Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop of London, the Dean and Chapter of St. Paul's, and the Clergy of the Cities of London and Westminster, impressed with a deep Sense of the many and invaluable Blessings which we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, the great Advantage which Religion has ever received from your Countenance and Protection, and the constant Support which Morality has derived from your Example, cannot but feel ourselves particularly interested in the Safety of your Majesty's Life; and we beg Leave to present to your Majesty our most sincere Congratulations on its late providential Preservation.

The humble Address the Bishop, Dean, Archdeacon and Clergy of the Church and Diocese of Gloucester.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, Dean, Archdeacon and Clergy of the Church and Diocese of Gloucester, beg Leave to express, before your Majesty, our devout and grateful Sense of the Divine Goodness which hath been so eminently displayed in the Preservation of your Royal Person from an Attempt on your Sacred Life.

It was a most seasonable Relief to our Minds, when informed of your Majesty's Danger and Deliverance, to be at the same Time authentically assured, that the infamous Attack was made, not in consequence of any pre-concerted Plan, or with the Privy of others, but by one Person only, and that Person evidently under the Influence of a disordered Imagination. We trust and believe there is not a Subject throughout your Majesty's Dominions, who has the sober Possession of his Understanding, that does not heartily join with his Fellow Citizens in expressing his Abhorrence of the Attempt itself, and in the sincerest Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from it.

It shall be our Part, as it is our Duty, to cultivate in those committed to our Charge, the Principles of Loyalty and Affection to your Majesty's Person and Government; and to enforce Obedience to those Principles by the Sanctions of that pure and holy Religion which your Majesty hath uniformly supported by your Authority, and adorned by your Example.

May the Piety and Virtue of your Majesty and our most amiable and gracious Queen be attended with an Increase of domestic Happiness and Public Prosperity! May your Lives be still preserved from all the Machinations of secret Treachery and open Violence! And may the Honours of your Crown, after being long possessed by your Majesty, be transmitted in your Illustrious House, with undiminished Lustre, to our latest Posterity.

We pray to God to grant your Majesty a long and happy Life, and to impress on the Minds of all your Subjects a due Sense of this late Instance of His great Goodness to these Kingdoms.

As Ministers of the Gospel of Christ, we cannot omit this Opportunity of expressing the Joy and Satisfaction we feel, from the bright Example which your Majesty and your Royal Consort afford in every Christian Grace and Virtue, well knowing how much it must tend to a general Reformation of Manners; and we humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will be unwearied in our Endeavours to inculcate the Duties of our Holy Religion, and to promote Peace, good Order, and a firm Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, in all Places where we are appointed to serve.
