YESTERDAY being the Anniversary of Their Majesties Coronation, there was a numerous and splendid Appearance at Court of the Nobility; Foreign Ministers; and other Persons of Distinction, to compliment Their Majesties on the Occasion: The Guns in the Park and at the Tower were fired at One o'Clock; and in the Evening there were Illuminations and other public Demonstrations of Joy.

St. James's, September 23.

THE following Addressees of the Bishop, Dean and Clergy of Bristol; and of the Bishop, Precentor and Chapter, the Archdeacons, and the Rest of the Clergy of the Diocese of St. David; have been presented to the King by His Grace the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury: Which Addressees His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects; the Bishop, Dean and Clergy of Bristol, humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne with our sincere Congratulations to your Majesty, and to testify our Gratitude to the Divine Goodness for so signally protecting your most Sacred Person from the late daring and violent Attack.

We are too sensible of the Blessings we enjoy, under your Majesty's paternal Care and Government, to view without Alarm so atrocious an Attempt.

Permit us to renew our unfeigned Professions of inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Royal and Illustrious House; and may the same gracious Arm, which has hitherto preserved, long continue to your faithful Subjects a Life so essentially connected with their Civil and Religious Liberties.

May your Majesty reign in the Affections of a free and loyal People, an Example of unaffected Piety and strict Morality, until it shall please the Divine Disposer of all Events to exalt you, full of Years, to a Crown of Glory.

[ Signed by the Bishop and 40 of the Clergy. ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop, Precentor and Chapter, the Archdeacons, and the Rest of the Clergy of the Diocese of St. David.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Bishop, the Precentor and Chapter, the Archdeacons, and the Rest of the Clergy of the Diocese of St. David, with Hearts full of affectionate Concern for the Safety of your Majesty's Sacred Person, humbly beg Leave to lay before your Majesty our sincerest Expressions of Happiness, for your late Escape from an unnatural Attempt upon a Life of so great Importance to these Kingdoms.

In your Majesty's Person are involved; not only the many Blessings we enjoy under so good a Governor, but also the very Being and Existence of our excellent Constitution. With the Supreme Guardian and Supporter of our Civil and Religious Establishment the whole System of Government must stand or fall. May they long subsist together inviolate, free from the Attacks either of Phrenzy or Folly. May the Almighty, as in the late Instance of providential Care over your Royal Person, be evermore your Defender and Keeper. May your Majesty continue to rule over us for many Years to come, dispensing the Blessings of a mild and gracious Government to all your Majesty's faithful Subjects, and reigning even in a Country of Freedom, at least in this Instance, most absolutely in the Hearts and Affections of all who are committed to your Charge:

[ Signed by the Bishop and 17 of the Clergy. ]

THE distinguished Blessings derived to this Kingdom, under your Majesty's mild and happy Government, must naturally interest all Descriptions of Men in the Welfare and Security of your Person:

The Guardians and Ministers of that pure Religion established in this Country have peculiar Reason to rejoice in your Safety; sensible as they must be of the Advantage which the great Object of their Concern receives, not more from your Power and Protection, than from your Example in the constant Practice of every Christian Duty, both public and private.
