

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday September 23, to Tuesday September 26, 1786.

St. James's, September 26.

THE Two following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty;

The humble Address of the Constables, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants, of the Port Town and Borough of Minehead in the County of Somerset.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Constables, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants, of the Port Town and Borough of Minehead, humbly beg Leave to unite with the rest of our Fellow Subjects in offering to your Majesty our warmest and most sincere Congratulations on the fortunate Preservation of your Majesty's Life from the late most daring Attempt upon your Sacred Person, which, however, from a perfect Sense of the many Blessings your People continue to enjoy under the Influence of your Majesty's Government, we are assured could only have proceeded from the Suggestions of a frantic and disordered Mind. Impressed with these Sentiments, it is our constant and most fervent Prayer, that your Majesty may long live and reign in Health and Prosperity, and, as at present, in the Hearts of a free, happy and united People.

[Signed by 65 Persons.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Alderman, Comburchesmen and Burgesses, Gentlemen and Clergy of the Borough of Grantham in the County of Lincoln.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Alderman, Comburchesmen, Burgesses, Gentlemen and Clergy of the Borough of Grantham in the County of Lincoln, having, with the utmost Concern and the highest Indignation, heard of the infamous Attack on your Majesty's Sacred Person, beg Leave humbly to present to your Majesty our sincere Congratulations on the providential Escape of your Majesty's Life from the great Danger to which it was exposed.

Deeply impressed with a grateful and affectionate Sense of the many invaluable Blessings which we and all your Subjects enjoy under your Majesty's Government, we add our sincere and fervent Prayers that your Majesty, our most amiable and gracious Queen, and all your Royal Offspring, may long enjoy the Blessings of Health, and that the Great Disposer of Life and Death, may keep both your Majesty and them under His Divine Protection.

Given under our Hands and the Common Seal of this Town, this Eighteenth Day of September, in the Year of our Lord, 1786.

[Signed by 84 Persons.]

The Two following Addresses having been transmitted by his Grace the Duke of Rutland, Lord Lieutenant of the Kingdom of Ireland, to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and unanimous Address of the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Waterford.

Sir Richard Musgrave, Bart. High Sheriff, in the Chair.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Waterford, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our sincere Congratulations on the providential Escape of your Majesty from the late Attack on your Person.

Feeling in common with the rest of your Majesty's Subjects the deepest Interest in the Safety of your Majesty's Person, and the Permanence of your Government

[Price Three-pence Halfpenny.]
