Rofsbery, Preses.

The following Address having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been presented to the King: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Burgesses and Commonalty of the Borough of Tewkesbury in the County of Gloucester, sincerely participating in the general Joy diffused through your Majesty's Dominions on the late providential Deliverance of your Majesty's Sacred Person from the daring Attempt of a mad Assassin, beg Leave to present your Majesty with our most humble and hearty Congratulations.

Truly sensible how deeply we are concerned in the Life of a Sovereign the Father of His People, we most devoutly offer up our Thanks to that Almighty Power whose Arm was our Shield in the Moment of Violence; together with our Prayers that the same Divine Interference may auspiciously continue to protect and defend your Majesty, and to preserve the Government of these Kingdoms in your Royal House to the latest Posterity.

Given under our Common Seal at the Tolsey in the said Borough, the Twelfth Day of September, in the Twenty-sixth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Pembroke, at the Grand Sessions assembled at Haverfordwest, the Twenty-eighth Day of August, 1786.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Pembroke, truly sensible of the many and great Blessings we in common with all your Majesty's faithful Subjects enjoy, under your Majesty's mild, equal, and most gracious Government, and of your tender Affection and paternal Regard for the Constitutional Liberties, Prosperity and Happiness of all your People, beg Leave to approach your Throne with our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations upon your Majesty's providential and happy Escape from the late atrocious and horrid Attempt upon your most precious Life.

Deeply impressed with the alarming Apprehensions of the calamitous Consequences which, but for the gracious Interposition of the Almighty, might have attended that most execrable Attempt, we eagerly embrace the Consolation of reflecting, that none of your Majesty's Subjects were found so abandoned in Principle, so lost to all Sense of your Royal Goodness, or so destitute of Regard for the Welfare of their Fellow Subjects, as to be capable of the flagitious Act, but a Wretch deprived of the Powers of Reason, and thence degraded below the Rank of Humanity.

That your Majesty's precious Life, so essential to the Happiness of all your People, may long be spared to their earnest Supplications at the Throne of Mercy, and that your Royal Virtues may, with your Crown, descend to your latest Posterity, is and shall be our constant Prayer; and we can with Confidence assure your Majesty, that it is the unanimous Petition of the Inhabitants of this ever loyal and dutiful County.
