Naples, Jan. 18. Though the Duke of Bournonville had been obliged to quit the formal siege of Taurmina; yet he continues to batter the Place from two or three Forts, which he has raised for that purpose; though we can hardly hope that he will by that means be able to reduce the place, considering the Success which the Duke de Vivonne had put into it; and besides, the place is wholly open on the side of the Sea, so that Vessels pass freely in and out with Provisions and other necessaries. The Inhabitants of Sylifuzzi have lately killed their Governor, upon some hard usage they had received from him. Here are arrived two Gallies from Palermo, but bring not any news of moment.

Milan, Jan. 26. Our Governor the Prince de Lighe has received a Supply of 300000 Crowns from Spain, which, it was thought, would have been employed in making of Levies, but the apprehensions we had of an Invasion from the French being now over, these Monies will be employed for other occasions. The Duke of Guastalla died here the 18 instant.

Venice, Jan. 29. The Chevalier Grimaldi is returned hither from his Generalship of Dalmatia, and on Monday last he was in the Senate to give account of his Commission. By Sea we have Letters from Constantinople, which say, That notwithstanding the great preparations which the Turks seemed to make for the carrying on the War against the Moscovites, the Grand Vizier inclined very much to Peace, for that he finds the publick Treasure very much exhausted, and that it will be a hard matter to raise the Monies which such a War will require. From Sicily we have advice, that the Duke of Beurnonville not having men enough formally to besedge Taurmina, had raised certain Works to block it up.

Hamburg, Febr. 9. We have now seen a very particular List of the killed and wounded, as well as those taken prisoners in the action of Rugen, by which it appears, that not above 400 were killed, and 5024 taken prisoners, of which 224 were Officers; 12 pieces

Cannons, with Mortar-pieces with all their appurtenances; 2400 Horses with Saddles, Pistols, and Carbines, with a very great quantity of Provisions, were likewise taken. And all this cost the Suedes but one Cornet, one Quartermaster, one Adjutant, 2 Corporals, and between 40 and 50 common Soldiers, who were killed; an Adjutant-General, 3 Captains of Horses, 2 Captains of Foot, a Quarter-Master, 3 Lieutenants, 3 Cornets, a Corporal, and about 100 common Soldiers wounded.

Basil, Febr. 10. About 15000 French have passed the Rhine a League from this City, and have not onely burnt several Villages near Rothen; but likewise are fallen into the Swarzwald; at present they attack the Castle of Rien, which will not be able to hold out long, not having above two days provisions. We apprehend they will attack Brombach and Rhinfelden; in the mean time the Countrey is miserably ruined.

Mentz, Febr. 13. The Elector of Saxony hath lately concluded a Treaty with the Duke of Hanover, of which we know not the contents. The Imperial Troops in these parts have orders to be ready to march upon the least warning. The Elector Palatine is indisposed.

Cologne, Febr. 15. The Magistrates of this City, notwithstanding all the menaces that are made use of against them, have now finally refused to pay the 40000 Crowns demanded of them. Yesterday passed through this City an Extraordinary Courier coming from Vienne, and going to Brussels.

Brussels, Febr. 15. We are told from Luxemburg, that the Princess of Chimay is upon her way hither; and that all the Ladies of quality that were there are retired to several places, upon the expectation they have, that Luxemburg will be very suddenly besieged. The French Troops are marching from Alsace, the Franche Comte, and those parts, towards the Moselle, to join the French Kings Army, whose design will now in all appearance discover it self in few days.

Ditto, Febr. 18. On Wednesday Count Waldeck came hither from Malines by order of his Highness the Prince of Orange, to assist Monsieur Pickfeldt, the Envoy of the States General, in several Conferences he hath had with the Duke of Villa Hermosa, concerning the Preparations for the approaching Campaign, which are very backward here. The French in the new Conquests have made a show, as if they would suddenly enter upon action, the Marschal de Humieres having summoned in a great many Pioneers and Carriages, but since, we hear, has dismissed them again. Mons continues to be so closely blocked up, that, in all appearance, the first enterprize they undertake will be that Siege. Yesterday the Duke of Neuburg sent an Express hither to acquaint his Excellency, that the Munster Regiment designed for the re-enforcement of the Garrison of Luxemburg, desire to be excused, being at present at so great a distance, that they should be put out of a condition of acting by so long a march. We are told, that the States General are much dissatisfied with the proceedings of the Bishop of Munster's Troops in Frickland, where they have blocked up a Castle belonging to the States. Our Letters from Strasbourg of the 11th, tell us, that the French make great incursions into the Marquisate of Baden, that they have burnt the Town, and besieged the Castle of Ketzel, belonging to the Marquis of Baden Durlach, wherein are 300 Imperialists; they have also burnt and pillaged several other small places, and the Imperialists are not without fear, that Offenburg will be next attacked, Monsieur Mentzer having drawn about 15000 men together.

Hague, Febr. 18. The 15 and 16 instant several Conferences were held with the Ministers of the Allies residing here. We are in expectation to see what the effects of the French King are, which at present keep all people in suspense. From the Elector of Bavaria's Court we have advice, that the Cardinal d'Estree was upon his departure from thence, without any great success in his Negotiation.

Paris, Febr. 19. The 8th instant their Majesties lodged at Nongis, the 9th at Provins, the 10th at Sezance, where they continued till the 13th, and then parted from thence to la Fere Champenoise, the 14th they lodged at Poyv, and the 15th at Vitri le Francois (where our last Letters left them) from whence they intended to go to Toul. The King has a very great and rich Equipage with him, and, as is said, several Millions in Money. It is said there will be an Interview between his Majesty and the Elector of Bavaria. This morning the Duke of Orlans parted from hence to go and join the Court. From Alsace we have advice that the Marschal de Cerqui was passed the Rhine at Brifac with 20000 Men, Horse and Foot, and was entered into Bisfog, from whence it was thought he would pass into Suabia, to join with the Troops of the Elector of Bavaria; or, as others imagine, his design is to attack Offenburg. From Sicily we have an account, that the Spaniards have been forced to quit the Siege of Taormina. This evening we receive Letters from the Count d'Estree Vice Admiral of France, commanding a Squadron of Men of War in the West Indies, by which we have an account, that having taken from the Dutch the Isle of Gezee, and Cape Vert, he continues his Voyage to Tobago, of which he had likewise made himself Master, and of all the Dutch Men of War that were there. The Commander Bingley with most of the principal Officers were killed in the Action, and the rest made prisoners.

Dover, Febr. 9. A small English built Ketch burthen from 16 to 20 Tuns, being forsaken by all her men, was near the Fort of Mardike on the Coast of Flanders, taken up by John Dunche Master of a Vessel belonging to Dover, and by him brought into that Port, and there secured by the Salux until the right Proprietor shall appear and make out his Property. The parties concerned may apply themselves to the said John Dunche at Dover.
