St. James's, September 30.

THE following Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons and other Clergy of the Diocese of Chichester, has been presented to the King by His Grace the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons, and other Clergy of the Diocese of Chichester, do, with all Humility, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most sincere Congratulations upon the Deliverance of your Sacred Person from a sudden unsuspected Danger, to which it was exposed by a late most daring and detestable Attempt against it; an Attempt which has so justly and so generally alarmed the Fears of your faithful Subjects, and which, God be praised, through the merciful Interposal of His Providence, you have happily escaped.

We cannot now but reflect with Pleasure upon all the Advantages we enjoy under your Majesty's paternal Care and Protection, to which alone, under God, we are indebted for them; that the chief Object of your Attention is, like that of your Royal Ancestors, the fixing and preserving our Constitution both in Church and State upon the firmest Basis, and by this Means connecting, what is scarce ever united in other Kingdoms, the Honour, Influence and Prosperity of your Government with the Happiness of your People.

Excited by these just Sentiments, it would be unpardonable in us not to take this public Opportunity of expressing our Joy and Thankfulness for the Preservation of your Majesty's most valuable and important Life, and, of Course, the Continuance of our present Felicity, which we cannot but consider as involved in it.

May that God, whom you devoutly and sincerely serve, and whose gracious Protection you have now so signally experienced, preserve you a long and shining Example of sincere Piety, and the purest Morals, exercised and maintained in the highest Station, make you a blessed Instrument in the Hands of His Providence to promote the same virtuous and religious Principles among your Subjects; to establish the Freedom, Commerce and Security of your Country upon a durable and sure Foundation, and to dispense to a grateful and happy People every other Blessing of a glorious and successful Reign.

[Signed by the Bishop and 49 of the Clergy.]

The following Address of the Bishop, Archdeacon and Clergy of the Diocese of Oxford, has been presented to the King by the Right Reverend the Lord

Bishop, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop, Archdeacon and Clergy of the Diocese of Oxford.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, Archdeacon and Clergy of the Diocese of Oxford, humbly beg Leave to profess to your Majesty our Gratitude to God, for the late adorable Instance of His good Providence, in preserving the Life of a Monarch whom we have every Motive to honour and revere.

Your Majesty's known Attention to the Duties of Religion, and the many distinguished Virtues which grace your Royal Character, command the inviolable Attachment of your Clergy, who feel, moreover, in common with all your Subjects, the Blessings of your mild and equal Government.

Under this Impression of Duty we approach your Majesty with Prayers for your long and prosperous Reign, for your Royal Consort, and Illustrious Descendants, and with unfeigned Wishes, that the Fame of your Piety and Virtue, so justly celebrated in the present Age, may become instructive to our latest Posterity.

[Signed by the Bishop and 24 of the Clergy.]

The following Address of the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Cambridge, has been presented to the King by John Drage, Esq; Sheriff of the said County, attended by Sir Charles Gould, Knt. the Hon. Lieutenant-General Parker, and Major-General Adeane, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the Town of Cambridge, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Cambridge.

WE, the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Cambridge, reflecting with Horror on the desperate Attempt that has been lately made against your Majesty's most Sacred Person by Assassination, beg Leave to take this Method of testifying our Abhorrence of so daring a Crime, the Effects of which would have plunged this Nation into the greatest Distress. Permit us, at the same Time that we express our Detestation of so atrocious a Design, to assure your Majesty, that nothing shall be wanting on our Part to shew our Zeal to your Royal Person and Government, and that our faithful faithful Attachment to your Majesty shall be such as becomes loyal and dutiful Subjects to a Sovereign, under whom we enjoy all the Blessings of our most excellent Constitution, and whose Reign we wish may be long and prosperous over a happy and united People.

Signed at the Request and in the Names of the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders, John Drage, Sheriff.

Shirehall, 19th Day of September, 1786.

The Five following Addressees having been transmitted by his Grace the Duke of Rutland, Lord Lieutenant of the Kingdom of Ireland, to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been presented to the King: Which Addressees His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The Address of the Sheriff, Magistrates and Freeholders of the County of Clare.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Freeholders of said County, duly convened by the High Sheriff, do beg Leave, with our firmest Attachment and unshaken Loyalty, to congratulate your Majesty on your providential Escape from the wicked Attempt on your Royal Person. Conscious of the numberless Blessings we enjoy under your parental and affectionate Attention to the Happiness and Welfare of your People since your Majesty's Accession to the Throne, we take the Liberty of expressing our anxious Concern for the Safety of your Majesty's Person, and to offer our Prayers for the Preservation of your Majesty's Sacred Life.

Resolved, That the above Address be presented by the Right Honourable Sir Lucius O'Brien, Bart.

Donough O'Brien, Sher.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and unanimous Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs, Clergy, Citizens and Inhabitants of the County of the City of Waterford.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs, Clergy, Citizens and Inhabitants of the County of the City of Waterford, present to your Majesty, with the most profound Humility, our sincere and warmest Congratulations on your Majesty's happy and providential Escape from Assassination.

We have heard, with the greatest Astonishment and Abhorrence, of an Attempt so daring and impious as that against your Majesty's Sacred Person, but it was natural to expect Insanity in the Wretch who was guilty of it, as no Subject endowed with Reason could ever harbour so dreadful and horrid a Thought against the best of Kings.

We cannot but lament the turbulent Spirit of those misguided People who have so atrociously endeavoured to create Disturbances in this Part of your Majesty's Dominions; and we at the same Time request Permission to assure your Majesty, that as the Vigilance of the Magistrates hath hitherto excluded them from this your ancient and loyal City, we will persist in using our utmost Exertions to maintain and support it in Peace and good Order, with entire Submission to the Laws, and a firm Attachment to your Majesty's Sacred Person and Government.

J. Alcock, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Mayo.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders of the County of Mayo, conscious of the many and great Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's wife and paternal Government, beg Leave to approach your Throne, and with the deepest Sense of Gratitude to offer our unfeigned Congratulations for your Majesty's providential and fortunate Escape from the alarming and infamous Attack lately made against your most precious Life.

While we recollect, with the greatest Horror and Detestation, that unnatural Attempt, we find the greatest Consolation in knowing that the Arm of Insanity alone could be raised against your Royal Life, so essential to the Greatness of the British Empire.

We beg Leave to assure you, Sire, of our most unshaken Attachment and Loyalty to your Majesty and the House of Brunswick, and to offer our most fervent Prayers to Almighty God for a Continuance of that Protection so recently manifested to your Majesty, but more especially to your People.

Dennis Browne, Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Citizens of Kilkenny, humbly beg Leave to present our sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's most providential Escape from the late Attempt on your Sacred Person.

With a lively Sense of your Majesty's gracious Attention to the Happiness and Welfare of all your Subjects, it will be our constant Prayer to the Almighty, long to preserve the Life of our Sovereign, under whose auspicious Reign His Kingdom of Ireland has received such signal Benefits, as have impressed our Hearts with the warmest Sentiments of Gratitude and Loyalty.

Patt. Welch, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and congratulatory Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Aldermen and Common-Council of the City of Cork, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Aldermen and Common-Council of the City of Cork, in Council assembled, beg Leave to express to your Majesty our sincere Congratulations, and to offer at the same Time to Divine Providence our most unfeigned Thanks for the Preservation of your Majesty's most valuable Life from the late wicked Attempt made thereon.

We should think ourselves deficient in shewing that Duty and Respect we have always entertained for your Majesty's Royal Person, Family and Government, from which this Kingdom has derived such great Advantages, did we not on this Occasion unite our Sentiments of Joy and Gratitude with those of your other loyal Subjects; and we most fervently pray, that the same Almighty Hand which so singularly interposed to preserve your Majesty's Life, may guard and protect you long to reign over this Kingdom.

Done at the Council Chamber of the City of Cork, under the Corporation Seal thereof, the 25th Day of August, 1786.

[Signed by 21 Persons.]

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs and Common Council of the City of Gloucester, has been presented to the King by Edwin Jeynes, Esq; Mayor, attended by John Hope, Esq; Sheriff, and John Webb, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs and Common Council of the City of Gloucester, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs and Common Council of the City of Gloucester, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly in-treat your Majesty to accept our faithful Congratulations upon your providential Escape from the Danger which lately threatened your Royal Person, and to join in the General Expression of Gratitude to the Divine Being for the Preservation of your Majesty's most precious Life from the Hand of Infamy.

Truly sensible of our Happiness under your Majesty's Government, and that the Welfare of this Country is intimately connected with your Majesty's Personal Safety, we humbly pray that the same good Providence which has so lately guarded your Majesty's Sacred Person, may continue Its Gracious and Almighty Protection, and that your Majesty and your Descendants may ever reign over a free and happy People.

Given under our Common Seal at the Tolsey, in the said City, the Eighteenth Day of September, in the Year of our Lord, 1786.

The following Address of the High Steward, Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Assistants, Common Council, Freeburgesses and Inhabitants of the Borough of Colchester, has been presented to the King by Sir Edmund Aſſeck, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament, and William Mayhew, Esq; High Steward and Recorder, of the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Steward, Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Assistants, Common-Council, Freeburgesses and Inhabitants of the Borough of Colchester in the County of Essex.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our sincere and warmest Congratulations upon your Majesty's Escape from the daring Attempt lately made to assassinate your Royal Person. May the All-powerful Hand of Providence protect your Majesty from every wicked Attempt and traitorous Conspiracy, and preserve you long to reign in the Hearts of a free, loyal and affectionate People; and may the many valuable Blessings we now enjoy under your Majesty's Government, be in as ample Manner experienced by our Posterity under the Government of your Majesty's Royal Descendants till Time shall be no more.

In Testimony whereof we the said High Steward, Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Assistants, Common-Council and Freeburgesses have put our Common Seal, and we the said Inhabitants have set our Names, this Fourth Day of September, 1786.

[Signed by 194 Persons.]

The following Address of the Bailiff, Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Borough of Chippenham, has been presented to the King by James Dawkins and George Fludyer, Esquires, Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiff, Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Borough of Chippenham.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff, Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Borough of Chippenham, impressed with the highest Sense of Duty and Respect, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your Deliverance from the late barbarous Attempt made on your Majesty's Person by a mad Assassin.

We look on your Majesty's Preservation as a signal Mercy to these Kingdoms in general, and we sincerely wish that your Majesty may long reign over an happy, brave, and free People, and that your Majesty's Life may be as full of Glory as of Days.

[Signed by 97 Persons.]

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Borough of Plympton, has been presented to the King by Charles Chamberlayne, Esq; Mayor of the said Borough, and Captain in His Majesty's Navy, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Borough of Plympton, beg Leave humbly to offer to your Majesty our sincere Congratulations on your providential Escape from the late Attempt made on your precious Life; a Life so highly valuable and important to this Nation. We return, with Heart-felt Gratitude, our unfeigned Thanks to the Supreme Disposer of Events, for His gracious Preservation of it, and humbly beseech Him to grant, that your Majesty may long continue to reign over these Realms, and make the Happiness of your People.

[Signed by 39 Persons.]

The following Address of the Mayor, Corporation and Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Wareham, has been presented to the King by John Calcraft, Esq; being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Corporation and Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Wareham, in the County of Dorset.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Corporation and Inhabitants of your antient and loyal Town and Borough of Wareham, with Hearts filled with Joy and Satisfaction beyond Expression, humbly beg Leave to lay before your Majesty our most sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's signal and providential Escape from the late alarming and atrocious Attempt upon your Sacred Person.

We shall only add our most fervent Prayers, humbly beseeching the Divine Providence long to preserve your Majesty's Life, and that your Majesty's Reign, under under which we derive the invaluable Blessings of civil and religious Liberty, may, by Almighty Goodness, be long continued over us and your Dominions in general.
