

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday August 26, to Tuesday August 29, 1786.

St. James's, August 29.

THE following Address of the Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Berks, has been presented to the King by William Poyntz, Esq; Sheriff, attended by George Vanittart and Henry James Pye, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the said County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and unanimous Address of the Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Berks.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, fully sensible of the Blessings we enjoy in your Majesty's Reign, attached to your Royal Person and Family, and honoured by your Residence in our County, beg Leave to approach your Throne with our sincere Congratulations on the late providential Escape of your Majesty's Royal Person.

Ever mindful of the Goodness of your Majesty's Royal Consort, we cannot but express our Joy at her being relieved from the Anxiety she must have felt, by the Recollection that so daring an Attempt was the Act of an insane and disordered Mind.

Permit us to assure your Majesty, it is our earnest Prayer, That your Majesty may long continue to reign over us, and that we may enjoy, under your Government, every Blessing we have hitherto experienced, as a free and independent People.

Signed at the Request of the Meeting,

William Poyntz, Sheriff.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Bailiffs and Burgesses of the Borough of Liverpool, has been presented to the King by Bamber Gascoyne, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Bailiffs and Burgesses of the Borough of Liverpool, in Common Council assembled, impressed with the liveliest Sense of the Value of your Majesty's Life, to your nearest Connections as well as to the Kingdom in general, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty, and the Nation at large, on the very providential Escape you have had from the daring Attempt of a wretched Assassin.

That your Majesty, under whom our Liberties are safe and our Commerce protected, may long live and reign over a free People, cannot but be the earnest prayer of all good Subjects.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Town and County of the Town of Poole, has been presented to the King by William Morton Pitt, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Town, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses and Commonalty of your ancient Town and County of the Town of Poole, in Common Hall assembled, humbly beg Leave to present to your Majesty our most unfeigned Congratulations on the providential Deliverance, manifestly shewn in the Failure of that horrid Attempt which so lately threatened your Majesty's Life.

That the same Providence may continue its Goodness in preserving that Life, which it has now rescued, to a long Period, in Health and Safety, is our most fervent Prayer.

Given under our Common Seal; the Seventeenth Day of August, 1786.

[Signed by 60 Persons.]

The following Address of the Bailiffs, Aldermen, Burgesses and Inhabitants of Bridgnorth, has been presented to the King by Isaac Hawkins Browne, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Aldermen, Burgesses and Inhabitants of Bridgnorth, in the County of Salop.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Aldermen, Burgesses and Inhabitants of Bridgnorth, humbly beg Permission to join, before the Throne, in the general Voice of Joy