United States of America, or any of them, and whereof the Master and Three-fourths of the Mariners are Subjects of the said United States, or any of them; and from and after the said 1st Day of January, 1787, in Ships built in the Countries belonging to the United States of America, or any of them, and owned by the Subjects of the said United States, or any of them, and whereof the Master and Three-fourths of the Mariners at least, are Subjects of the said United States, or any of them, and may be entered and landed in any Port of this Kingdom, upon Payment of the same Duties as the like Sort of Goods or Merchandize are or may be subject and liable to if imported in British-built Ships, owned by His Majesty's Subjects, and navigated according to Law, from any British Island or Plantation in America, and no other, notwithstanding such Goods or Merchandize, or the Ships in which the same may be brought, may not be accompanied with the Certificates or other Documents heretofore required by Law. And it is hereby further ordered, that there shall be the same Drawbacks, Exemptions and Bounties on Merchandizes and Goods exported from Great Britain into the Territories of the said United States of America, or any of them, as are or may be allowed by Law upon the Exportation of the like Goods or Merchandize to any of the Islands, Plantations or Colonies belonging to the Crown of Great Britain in America; and that, until further Order, there shall be allowed and paid the same Drawbacks on the Exportation of any Sort of Foreign Hemp, or Foreign Iron, exported from Great Britain into any British Colony or Plantation in America, or into the Territories of the United States of America, or any of them, as are or may be allowed by Law upon the Exportation of the like Sort of Hemp or Iron, and under the same Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties and Forfeitures, in all Respects, as such Drawbacks are allowed and paid, or are subject and liable to by Law, upon the Exportation of such Hemp and Iron into other Foreign Parts.

And for the Purpose of regulating the Trade and Commerce between the People and Territories belonging to the Crown of Great Britain, in the West-Indies, in which Description the Bahama Islands and the Bermuda or Somers Islands are included, and the People and Territories belonging to the said United States of America, His Majesty is hereby further pleased to order, that no Goods or Commodities whatsoever, except Pitch, Tar, Turpentine, Hemp and Flax, Masts, Yards and Bowsprits, Staves, Heading Boards, Timber, Shingles, and all other Species of Lumber; Horses, Neat Cattle, Sheep, Hogs, Poultry, and all other Species of Live Stock and Live Provisions, Peas, Beans, Potatoes, Wheat, Flour, Bread, Biscuit, Rice, Oats, Barley, and all other Species of Grain, being the Growth or Production of any of the said United States of America; and also Tobacco in the fair and lawful Way of Barter and Traffic, between the People of the said United States and the People of His Majesty's West India Islands, as permitted by the before-recited Act passed in the Twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, may be imported from any of the said United States of America into any of His Majesty's said West-India Islands, and that the above Goods may, until further Order, be imported by British Subjects only, and in no other than British-built Ships, owned by His Majesty's Subjects, and navigated according to Law; and that Rum, Sugar, Melasses, Coffee, Cocoa-Nuts, Ginger and Pimento may, (until further Order) be exported by British Subjects, in British-built Ships, owned by His Majesty's Subjects, and navigated according to Law, from any of the said Islands to any Port or Place within the said United States, upon Payment of the same Duties on Exportation, and subject to the like Rules, Regulations, Securities and Restrictions, as the same Articles by Law are or may be subject and liable to, if exported to any British Colony or Plantation in America; and the Bonds and Securities heretofore required to be taken for such Ships carrying such Goods shall and may be cancelled and discharged, upon the like Certificates as are required by the said recited Act made in the Twenty-third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, to discharge any Bonds given in Great Britain for the due landing any other Goods in the said United States of America.

And His Majesty is hereby further pleased to order, that no Goods or Commodities, being the Growth or Manufacture of the said United States, shall be imported into the Provinces of Nova Scotia or New Brunswick, or their respective Dependencies, except Horses, Neat Cattle, Sheep, Hogs, Poultry, and all other Species of Live Stock and Live Provisions; Peas, Beans, Potatoes, Wheat, Flour, Bread, Biscuit, Rice, Oats, Barley, and all other Species of Grain; also Lumber of every Sort; and that the above Articles shall be imported by British Subjects only, and in none other than British-built Ships, owned by His Majesty's Subjects, and navigated according to Law, and during such limited Times only as the Governors or Commanders in Chief, for the Time being, of the said Provinces, and their respective Dependencies, shall, with the Advice of their respective Councils, by Proclamation declare the Importation of any of the said Articles to be necessary for the Supply of the Inhabitants of the said Provinces. And His Majesty is hereby further pleased to order, that no Goods or Commodities of the Growth or Manufacture of the said United States shall be imported into any of the Ports of the Province of Quebec.

And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Extract of a Letter from Richmond, March 14.

S I R,

AGREEABLE to my Promise the first Opportunity I tried the Efficacy of the Oriental Vegetable Cordial for Complaints in the Stomach and Bowels; while on a Visit in the Country I happened to meet a very extraordinary Case, where, after a variety of different Medicines, by the Advice of several eminent Physicians to little Effect, I desired them to try your Cordial, which they procured, and it not only gave him immediate Relief, but perfectly restored his Health; for the Benefit that might accrue to the Public from this Medicine, I desired the Apothecary to draw up a State of the Patient's Case, which he did.

C A S E.

The Patient having been afflicted for several Years past with a Disorder in his Stomach and Bowels, which began with flatulence and shifting Pains internally, his Digestion became by Degrees extremely vitiated, his Head frequently confused; he had sometimes a Dizziness, especially on stooping; sometimes he had a Noise in his Ears, and he was often troubled with Evacuations, his Sleep was much disturbed with Dreams, and he frequently lay awake during the greater Part, sometimes the whole of the Night; from these various Causes, his Constitution, from being healthy, and even vigorous, was, in a short Time, much reduced. At first he considered the Complaint as only accidental and temporary, but finding the Symptoms increase, he had Recourse to different Advice, and in the Space of a Twelve-month he consulted several eminent Physicians, whose Opinions generally concurred, with little Variation, in pursuing one and the same Method of Cure. He strictly complied with the Prescriptions, but without any material Effect; at last, despairing of Relief from all the Effects of medical Skill, he determined to seek for Refuge among the advertised Medicines, said to be efficacious in Disorders of a similar Nature to that under which he laboured, and had tried several without any Effect; he was now on the Point of abandoning the Use of Medicine, when Providence put you in his Way to recommend the Trial of the Oriental Vegetable Cordial; he laid hold of it with the Avidity natural to one who had exhausted every Resource, and took the Quantity prescribed in the Bill. No sooner had it reached his Stomach and Bowels than he felt an Alleviation of his Pain, and repeating the Dose according to the Directions, the Pain entirely ceased, and, by continuing the Use of the Cordial, in a few Weeks was perfectly restored to his Health and Strength, to the Astonishment of all who had seen him during the Continuance of his Disorder. I have the additional Satisfaction to inform you, that in consequence of this unexpected Recovery, I have tried the Cordial with equal Success in several Persons who were afflicted with Disorders in their Bowels. Some of those Complaints had been imputed to catching of Cold, others to Intemperance, extremely common, and often productive of dangerous, if not fatal Consequences.

Having now informed you of the Success attending this, I assure you that I shall take every Opportunity that offers in future to make further Trial of so valuable a Medicine, and shall not fail to communicate to you occasionally the Result of its Effects.

I am, S I R,

Your most obedient Servant,

EDWARD HAWKINS,

Late of His Majesty's Military Hospital in the Island of Tobago.

Mr. B. Cornwell, Conduit-street, London.
