Permit us, Royal Sir, to add our most sincere and fervent Prayers that your invaluable Life may ever be preserved from similar Attempts: That you may long, very long continue to reign over a free, happy, and united People; and that the many inestimable Blessings which your faithful Subjects now enjoy may be transmitted to them by your Descendants to the latest Posterity.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that our Loyalty to your Majesty's Person and Government is similar to that which our Predecessors have in all Times of Difficulty and Danger manifested to your Majesty's Royal Progenitors, Lords and Kings of Ireland; and the History and Records of this Kingdom do shew that Loyalty to have been unbounded.

We should feel the greatest Horror and deepest Affliction for the Depravity of Human Nature, if we thought it possible that an Attempt to deprive us of so good a King could have proceeded from any Thing but Insanity; and, until that Matter shall be tried by due Course of Law, we shall continue to comfort ourselves with the Hope that such a fatal Purpose could only be entertained in a Mind which Reason had abandoned.

That your Majesty may long live our King, enthroned in the Hearts of a free People, and at length close an happy Reign in Glory and Tranquility, is the fervent Prayer of this loyal City.

In Testimony whereof we have caused the Common Seal of the said City to be hereunto affixed, this Fourteenth Day of August, 1786.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Sheriff, Grand Jury, Gentlemen and Inhabitants of the County of Meath, at an Assizes held at Trim, the Fourteenth Day of August, 1786.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Sheriff, Grand Jury, Gentlemen and Inhabitants of the County of Meath, embrace the earliest Opportunity to approach your Throne, with our unfeigned Congratulations on your Majesty's most happy Escape from the late daring and impious Attempt upon your Sacred Person; an Attempt which, though it was the Suggestion of Insanity and Weakness, yet has raised a Tumult of Distress among your Majesty's faithful Subjects of this Kingdom, and filled their Minds with the tenderest Anxiety for the Safety of their beloved Sovereign.

We beg Leave most humbly to assure your Majesty, that we shall be, at all Times, ready and willing to adventure Life, Property, and every Thing that is dear to us, in the Support and Defence of your Majesty, and your Royal House. We are happy in the Persuasion that these Sentiments of Duty and Affection to your Majesty are universal throughout your extended Empire, and that any evil Attempt, which might seem to contradict them could only proceed from one who was destitute of the Powers of Reason and Reflection.

We offer up our unfeigned Acknowledgments to that Guardian Power, by whom the Rulers of the Earth are protected in the Enjoyment of their just Rights, and whose watchful Superintendence was so signally manifested in the Preservation of your Royal Person. To the same unfailing Protection we humbly commit your Majesty, with our ardent Prayers, that the Favour of Heaven may ever be exerted in your Preservation; that the Designs of Perfidy and Weakness may be equally crushed and rendered abortive, and that your Majesty may be long spared over these Nations, Nations, a Blessing to your People, and the Guardian of their Rights.

Accept, most Gracious Sovereign, these unfeigned Sentiments of our Breasts, not the Dictates of unmeaning Formality, but, the sincere Effusions of Loyalty and Truth. For while Justice and Gratitude have any Influence over the human Mind, your Majesty must reign in the Hearts of a faithful, affectionate, and free People.

St. James's, August 23.
