THE following Address of the Archbishop, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral and Metropolitan Church, and the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Diocese of Canterbury, has been presented to the King by his Grace the Lord Archbishop, attended by the Reverend the Dean, the Archdeacon, Dr. Dering, Dr. Barford, Dr. Fowell, Dr. Radcliffe, Dr. Pennington, Mr. Horne, and Mr. Pennington: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Archbishop, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral and Metropolitan Church, and the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Diocese of Canterbury.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Archbishop, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral and Metropolitan Church, and the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Diocese of Canterbury, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence, to express the grateful Sentiments of our Hearts on the Blessing vouchsafed to a whole People in the Person of their Prince. Averted by His protecting Arm, whose Prerogative it is to give Salvation unto Kings, the intended Blow, which threatened so much Calamity and Confusion to these Kingdoms, has served only to display your Majesty's Magnanimity and Humanity in the Moment of Danger; to call forth the general Voice of Thankfulness and Joy; and to convince the World, that the Hand of Infamy alone could be lifted up against a Life so deservedly honoured, and endeared to all Orders and Degrees of Men amongst us.

May the Almighty God, who hath placed and preserved your Majesty on the Throne by His Providence, protect and support you, through a long Course of Years, to be a Blessing to your Subjects. May your Majesty's Life be distinguished by every Satisfaction which can result from the Rectitude of your own Heart; from the Health, Honour and Prosperity of our most Gracious Queen and your Illustrious Family; and from the best Tribute which a good Prince can receive, the increasing Attachment of your faithful People.

[Signed by the Archbishop and 69 of the Clergy.]

The following Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Diocese of Salisbury, has been presented to the King by the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop, and the Reverend the Archdeacon: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Diocese of Salisbury.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Diocese of Salisbury, approach your Royal Person, deeply impressed with all those Sentiments of Piety and Veneration, that flow from a Sense of the imminent Danger which your Majesty, and those whom a kind Providence has placed under your auspicious Government, have so recently escaped. While we feel the most fervent Gratitude to the Almighty for averting a Blow, which nothing but Infamy could have aimed, we feel anxious also to express to your Majesty, and to manifest to the World, the Interest we take in the Preservation of a Life most justly endeared to your People, by the uniform Attention your Majesty has shewn to their Religious and Civil Liberties, and by the Example you have set of the Discharge of every public, private, and domestic Duty.

[Signed by the Bishop and 69 of the Clergy.]

The following Address of the Bishop and Clergy of the Cathedral Church and Diocese of Worcester has been presented to the King by the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Bishop and Clergy of the Cathedral Church and Diocese of Worcester, beg Leave to present our sincerest Congratulations to your Majesty on your late happy Deliverance from the Danger of Assassination.

We understand, Sir, that the Assasin was mad; and we easily believe that nothing less than Infamy could prompt any of your Majesty's Subjects to entertain a Thought so desperately wicked. But Infamy, though the Object of Pity, and therefore in the late Instance, so justly and magnanimously respected by your Majesty's Humanity, is not less, perhaps is more alarming than sber Villainy itself. We therefore bless and adore that good Providence, which protected your Majesty's Sacred Person in a Moment of so much Danger. And we shall never cease to put up our fervent Prayers to Almighty God, that He will be pleased continually to watch over a Life so precious to all your Subjects, and in particular to your Clergy, who have the Happiness to see themselves and their Ministry countenanced by your Majesty in a Way, that is observed by all, and can give Offence to none; we mean, Sir, by the shining Example of your Majesty's Life, fashioned on the Faith and Hope of the Gospel.

[Signed by the Bishop and 33 of the Clergy.]

May the Divine Providence long continue to protect your Maſteſty's Perſon and Government, and render your People deſerving of the Bleſſings derived to them from your many amiable and exalted Virtues.

Given under the Common Seal of this Corporation, this Twenty-fifth Day of Auguſt, in the Year of our Lord, 1786.

We cannot too much implore the Divine Being to preſerve your Sacred Maſteſty, and your Royal and Auguſt Houſe, at all Times from every Danger; but our moſt unfeigned Thanks are particularly due, at this Time, to Him, for protecting your Maſteſty's moſt invaluable Life, at the preſent important Criſis, when the political Exiſtence and Salvation of theſe Kingdoms depend thereupon, as we have the Pleaſure to ſee every Exertion making, under your Maſteſty's Auſpices, to render them once more glorious, flouriſhing, and the Envy and Admiration of the World, and which, under Providence, may, in future, prevent Wars and Bloodſhed, that have ſo long and ſo frequently deluged every Quarter of the Globe, to the Diſgrace of Chriſtianity.

Every Clime in which your Maſteſty's lenient Government prevails, would, in Concert with your Royal Family and us, have long had great Reason to lament their infinite Loſs, had ſuch a deſperate and fatal Attempt upon your Sacred Life ſucceeded.

We therefore ardently hope and pray, that the Omnipotent may keep your Sacred Maſteſty, and your Royal and Illuſtrious Family, under His protecting Power; and that your Maſteſty and your lineal Succeſſors may, like your Royal Predeceſſors of glorious Memory, continue long to ſway the Imperial Sceptre of theſe Realms, with undiminished Splendor, Moderation and Juſtice.

We beg Leave to aſſure you how much we deteſt and abhor every Principle injurious to your Maſteſty's Perſon and Honor, and do, with the ſincereſt Joy, congratulate your Maſteſty on your Eſcape from the late vile Attempt againſt your Sacred Perſon; and it is our fervent Wiſh, that your Maſteſty may, with uninterrupted Felicity, enjoy that Throne, which you have filled with ſo much dignified Virtue and Humanity.

While we look back with Horror at the Danger from which your Majesty has been delivered, we have the Satisfaction to think, that none but the Hand of Madness could be raised against your Sacred Person; for, judging by our own Feelings, we believe your Majesty has not a Subject who would not freely oppose his Breast between your Majesty and the Assassin.

May your Majesty long continue to reign in the Hearts of a faithful and loyal People; and may that Providence, which has so greatly favoured us in your Preservation, render us worthy Subjects of so good a King.

We are fully persuaded, from the universal Attachment of your Majesty's Subjects to your Royal Person, firmly established by the Mildness and Clemency of your Majesty's Government, that this alarming Attempt could only proceed from the Infamy of the Person who made it.

May that Almighty Being, who rules all Events, still continue to guard and protect from all Accidents, and from every Danger, your Majesty's most invaluable Life, so justly dear to all your faithful Subjects; and that your Majesty may long continue happily to reign over an affectionate and grateful People is our most fervent Prayer.

We have seen Happiness so generally diffused among our Fellow-Subjects, and have experienced so much ourselves, under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government; that we are convinced the Idea of so horrible an Attack could have taken Place only in the Mind of a Person affected with Insanity.

We pray that your Majesty's Life may be protected by Providence to a very distant Period, and that your Majesty's Reign may continue to be, as it has been, a Source of Felicity to a grateful and affectionate People.

Given under our Common Seal at the Guildhall in Sandwich aforesaid, the Twenty-sixth Day of August, 1786.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Newcastle under Lyme, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty; upon your Escape from the late nefarious Attempt upon your Sacred Person. Nothing but Insanity could have induced such an Attack upon your Majesty, whose moral Conduct may be looked up to as an Example worthy of the Imitation of your Subjects, and whose Reign has been marked with every proper Attention to the Welfare and Happiness of your People.

Fully sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's Government, we must at all Times feel of what Importance your Life is to the Prosperity of your Subjects, but more especially at this Period, when the Nation is emerging from the Difficulties of the late War; and we have the Satisfaction to see, that by the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, and the salutary Measures which have been lately adopted, for the Improvement of the Public Revenue, this Country is again rising to a most respectable and flourishing Situation.

Happy are we (and the Nation in general have Cause to be so) that this Attempt did not succeed. Had it so done, we must inevitably have been involved in the greatest of all Calamities, the Loss of a great and virtuous Prince, the Father of His People.

That your Majesty may long reign in the Hearts as well as over the Persons of your Subjects, and at a very late Period exchange this your earthly for an immortal Crown, is the sincere Prayer of, Great Sire, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects.

We bless the Almighty, who, through permitting the Attempt, frustrated the shocking Design, which, had it been carried into Execution, would have not only deprived us of the most gracious and benign Sovereign that ever sat on the Throne of these Realms, but deranged that System of Government which has brought us out of the lowest State of Despair, and raised us to a Degree of National Prosperity beyond Expectation, and which will, we trust, under your Majesty's paternal Care; soon restore us to our former Glory. It is therefore our ardent Prayer, that the King of Kings may continually watch over and guard your Majesty's precious Life, that you may long, very long, continue to reign over a happy, united, and flourishing People.
