WHEREAS His Majesty hath signified unto us His Royal Pleasure, that the Parliament of this Kingdom, which now stands prorogued to Tuesday the Fifteenth Day of August instant, be further prorogued to Tuesday the Ninetenth Day of September next: We do therefore publish and declare, that the said Parliament be, and accordingly the said Parliament is hereby further prorogued to Tuesday the Ninetenth Day of September next: Whereof the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this present Parliament are to take Notice accordingly.

Given at His Majesty's Castle of Dublin, the 1st Day of August, 1786.

By his Grace's Command,

S. Hamilton.

GOD Save the KING.

Custom-House, London, August 5, 1786.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Twentieth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, "An Act for the further Increase and Encouragement of Shipping and Navigation," it is (amongst other Things) enacted, That all and every Ship or Vessel having a Deck, or being of the Burthen of Fifteen Tons or upwards, belonging to any of His Majesty's Subjects in Great Britain, or Guernsey, Jersey, and the Isle of Man, or of any of the Colonies, Plantations, Islands or Territories in Asia, Africa, or America, which now belong, or, at the Time of building such Ships or Vessels, did belong, or which may hereafter belong to, or be in the Possession of His Majesty, His Heirs, or Successors, (except Lighters, Barges, Boats or Vessels used solely in Rivers or Inland Navigation) shall be registered in the Manner therein mentioned; and the Person or Persons claiming Property therein, shall cause the same to be registered, and shall obtain a Certificate of such Registry from the Collector and Comptroller of His Majesty's Customs in Great Britain, or the Isle of Man, or from the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief and Principal Officer or Officers of His Majesty's Revenue of Customs residing in the Islands of Guernsey or Jersey, or in any of the aforesaid Colonies, Plantations, Islands or Territories respectively, according to the Form and in the Manner described in the said Act.

And whereas the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs are by the said Act authorized and required, within a certain reasonable Time, as may be best adapted to the Distance of the Ports to which the Ships and Vessels, owned by His Majesty's Subjects, shall respectively belong, to give public Notice of the Time when such Certificates will be ready to be granted to such Ships or Vessels as shall be legally entitled thereunto;

The said Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs do hereby give Notice, That Certificates of Registry will be ready to be granted, according to the Form and in the Manner directed by the said Act, to every such Ship or Vessel at and from the several and respective Times hereafter mentioned;

That is to say,

- In the Port of London, } From and after the 20th Instant.
- In the several Out Ports in England, } From and after the 30th Instant.
- In the Ports in the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, and Man, } From and after the 6th of September next.
- In the Ports in the Islands of Barbadoes, Antigua, St. Christopher's, Nevis, Montserrat, Tortola, Grenada, St. Vincent's, Dominica, } From and after the 1st of December next.
- In the Ports in the Island of Jamaica, } From and after the 20th of December next.
- In the Ports in the Provinces of Quebec, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick; and in the Islands of Newfoundland, Cape Breton, St. John's, and Islands adjacent, and in the Ports in the Bahama Islands, and Island of Bermuda, } From and after the 1st of February, 1787.

And at the End of One Month from the Date of the said several and respective Periods before-mentioned, it is hereby declared, that the said Notice will expire.

And for the Information of all Parties concerned, the following particular Clauses of the said Act are published, viz.

In respect to

A Ship or Vessel first arriving, after the Expiration of the said Notice, at a Port to which she belongs.

“ No Ship or Vessel, which by this Act is directed to be hereafter registered, or which is directed, instead of the Register now required by Law, to take out a new Register according to the Form and in the Manner described in the said Act, shall be permitted, after her first Arrival at the Port to which she belongs at the Expiration of the Notice before-mentioned, to clear Outwards to Foreign Parts or Coastwise, or to proceed to Sea in order to fish on the Coasts, or for any other Purpose whatever as a British Ship or Vessel, or shall be in any wise entitled to the Privileges of a British Ship or Vessel, unless the Owner or Owners thereof shall have obtained a Certificate according to the Form and in the Manner directed by the said Act; and in case any such Ship or Vessel shall depart from such Port without being registered, and without having obtained a Certificate as aforesaid, every such Ship or Vessel shall be subject to Forfeiture, and also all the Guns, Furniture, Ammunition, Tackle and Apparel to such Ship or Vessel belonging.”

A square-rigged Ship or Vessel so arriving at a Port within Twenty Leagues of the Port to which she belongs; or not being square-rigged, so arriving at any Port to which she does not belong.

“ If, after the Expiration of the Notice aforesaid, any Ship or Vessel (being square-rigged) shall be found in any Port within the Distance of Twenty Leagues by Water from the Port to which she belongs; or if any Vessel, not being square-rigged, be found within any Port other than that to which she belongs, without having obtained the Certificate of Registry,” (directed by the said Act) “ it shall and may be lawful to and for the Principal Officer or Officers of such Port, and he or they is and are hereby required to detain such Ship or Vessel, until the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command thereof shall, if such Ship or Vessel be under the Burthen of Fifty Tons, give Security by Bond, in the Penalty of Fifty Pounds, in Manner directed by the said Act; and if such Ship or Vessel shall exceed the Burthen of Fifty Tons, and shall not exceed that of One Hundred Tons, then until the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command thereof shall in like Manner give Security by Bond in the Penalty of One Hundred Pounds; and if such Ship or Vessel shall exceed the Burthen of One Hundred Tons, then until the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command thereof shall, together with One sufficient Security (to be approved by such Principal Officer or Officers) give Bond to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, to be taken by such Officer or Officers, in the Penalty of Two Hundred Pounds, with Condition, that such Master or other Person so having or taking the Charge or Command of every such Ship or Vessel, shall repair with her as soon as conveniently may be (or, being employed in the Fishery on the Banks of Newfoundland and Parts adjacent, at the End of the Fishing Season) to the Port to which she belongs, and there cause her to be registered, and procure a Certificate of such Registry, in the Form and Manner directed by the said Act, and produce and deliver to such Officer or Officers such Certificate of Registry, within the Time limited in the Condition of such Bond; which Limitation of Time such Officer or Officers is and are hereby authorized to fix, according to the Distance which such Ship or Vessel may be from the Port to which she belongs, and the Nature of the Voyage in which she may then be engaged; and on Failure of producing and delivering such Certificate as aforesaid, such Bond shall be forfeited: But if such Certificate shall be produced and delivered to such Officer or Officers, within the Time so limited in the Bond, such Bond shall be void and of none Effect, and he or they is and are hereby authorized and required to cancel the same.”

A square-rigged Ship or Vessel so arriving at a Port distant more than Twenty Leagues from the Port to which she belongs.

“ In case any square-rigged Ship or Vessel, after the Expiration of the Notice aforesaid, shall be found in any Port distant more than Twenty Leagues by Water from the Port to which she belongs, or that the Water, at the Entrance of the Port to which such Ship or Vessel belongs, shall be so shallow as not to admit her Entrance into the same without endangering the Safety of such Ship or Vessel, the Master, or other Person having the Charge or Command of such Ship or Vessel, shall, within Forty-eight Hours after his Arrival at such Port as aforesaid, make known his Arrival to the Collector and Comptroller of the Customs or other Principal Officer of such Port, and shall require such Collector and Comptroller, or other Principal Officer, to cause his Ship or Vessel to be surveyed by the proper Officer at such Port, who shall be appointed pursuant to the Directions of the said Act, to survey Ships and Vessels there, and who shall accordingly make a perfect and accurate Survey thereof, and certify the several Particulars thereof in the Manner directed by the said Act; and such Collector and Comptroller, or other Principal Officer, shall immediately transmit the said Certificate of Survey to the Persons authorized to register Ships and Vessels, and grant Certificates of Registry at the Port to which such Ship or Vessel belongs, who thereupon, and upon all the other Requisites of the said Act being complied with, shall register such Ship or Vessel, and grant a Certificate of the Registry thereof, pursuant to the said Act. And it shall and may be lawful to and for the Collector and Comptroller, or other Principal Officer or Officers of the Customs in the Port where such Ship or Vessel shall be so found, and he or they are hereby authorized and required to detain such Ship or Vessel, until a perfect and accurate Survey thereof shall be made in Manner directed by the said Act.”

The Times allowed to Ships and Vessels to return to the Ports to which they belong, to obtain Certificates of Registry.

“ That from and after the Expiration of the Notice before-mentioned, TWELVE MONTHS shall be allowed to all Ships and Vessels belonging to any of the Ports of Great Britain, or the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, or Man, to be registered, and obtain Certificates according to the Form and in the Manner described in the said Act: And that, in like Manner, from and after the Expiration of the said Notice, EIGHTEEN MONTHS shall be allowed to all Ships and Vessels belonging to any of the Ports in His Majesty’s Colonies, Plantations, Islands or Territories in Africa or America, to be registered, and to obtain Certificates according to the Form and in the Manner described in the said Act: And that, in like Manner, from and after the Expiration of the said Notice, THIRTY MONTHS shall be allowed to all Ships and Vessels trading or fishing beyond the Cape of Good Hope, or Cape Horn, to be registered, and obtain Certificates according to the Form and in the Manner described in the said Act: And that at the End of the said Term of TWELVE MONTHS, with respect to such Ships and Vessels as belong to the Ports of Great Britain, and the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, or Man; and in like Manner at the End of the said Term of EIGHTEEN MONTHS, with respect to all Ships and Vessels that belong to any of the Ports of His Majesty’s Colonies, Plantations, Islands or Territories in Africa or America; and in like Manner at the End of the said Term of THIRTY MONTHS, with respect to all Ships and Vessels trading or fishing beyond the Cape of Good Hope, or Cape Horn, no other Register or Certificate shall be of Force or Effect, except such as shall be granted in pursuance of the said Act: And that all other Registers and Certificates shall from thenceforth be utterly null and void to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.”

In case of Ships and Vessels not arriving in due Time at the Ports to which they respectively belong.

“ That in case it shall happen that any such Ship or Vessel, from any unavoidable Necessity or reasonable Cause, shall not return to the Port to which she belongs within the Time limited in the said Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty’s Customs in England and Scotland respectively, for the Time being, and they are hereby required, upon Proof being made, to their Satisfaction, of such unavoidable Necessity or reasonable Cause, to cause such Ship or Vessel to be registered upon the Terms and Conditions, and under the Regulations and Restrictions directed and required by the said Act, any Thing therein contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.”

What shall be deemed a Port to which a Ship belongs.

“ That the Port to which any Ship or Vessel shall hereafter be deemed and taken to belong, within the Intent and Meaning of this (the said) Act, shall be, and is hereby declared to be, the Port from and to which such Ship or Vessel shall usually trade, or (being a New Ship) shall intend so to trade, and at or near which the Husband or acting and managing Owner or Owners of such Ship or Vessel usually resides or reside.”

By Order of the Commissioners,
W. STILES, Secretary.

General Post Office, July 28, 1736.

Liverpool,	Wigan,
Ormskirk,	and
Warrington,	Prefcot.

Whoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, the Person or Persons who stole the said Bags, will be entitled to a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS; or if any Person, whether an Accomplice in the Robbery or knowing thereof, shall make Discovery, whereby one or more of the Persons concerned therein may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such Discoverer will, upon Conviction of the Party or Parties, be entitled to the same Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, and will also receive His Majesty’s most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Postmaster-General,
Anthony Todd, Sec.

Office of Ordnance, August 1, 1786.

THE Principal Officers of His Majesty’s Ordnance do hereby give Notice, That on the 24th instant August there will be Money in the Hands of the Treasurer, to this Office, for the Payment of the several Claims of the Proprietors, for Lands purchased for the Use of His Majesty, together with the Interest thereon, calculated up to that Day inclusive, pursuant to an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intitled, “ An Act for making Compensation to the Proprietors of such Lands and Hereditaments as have been purchased for the more safe and convenient carrying on His Majesty’s Gunpowder Works and Mills near the Town of Faversham; and for the better securing His Majesty’s Docks, Ships and Stores at Portsmouth and Plymouth, in pursuance of Acts of Parliament made in the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Years of His present Majesty; and for other Purposes therein mentioned.”

By Order of the Board,
Aug. Rogers, Secretary.

Victualling-Office, August 11, 1786.

THE Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty’s Navy do hereby give Notice, That on Wednesday the 13th of September next, they will be ready to receive Tenders in Writing (sealed up) and treat for Oxen for Fresh Beef for His Majesty’s Ships and Vessels at Plymouth, and also for Fresh Meat to those at Torbay for Twelve Months from the 30th of September next: Which will be paid for by Bills in Course.

No Tenders will be attended to that are not delivered before One o’Clock, nor unless they are made agreeably to the Conditions of the Contracts, which may be seen at the Secretary’s Office, at this Office, or by applying to the Agent for the Victualling at Plymouth, and Collector of the Customs at Dartmouth in Devon respectively.

NOTICE is hereby given to the Officers and Companies of His Majesty's Ships Boreas and Greyhound, who were actually on board at the Capture of the Spanish Brig Nostra Signora De le Mercer, the 6th of September, 1780, and have not already been paid, that they may receive Payment on Account of the said Prize, on Tuesday the 29th Instant, at No. 79, Old Broad-street; and that the Shares not then demanded may be received any succeeding Thursday at the same Place.

Aretas Akers, deceased.

MANY sincere Admirers of Mr. HOWARD, "The Friend to every Clime, a Patriot of the World," anxious that his transcendent Philanthropy may not wait for the tardy, and, as it should seem, almost unwilling Gratitude, of posthumous Acknowledgement from the Public, entertain a Hope, from a Hint thrown out in the Gentleman's Magazine, for May, and so nobly improved upon in that for June, that (though he seeks not his Reward from Men) a STATUE to him, as one of the highest Earthly Honours, may be erected to perpetuate the Memory of it, before he goes to be rewarded with Heavenly Honours, and during his Absence upon a God-like Errand which carries him to Turkey, to try to restrain the Ravages of the Plague; And who knows not with how truly a Christian Spirit and undaunted Courage he, before, went about doing Good; how gloriously he has devoted a great Part of his Life and Property to repeated Visits to most of those Mansions of Misery and Infection, the Jails of Europe; and how many a weary Prisoner whom he came unto has been bound to bless him for the Removal of at least some Horror, for the Alleviation of at least some Anguish, which with the Iron entered into his Soul, when it was cast down and disquieted within him! Those Persons therefore who, feeling like Men, Christians and Britons, the exalted Merit which does so much Honour to their Nature, their Religion, and their Country, wish to avail themselves of the humble Possessor's Absence for the Pleasure of expressing that Feeling, in the doing something towards erecting such a Monument of public Gratitude to him, and of Encouragement to Virtue as heroic and sublime, if it be possible, in others, are hereby invited to send their Contributions, before the End of September, to Mess. R. and F. Gosling, Bankers, Fleet-street; Mess. Mildred, Masterman, and Walker, White Hart-court, Gracechurch-street; Mess. Langtons, Towgoods, and Amory, Bankers, Clement's-lane; Dr. Lettison, Basinghall-street, or to Mr. J. Nichols, Printer, Red-lion-passage, Fleet-street.

§§ The Printers of the County Papers, it is hoped, will acquaint their Readers, as an Article of News, that such a National Design is on Foot, and offer to transmit whatever Subscriptions may be sent to them to some of the abovementioned Receivers.

IRISH LIFE ANNUITIES,
With Benefit of Survivorship.

THE Subscribers to the Life Annuities, which commenced the 25th of March, 1778, according to a Resolution of the House of Commons of Ireland, Session 1777, and provided for by an Act of Parliament Session 1779, who are to be paid in London, may receive Six Months Annuity, due at Midsummer last, at Messrs. Boldero, Adey, E. G. Boldero and Braffer, Bankers, No. 77, Lombard-street, in the following Manner, viz.

The first Class in each (consisting of Nominees of the Age of Forty Years, and upwards) from the 15th Instant to the 18th ditto, both Days inclusive, from Ten in the Forenoon until Two in the Afternoon.

The second Class in each (consisting of Nominees of the Age of Twenty Years, and upwards, but under Forty) from the 22d instant to the 25th ditto, both Days inclusive.

The third Class in each (consisting of Nominees under the Age of Twenty Years) from the 29th of August to the 1st of September next, both Days inclusive, and from the 5th ditto to the 8th ditto, both Days inclusive.

Those of each Class remaining unpaid will be paid every Tuesday and Thursday following, during the same Hours.

The Debentures to be produced, and a Certificate of the Life of the Nominee, otherwise a personal Appearance will be required; and it is particularly requested, upon the Demise of a Nominee, that the Debentures may be delivered in as above, to be transmitted to Ireland, to render the Lists of Deaths complete, for the future Benefit and Regulation of each Class; and as the earliest Information should be obtained of the Occurrences which affect a Reversionary Property, wherein so many Individuals are concerned, it is further requested of any Person, who may discover any Fraud or Imposition on these Annuities, to give Notice thereof, with all convenient Speed, to the Deputy Vice-Treasurer, Treasury Chamber, Dublin, or to Messrs. Boldero, Adey, E. G. Boldero and Braffer.

The Publick are requested to attend on the Days allotted for the Payment of the different Classes, and to take Notice, that in case any Person, who by the Intent of the Act of Parliament providing for the Payment of these Annuities, shall neglect to demand the same, for the Space of Three Years from the Receipt of their last Dividend, he or she shall for ever lose and forfeit the same, as if his or her respective Nominee had been dead at the Commencement of the said Three Years.

NOTICE is hereby given, That the Partnership between William Coulton, late of the Town of Kingston upon Hull, but now of the City of London, and John Craven, of Leeds in the County of York, Bug-destroyers, is this Day dissolved by mutual Consent. Witness our Hands the 13th Day of July, 1786.

Wm. Coulton.
John Craven.
