

Congratulations, and the most grateful Thanks to Heaven, for the Preservation of your Majesty in the late Moment of impending Danger; a Moment upon which we reflect with the greatest Horror.

We gladly come forward to testify our Duty and Respect for your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government, under which we enjoy so many great and important Blessings; and most sincerely hope, that the same Almighty Arm that has hitherto guarded your Majesty's invaluable Life, will long, very long, continue it as a Blessing to these Realms.

Signed by Order of the General Meeting,

Rich. Carpenter Smith, Chairman.

Southwark, August 8, 1786.

The following Address of the High Steward, Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeses of the Borough of New Windsor, has been presented to the King by the Earl of Beaulieu, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Steward, Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeses of your Majesty's ancient and loyal Borough and Corporation of New Windsor, in the County of Berks.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the High Steward, Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeses of the Borough and Corporation of New Windsor, in the County of Berks, beg Leave to approach your Presence with the warmest Affection for your Royal Person, Family and Government.

We humbly request your Majesty will accept our unfeigned and sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Escape from the late Attempt on your Majesty's most sacred Life,

We fervently hope that your Majesty may enjoy a long and prosperous Reign, in the Affections of a free, happy and united People.
