

The following Address of the Freemen and ancient Corporation of the Borough of Helston, has been presented to the King by the Right Honourable Lord Hyde, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful and most affectionate Subjects, the Freemen and ancient Corporation of the Borough of Helston, in the County of Cornwall, beg Leave to approach your Throne, and we gladly take this Occasion humbly to assure your Majesty, from the extreme Part of your Kingdom, that no Sovereign on Earth has a more loyal, affectionate and grateful People. These are the Returns for your Majesty's paternal Cares, and the Preservations of the Rights and Liberties of your Subjects.

God grant that your Majesty may long, very long, reign over us.

By Order,

H. Tremeneere Johns, Town Clerk.

The following Addresses of the Presbytery of Forfar, Town of Forfar, and Dundee, have been presented to the King by George Dempster, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the said Towns, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Most Gracious SOVEREIGN.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal Subjects, the Ministers of the Presbytery of Forfar, beg Leave to approach the Throne expressing our most sincere Regard for your Majesty's Royal Person, and assuring your Majesty that we are truly thankful to God for having preserved your Majesty in the late daring Attack made on your Majesty's most Sacred Life.

It gives us the greatest Pleasure that we can assure your Majesty the People in our several Parishes feel equal Joy in your Majesty's late Preservation, and entertain like Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection to your Majesty's Person and Government with ourselves, and it shall be our constant Endeavour to cherish in their Minds the lively Sense they have of the many Blessings they enjoy under your Majesty's mild Administration.

That Almighty God, through our Lord Jesus Christ, may bless your Majesty and your Majesty's Royal Consort and Family with all Temporal and Spiritual Blessings, is, and ever shall be, the most earnest Prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient, and most loyal Subjects, the Ministers of the Presbytery of Forfar.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and by our Appointment,

Tho. Raikes, Moderator.

At Forfar, September 6, 1786.

Most Gracious SOVEREIGN.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates and Town Council of Forfar, beg Leave to approach the Throne to express our most sincere Regard and Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person, and to assure your Majesty of our Thankfulness to Almighty God, by whom Kings reign, for the Preservation of your Majesty against the late desperate Attack upon your Majesty's Life. We join with the rest of the loyal Citizens of this Place, and with all your Majesty's other Subjects, in our daily Prayers for your Majesty's Happiness and Welfare; and we pray that the Throne of these Kingdoms may long be filled by a Prince, whose Happiness consists in the Happiness of His People, and whose Study and Care has been to preserve our Constitution in Church and State unimpaired.

The Length of your Majesty's Days, and the Prosperity of your Reign, are the constant Subject of the Prayers of your Majesty's faithful and obedient loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates and Town Council of Forfar.

Signed in Name and in Presence of the Magistrates and Council, at Forfar, this Ninth Day of September, 1786.

George Dempster, Provost.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates and Town-Council of the Borough of Dundee.

PERMIT us, most gracious Sovereign, to present to the Throne the unfeigned Congratulations of dutiful Subjects on the late Interposition of Providence, which mercifully shielded your Sacred Person in the most threatening Danger.

With these Congratulations, allow us to unite our Wishes with those of a whole grateful Nation, that the same Providence, which has so long distinguished your Royal Family, and made it great among the Princes of the Earth, may continue to make your Majesty Its peculiar Care, and lengthen out your Days, for the gracious Purpose of dispensing to a free and a happy People these inestimable Blessings which they have so eminently enjoyed during your Majesty's mild and equitable Government.

Signed in Presence by Appointment of Council,

Pat. Maxwell, Provost.

Dundee, Sept. 13, 1786.

The following Address of the Mayor and Chief Burgesses of the Borough of Newtown, has been presented to the King by Fitzwilliam Barrington, Esq; Mayor, attended by George Mackenzie Macauley, Esq; one of the Burgesses, and John Barrington and Mark Gregory, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Chief Burgesses of the ancient Borough of Newtown, in the Isle of Wight and County of Southampton, beg Leave to join the general Voice of your People in congratulating your Majesty on the Failure of an Attempt which might have proved fatal to your Majesty's Person, and hurtful in a high Degree to your flourishing Dominions.

Although we rejoice in that Form of Government under which we live, where the several Sorts of Authority are tempered by each other, and by fixed Laws, yet we are fully convinced that the personal Character of the King is of extreme Importance to the National Welfare; and we are persuaded that in
