When we consider the Value and Importance of your Majesty's Life to the Happiness of your People, we cannot be induced to believe, at a Period of general Prosperity, that any Individual in your Majesty's Dominions, unless under the Influence of a disordered Mind, could have been found wicked.

or daring enough to have attempted a Deed so singularly atrocious in its Nature, and which might have proved so dreadful in its Consequences.

Under the Impression of Sentiments of the most affectionate Respect for your Majesty's Person, Family and Government, we beg Leave to express our sincere and earnest Wishes, that your Majesty may be long continued a Blessing to your Kingdoms; and reign the revered Sovereign of a loyal and free People. Your Majesty's Paternal Regard for the Welfare of your People has been eminent on all Occasions, and your Majesty's Subjects have every Reason to be sensible of their Happiness under so mild and gracious a Prince, as they are in full Possession of their Privileges, Rights and Liberties, their Commerce flourishing, and Peace and Tranquillity at Home and Abroad.

Truly sensible of the great Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, and truly thankful for them, we look with Detestation and Horror on all diabolical Attempts against a Life so deservedly dear to all your Subjects.

But however shocking this Event may have been to your Majesty, it cannot but be a pleasing Reflection to think that only Insanity could suggest it; and the sincere Congratulations of a grateful People will, we trust, convey a Satisfaction of the purest Kind to your Royal Breast.

We beg Leave to add our Hopes and Prayers that your Majesty's Reign over us may be long and prosperous; and that when your Majesty shall be called to a brighter Crown and greater Happiness than this World can give, your Posterity, instructed by your Illustrious Example, may continue to future Generations the Blessings which we cannot reflect upon but with Hearts warm with Affection and Gratitude.

Truly sensible how essential the Preservation of your Majesty's important Life is to the Welfare and Happiness of your Majesty's Subjects, and the mournful Calamity they would have sustained had it so dreadfully terminated, the most alarming Apprehensions were excited in our Minds; and particularly severe and painful was the Reflection, that your Majesty's gracious Disposition to listen to the Distresses of your Subjects should prove the Means of endangering your invaluable Life.

May your Majesty graciously accept this Earnest of our Duty, and inviolable Attachment to your Sacred Person and Government, and our humble Assurances that it will be our constant Prayer, that your Majesty's Reign may long continue over your faithful Subjects.

But, Sire, whilst we give Way to our Joy on your Majesty's Deliverance, and to our Thankfulness to Heaven for having interposed so critically in our Favour, we cannot but feel happy in the Conviction, that, so universal is the Attachment of our Fellow Subjects to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, that no Idea injurious to your Majesty could enter any Mind, that was not become insensible, through Infirmary, to the Dictates of Gratitude and Duty.

That your Majesty may long continue to reign over a free and happy People, is the ardent Prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Impressed as we are with the deepest Sense of Gratitude for the many Benefits which we and our Fellow Subjects enjoy under the mild Government of your Majesty, we should be extremely remiss in our Duty if we did not ardently and continually pray to Almighty God to protect your most precious Life, and thereby to prolong to all the Inhabitants of the Empire those Blessings and Comforts, which (unknown to former Ages) they daily experience.
