

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday October 3, to Saturday October 7, 1786.

St. James's, October 7.

THE following Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Diocese of St. Asaph, has been presented to the King by His Grace the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Diocese of St. Asaph, ask Leave, with unfeigned and loyal Humility, to congratulate your Majesty on your late Deliverance from the Knife of the Assassin. When such Dangers are sometimes permitted to threaten the greatest of the Sons of Men, we are authorized by Scripture to regard them as the awful Admonitions of Providence to consider the Importance of their Duty, and the uncertainty of the Time allotted to fulfil it. May your Majesty's Mind be always duly impressed with a religious Sense of those Virtues and publick Services which the highest of all human Stations requires at your Hands. May your always possess those Powers of Mind, and that enlarged and active Benevolence, which are requisite to preside with Wisdom over a People that was once virtuous, and that is still generous, brave and enlightened. In offering up these Prayers we depart not from our Character as blameless Ministers of the Gospel, and we wish to enrich your Majesty with greater Blessings than is in the Power of Flattery to invent; we wish you the Glory, the Virtue, and the heavenly Prerogative of making a great People happy under a mild, uncorrupt, and able Government; and we include in our Wishes the lasting Security and Splendor of your Royal House; that warm Attachment and Fidelity in your Subjects which only the Sense of their own Happiness can inspire. And may that Happiness every Day increase, by a general Imitation of those amiable domestick Virtues of which your Majesty and your Royal Consort have given the World so fair an Example.

[ Signed by the Bishop and 58 of the Clergy. ]

The following Address of the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Rochester, has been presented to the King by the Reverend Doctor Courtenay, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Rochester.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Dean and Chapter of your Cathedral Church of Rochester, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne with our unfeigned and hearty Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Escape from the late Attempt on your Royal Person.

Fully sensible of your Majesty's sincere Concern for the Interest of Religion and Virtue, so strongly exhibited in your Majesty's bright Example, and of your paternal Care and Protection of the Church, we devoutly pray, that the same gracious Providence which so lately protected may long continue to preserve to your People your invaluable Life, and to crown it with increasing Blessings of Comfort and Prosperity.

Given under our Chapter Seal this Twentieth Day of September, in the Twenty-sixth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the President and Fellows of the Royal College of Physicians in London, has been presented to the King by Sir George Baker, Bart. Physician to the Queen, President of the said College, attended by Sir Clifton Wintringham, Bart. and Dr. Richard Warren, Physicians to the King, Dr. William Heberden, Dr. William Pitcairn, Dr. John Turton, and Sir Lucas Pepys, Bart. Physicians, in Extraordinary to the King, Dr. H. Revell Reynolds, and Dr. William Watson, Censor, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the President and Fellows of the Royal College of Physicians in London.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the President and Fellows of the Royal College of Physicians in London, beg Leave to approach your Majesty, with all Humility, to express our Duty and our unfeigned Joy for your Majesty's happy Deliverance from the Danger of a most desperate Attempt on your Sacred Person; an Attempt, which only Insanity of Mind could have suggested, and which only the Divine Interposition could have frustrated.

Glory,