St. James's, September 23.

YESTERDAY being the Anniversary of Their Majesties Coronation, there was a numerous and splendid Appearance at Court of the Nobility; Foreign Ministers; and other Persons of Distinction, to compliment Their Majesties on the Occasion: The Guns in the Park and at the Tower were fired at One o'Clock; and in the Evening there were Illuminations and other public Demonstrations of Joy.

St. James's, September 23.

THE following Addressees of the Bishop, Dean and Clergy of Bristol; and of the Bishop, Precentor and Chapter, the Archdeacons, and the Rest of the Clergy of the Diocese of St. David; have been presented to the King by His Grace the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury: Which Addressees His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects; the Bishop, Dean and Clergy of Bristol, humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne with our sincere Congratulations to your Majesty, and to testify our Gratitude to the Divine Goodness for so signally protecting your most Sacred Person from the late daring and violent Attack.

We are too sensible of the Blessings we enjoy, under your Majesty's paternal Care and Government, to view without Alarm so atrocious an Attempt.

Permit us to renew our unfeigned Professions of inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Royal and Illustrious House; and may the same gracious Arm, which has hitherto preserved, long continue to your faithful Subjects a Life so essentially connected with their Civil and Religious Liberties.

May your Majesty reign in the Affections of a free and loyal People, an Example of unaffected Piety and strict Morality, until it shall please the Divine Disposer of all Events to exalt you, full of Years, to a Crown of Glory.

[Signed by the Bishop and 40 of the Clergy.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop, Precentor and Chapter, the Archdeacons, and the Rest of the Clergy of the Diocese of St. David.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Bishop, the Precentor and Chapter, the Archdeacons, and the Rest of the Clergy of the Diocese of St. David, with Hearts full of affectionate Concern for the Safety of your Majesty's Sacred Person, humbly beg Leave to lay before your Majesty our sincerest Expressions of Happiness, for your late Escape from an unnatural Attempt upon a Life of so great Importance to these Kingdoms.

In your Majesty's Person are involved; not only the many Blessings we enjoy under so good a Governor, but also the very Being and Existence of our excellent Constitution. With the Supreme Guardian and Supporter of our Civil and Religious Establishment the whole System of Government must stand or fall. May they long subsist together inviolate, free from the Attacks either of Phrenzy or Folly. May the Almighty, as in the late Instance of providential Care over your Royal Person, be evermore your Defender and Keeper. May your Majesty continue to rule over us for many Years to come, dispensing the Blessings of a mild and gracious Government to all your Majesty's faithful Subjects, and reigning even in a Country of Freedom, at least in this Instance, most absolutely in the Hearts and Affections of all who are committed to your Charge:

[Signed by the Bishop and 17 of the Clergy.]

The following Address of the Bishop, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Norwich, the Archdeacons and Clergy of the Diocese of Norwich, has been presented to the King by the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of Norwich, attended by the Reverend the Archdeacons of Sudbury and Suffolk, and the Reverend Dr. Poyntz, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Norwich, the Archdeacons and Clergy of the Diocese of Norwich.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

THE distinguished Blessings derived to this Kingdom, under your Majesty's mild and happy Government, must naturally interest all Descriptions of Men in the Welfare and Security of your Person:

The Guardians and Ministers of that pure Religion established in this Country have peculiar Reason to rejoice in your Safety; sensible as they must be of the Advantage which the great Object of their Concern receives, not more from your Power and Protection, than from your Example in the constant Practice of every Christian Duty, both public and private.

Among

Among these, the Clergy of the Diocese of Norwich presume to assure your Majesty of the unfeigned Joy they feel on your late providential Deliverance from imminent and unsuspected Danger.

May that Power, which hath now rescued, continue long to preserve your Majesty from the various Accidents and Calamities of Life, a Blessing and a Pattern to your own Illustrious Family, to a loyal and affectionate People, and to all Mankind.

[Signed by the Bishop and 173 of the Clergy.]

The following Address of the Bishop and Clergy of the Diocese of Durham, has been presented to the King by Lieutenant-Colonel Egerton, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop and Clergy of the Diocese of Durham.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop and Clergy of the Diocese of Durham, beg Leave to join with the most zealous of your Subjects in sincere Congratulations upon your Escape from the Danger to which your Sacred Life was lately exposed by the frantic Impulse of Insanity.

Actuated by Principles of Duty and unfeigned Attachment to your Majesty's Person, your Family and your Government, and truly sensible of the inestimable Benefits which we enjoy under our most gracious Sovereign, we offer up our most fervent Prayers that the Almighty Disposer of Events who has hitherto protected, may continue to preserve your Majesty's invaluable Life; and that you may long reign over a free, grateful and loyal People. Witness the Episcopal Seal of the Diocese of Durham, this Fifteenth Day of September, in the Year of our Lord, 1786.

The following Address of the German Reformed Protestant Congregation in the Savoy, has been presented to the King by the Reverend Charles Godfrey Woide and David Peyer Imhoff, Esq; being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the German Reformed Protestant Congregation in the Savoy,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Minister, Vestry, and Members of the German Reformed Protestant Congregation, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Person with our most humble and sincere Congratulations on the happy Escape of the late atrocious Attempt on your Majesty's Life.

Deeply impressed with the innumerable Civil and Religious Blessings we enjoy, in common with the Rest of our Fellow Subjects, under your Majesty's most gracious Government and Protection, we have offered our warmest and most grateful Acknowledgements to Almighty God, for shielding your Majesty's Person in the Moment of unsuspecting Danger; and at whose Altar we shall never cease ardently to pray for the Preservation of your Majesty's Sacred Life, and that your Majesty's Reign may be long and blessed.

At the Savoy, September 20, 1786.

[Signed by Charles Godfrey Woide, Minister, and 18 others.]

The following Address from the French Protestant Refugees has been presented to the King by the Reverend Mr. Mauzy, attended by a Deputation from those Bodies, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

SIRE,

LES Protestans François Réfugiés, pénétrés d'un Sentiment profond de Respect & de Fidélité pour la Personne Sacrée de votre Majesté, viennent se jeter humblement aux Pieds de votre Trône pour vous témoigner, Sire, l'Impression douloureuse qu'a fait sur eux l'Attentat horrible commis contre votre Auguste Personne, & la Joye vive & sincère qu'ils ont ressentie de ce qu'il a plu à la Providence d'en détourner le Coup affreux. Unis à tous vos Sujets, Sire, par des Liens communs de Loyauté, ils conservent de plus précieusement la Mémoire de la Protection dont les Rois vos Prédécesseurs ont honoré les François Réfugiés pour la Religion dans vos Royaumes, & que votre Majesté daigne si généreusement leur continuer. C'est à ces Titres, Sire, qu'ils se croient appelés à faire éclater, dans cette Occasion, les Sentimens qui les animent. Ils regardent la Conservation de votre Majesté & la Prospérité de votre Illustre Famille comme essentielle au Bonheur de vos Peuples; & ne cesseront d'offrir au Souverain Arbitre des Rois & des Royaumes leurs humbles & ardentes Prières pour qu'il lui plaise, de répandre sur les Jours précieux de votre Majesté toutes les Richesses de Sa Grace, & d'en prolonger l'heureux Cours jusqu'aux Bornes les plus reculées de la Vie humaine.

Au Nom de l'Assemblée Générale des Eglises,

Samuel Mauzy, Modérateur.

Charles de Guiffardière, Secrétaire,

And 18 others.

The following Address of the Governor, Assistants and Fellowship of Merchants Adventurers of England, residing in Hamburg, having been transmitted by John Coleman, Esq; His Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires at that City, to the Marquis of Carmarthen, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, has been by him presented to the King: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Governor, Assistants and Fellowship of Merchants Adventurers of England, residing in Hamburg; in General Court assembled, beg Permission to approach the Throne with our sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the late horrid Attempt upon your Royal Person.

We rejoice at the signal Preservation of a Life manifestly dear and of the greatest Importance to your Majesty's Royal Family, extensive Dominions, and universally to the Interests of Humanity.

May your Majesty long continue to reign with Glory in the Hearts of a happy and loyal People; and may the benign Influence of your Majesty's Wisdom and Royal Virtues descend with your Illustrious Name and Progeny to the latest Generations.

Given under the Common Seal of the above Fellowship, the Seventh Day of September, 1786.

Rich. Thornton, Governor.

John Blacker, Treasurer.

Colin Ross, Secretary.

The following Address of the Commissioners of the River Wear, Fitters, Merchants, Ship-Owners and Inhabitants of the Town of Sunderland near the Sea, has been presented to the King by the Marquis of Carmarthen: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Commissioners of the River Wear, Fitters, Merchants, Ship-Owners and Inhabitants of the Town, Port and Haven of Sunderland near the Sea, in the County of Durham.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

Impelled by Sentiments of Duty, and the most ardent Affection for your Majesty's Person, Family and Government, we, the Commissioners of the River Wear, Fitters, Merchants, Ship-Owners and Inhabitants of the Town, Port and Haven of Sunderland near the Sea, in the County of Durham, beg Leave humbly to approach the Throne, and to offer our sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's happy and providential Escape from the late horrid and alarming Attempt upon your Sacred Person.

We most fervently pray that the same good Providence, which has been so eminently and signally displayed in your Majesty's Preservation, by averting the intended Blow, may continue to watch over your Majesty, and every Branch of your Illustrious and Amiable Family, and that your Majesty may very long and very happily reign over a free, loyal, and affectionate People.

Dated at Sunderland near the Sea aforesaid, the Eleventh Day of September, 1786.

[Signed by 41 Persons.]

The Four following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates and Counsellors of the Royal Borough of Irvine.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates and Counsellors of your Borough of Irvine, in Council assembled, beg Leave to offer our most sincere Congratulations for your Majesty's late providential Deliverance, Congratulations flowing from the warmest Affections; and we pray that your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous over your free and happy People.

Signed in our Names and Presence, and by our Appointment,

John Fergusson, Provost.

Council Chamber, Irvine,
September 15, 1786.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry and Freeholders of the County of Stafford, being thoroughly sensible of the sincere Attachment of your Majesty to the Constitution, and your constant Zeal and Attention to promote and secure the Welfare and Prosperity of your People, humbly beg Leave to lay at the Foot of your Throne our dutiful Congratulations on your providential Escape from the Danger which lately threatened your Royal Person.

Such an alarming Attempt upon the Life of a Prince, so deservedly dear to his People, will be transmitted in the Annals of this Country, with Marks of Horror and Detestation, to all future Ages.

That the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's most mild and gracious Government may remain to us, we earnestly pray that the Almighty will continue to guard and preserve your Majesty's invaluable Life, and to bless and protect your Illustrious House, on which the Happiness of the Nation so essentially depends.

[Signed by 109 Persons.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders and Heretors of the County of Fife, deeply impressed with the most affectionate Regard for your Royal Person, and with a Sense of the Divine Goodness, which hath delivered your Majesty from the Hand of an Assassin, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne, and to offer our warm Congratulations on your late providential Escape.

Being duly sensible of the great Importance of your Majesty's valuable Life to the Happiness of your People, permit us to express our earnest Wishes, that it may please Almighty God to preserve you for a Blessing to your Subjects, and that your Reign over them may be long and prosperous.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, at Cupar, September 12, 1786, by Leven, Preses.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Chancellor, Rector, Dean of Faculties, Principal and Professors of the University of Glasgow.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Dean of Faculties, Principal and Professors of the University of Glasgow, with all Humility approach your Throne, to testify our heartfelt Joy at this Season of general Congratulation, and our Thankfulness to Almighty God for preserving your Majesty's invaluable Life, when an outrageous Violence, which might have proved so fatal to yourself, and so calamitous to your Kingdoms, was lately aimed against your Sacred Person.

Looking up to you as the Father of your People, and deeply sensible how truly at all Times you are devoted to the Happiness and Prosperity of all Ranks over whom you reign, and to the best Interests of Learning and Religion, as well as to every laudable Object which tends to raise the Name and Character of the British Nation, we earnestly pray that the same most gracious Providence may ever watch over you, and long preserve your precious Life, as a Blessing to your Illustrious family and to your loyal and affectionate Subjects.

Dated at the University of Glasgow, in the Senate, the Sixth Day of September, 1786.

The following Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Buckingham, has been presented to the King by Thomas Wilkinson, Esq; Sheriff, attended by the Marquis of Buckingham, Lord Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum of the said County, the Earl of Chesterfield, Sir Henry Gott, the Rev. Thomas Willis, Willis, William Drake, sen. Esq; William Drake, jun. Esq; and Richard Hopkins, Esq; being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Buckingham, beg Leave, with all Humility and Affection, to offer to your Majesty the strongest Assurances of our Attachment to your Royal Person and Family.

To these Professions, with which your Majesty's loyal County of Buckingham has so often been permitted to approach your Throne, we beg to be allowed to add our sincerest Congratulations to your Majesty upon your late providential Escape, together with our earnest Prayers for the Happiness and Security of your Majesty's Life, and for the Continuance of the Blessings which we enjoy under it.

Tho. Wilkinson, Sheriff.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the City of Worcester, has been presented to the King by the Earl of Coventry, Recorder of the said City, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the City of Worcester, in Common Council assembled, prompted by the most affectionate Attachment, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne, to express our most hearty Indignation at the late horrid Attempt on your Sacred Life, of such high and important Consequence to your Subjects.

We earnestly hope that the same kind Providence, (greatly propitious to these Realms) which has so lately protected your Sacred Person from that Attempt, will not ever suffer either open Violence or secret Fraud to reach its Aim, but will preserve your Royal Person in Security, Prosperity and Honor, and very long continue to a loyal and grateful People the invaluable Blessings which they have enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and equitable Reign.

Given under our Common Seal, in the Council Chamber of the said City, the Fourteenth Day of September, 1786.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the City of Worcester, has been presented to the King by the Hon. William Ward and Samuel Smith, jun. Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said City, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the City of Worcester, in Common Hall assembled, animated with unfeigned and affectionate Loyalty, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne, declaring the just Indignation we feel at the late horrid and impious Attempt on the Sacred Life of a Sovereign so uniformly good and gracious to all His Subjects.

We earnestly pray, and assuredly hope, that the same good Providence, (greatly propitious to these Realms) which so lately shielded your Sacred Person in that most atrocious and daring Attempt, will not suffer any Weapon formed against you to prosper, but will still preserve your Royal Person in Safety, Health and Glory; and long, very long, continue to a loyal and thankful People the many great and invaluable Blessings of your Majesty's wise and happy Reign, and transmit the same in your August and Royal House to our latest Posterity.

[Signed by 66 Persons.]

The Two following Addresses having been transmitted by his Grace the Duke of Rutland, Lord Lieutenant of the Kingdom of Ireland, to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Catholics of Ireland.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Catholics of Ireland, humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne with our most sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's happy and providential Escape from the late horrid Attack on your Sacred Person.

It gives us the most poignant and heartfelt Pain, that an Attempt so base and degenerate could be made against the Life of the most tender Father of His People; and we are consoled only in believing that it proceeded from Infanity of Mind rather than Depravity of Heart.

Truly grateful for the essential Benefits we have received during your Majesty's auspicious Reign, we must feel ourselves particularly interested in every Circumstance that regards the Welfare of the best of Sovereigns; and permit us to assure your Majesty of our utmost Abhorrence and Detestation of every Attempt to disturb your private Peace, or the public Tranquility of your Dominions.

We supplicate the Supreme Being to grant to your Majesty a long and happy Reign; and to continue the Crown of these Realms to your Illustrious House unto its latest Posterity.

Signed by Order,

Killeen, Chairman.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Governor, High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Antrim, assembled at Carrickfergus, at Summer Assizes, 1786, truly sensible of the many and great Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and equitable Government, beg Leave most humbly to approach your Throne with our unfeigned Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the late daring Attempt by an insane Person against the Life of your Majesty.

We admire your Majesty's Firmness and Magnanimity of Mind on that Occasion, and think it our Duty, as much as it is our Inclination, to express our Joy and Satisfaction on an Event so interesting to all your Majesty's loving Subjects.

We humbly hope that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to accept this as the Effusion of the Hearts and Sentiments of Men ready to sacrifice their Lives

Lives and Fortunes in Defence of your Sacred Person and Government.

And we assure your Majesty that it is our earnest Prayer that your Majesty may long reign the happy Sovereign of a free, loyal and united People.

[Signed by the Governor, Sheriff and 22 other Persons.]

The following Address of the Inhabitants of the Borough of Aylesbury has been presented to the King by the Right Hon. William Wyndham Grenville, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the County of Buckingham being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Aylesbury, impelled not less by Inclination than by a Sense of Duty, beg Leave to approach your Throne with our most cordial Congratulations on your Majesty's late providential Escape.

Sensible as we are of the many Blessings we enjoy under the mild Influence of your Majesty's Government, and presuming, from our own Feelings, that our Sovereign reigned not only over the Persons, but in the Hearts of all His Subjects, it was with equal Horror and Astonishment we heard of the impious Attack on your Majesty's Person, and we are persuaded, that through the whole Extent of your Majesty's Dominions, none but a Lunatic can be found who would attempt to deprive our Country of a Life so justly dear to it.

[Signed by 102 Persons.]

The following Address of the Alderman, High Steward, Capital Burgesses and Free Burgesses of the Borough of Malmesbury, has been presented to the King by Edmund Wilkins, Esq; High Steward, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

WE, the Alderman, High Steward, Capital Burgesses and Free Burgesses of the Borough of Malmesbury, in the County of Wilts, being the whole Body Corporate in our Common Court assembled, do approach the Throne of Majesty, with a Tender of our sincere Address of Congratulation upon the providential Delivery and Safety of your Royal Person from the Attack of a frantic Assassin upon your Majesty's Life, on which depends the Happiness of your Royal Family, and Millions of affectionate and loyal Subjects.

That the Almighty God, in His great Goodness, will continue ever to guard your August and Sacred Person, and grant that your Majesty, the Protector of the Religion, Laws and Liberties of this free Country, may be blest with a long and prosperous Reign, in the Hearts of a free, confident, and grateful People, is the sincere, unfeigned Prayer of your Majesty's ever dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Alderman, High Steward, Capital Burgesses and Free Burgesses of the Borough Corporate of Malmesbury, in the County of Wilts.

In Testimony whereof, we the Alderman, High Steward and Capital Burgesses, have set our Hands, and Seal of our Borough.

[Signed by 14 Persons.]

The following Address of the Bailiffs, Capital Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Borough of Tamworth, has been presented to the King by John Calvert, jun. Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Capital Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Borough of Tamworth, in the Counties of Stafford and Warwick.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Capital Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Borough of Tamworth, with the most zealous Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Family; and impressed with the greatest Degree of Gratitude for the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's Government, humbly beg Leave to join in the general Voice of Joy and Congratulation on the Failure of the late Attempt, from which your Majesty's Life was in such imminent Danger, and devoutly pray, that your Majesty may long continue to reign in the Hearts of a free, happy and united People:
