplish his Plan for the Conveyance of His Majesty's Mails to all Parts of the Kingdom as soon as possible, the Letters for every Part of Great Britain and Ireland, must be put into the Receiving Houses before FIVE o'Clock in the Evening, and into this Office before SEVEN, in order to prevent the Inconveniences which have arisen to the Public from Two Deliveries in London on the same Day, and the sending out the Mails at different Hours on the same Evening.

The Letters are intended to be sent out regularly from hence between the Hours of Nine and Ten in the Morning, so as to reach the most distant Parts of the Town by Twelve at Noon.

It is necessary that all Newspapers should be put into this Office before Six o'Clock, otherwise they cannot be certain of an immediate Conveyance.

In the Matter of George Smith, of Upper Harley-street, in the County of Middlesex, but late of Madras, Merchant, a Bankrupt.

WHEREAS at a Meeting of the Creditors of the said Bankrupt held (pursuant to sundry public Advertisements, and previous to his Return to India) at the Guildhall Coffee-house, London, the 20th Day of April, 1782, it was, amongst other Things, agreed, That the Assignees of the said Bankrupt should be at Liberty to permit him to retain to his own Use, for a certain Term, a certain Sum out of such his late Estate, as should come to his and his Attornies Hands, by Virtue of a Power which the said Assignees were enabled to grant to him and them for the Recovery thereof; and it was likewise agreed that the said Assignees should have Power to pay in England to the said Bankrupt's Order, for a certain Term, a certain Sum for the Support of his Family: And whereas the said Two several Terms for which the said Allowance and Payment were agreed to be made are now near expiring; now therefore this is to give Notice, that at the Request of one of the Creditors of the said Bankrupt, his Assignees will be at the Guildhall Coffee-house aforesaid, on Thursday the 6th Day of April next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, for sundry special Purposes; and likewise to take into Consideration whether all or any and what Part of the said Two several Allowances, or of either of them, shall be continued for a longer Period than was agreed upon at the Meeting aforesaid, and for how long; at which last mentioned Time and Place all and every of the said Bankrupt's Creditors, or their Agents, are requested to attend; the said Assignees wishing to govern themselves by their Consent and Direction, not only respecting the Continuance or Discontinuance of the Allowance aforesaid, but in all such other Matters as shall then be brought before them for their Consideration.

THE Trustees for William John Marquis of Lothian, and his English Creditors, hereby require all Persons who were Creditors to him on or before the 17th Day of May, 1785, to produce their Vouchers of Debt, with Notes of what is due to them, to John Baynes Garforth, Esq; of Lower Brook-street, London, within Nine Months from this Date, in order to be admitted to the Benefit of the Trust Estates granted by the said Marquis for his Creditors; and such of the Creditors as fail herein will forfeit all Benefit of the said Trust.

The Trustees further give Notice, That a Dividend of the Funds recovered will be ready to be paid to the Creditors about the Middle of April next.
