The following Address of the Merchants, Factors, Traders and Proprietors of Houses in the City of Gibraltar, has been presented to the King by Thomas Field, Esq; attended by John Hind and Jeremiah Coghlan, Esqrs. being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Merchants, Factors, Traders and Proprietors of Houses in the City of Gibraltar, humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne with their sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Escape from the late wicked Attack upon your Majesty's Sacred Person.

Being deeply interested, in common with all your Majesty's Subjects, in a Life of such inestimable Value to all your People, it is our Duty to return our grateful and unfeigned Thanks to Heaven for averting the horrid Blow aimed at your Majesty's Royal Person by the desperate Hand of Insanity.

And we humbly assure your Majesty, that it is our earnest Prayer to the Supreme Being, that your Majesty's Life may long be preserved to diffuse the Blessings of equal Freedom and Protection to a loyal and grateful People; and that upon all Occasions we shall pride ourselves to testify our Duty and Zeal for your Majesty, truly sensible that, under Providence, we shall derive from your Majesty's auspicious Reign those Indulgencies by which Great Britain is so peculiarly distinguished.

Signed by Order, and at the Request of the General Meeting of the Merchants, Factors, Traders and Proprietors of Houses,

John Smith, Chairman.

Gibraltar, Sept. 18, 1786.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder and Aldermen of the Borough of Warwick, has been presented to the King by the Right Honourable Charles Francis Greville, Mayor, and one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

S I R E,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder and Aldermen of the Borough of Warwick, in the County of Warwick, in Common Hall assembled, beg Leave to present to your Majesty our unfeigned and heartfelt Congratulations on your late happy Escape from Assassination.

That watchful and parental Care and Regard which your Majesty has; during the Whole of your auspicious Reign, displayed for the Welfare and Happiness of all your People, has justly endeared you to your faithful Subjects, who, experiencing the inestimable Blessings and Advantages they enjoy under your Majesty's paternal, mild and equal Government, are bound by Interest as well as Gratitude to pray for the Preservation of your Majesty's Sacred Life.

Possessed of that Veneration and Sensibility which loyal Subjects feel due to a good Prince, we intreat your Majesty to be guarded against similar daring Attempts; and we most devoutly beseech the Divine Author of all Things to extend His Almighty Protection to your Royal Person until Age shall render Life no longer desirable.

Given under our Common Seal.

C. F. Greville, Mayor.

The following Address of the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Elgin, has been presented to the King by Lieutenant-Colonel Sir James Duff, Representative in Parliament for the County of Bamff, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Elgin, at their Michaelmas Head Court assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Elgin, humbly approach the Throne with our most sincere Congratulations on the providential Deliverance of your Majesty from the late horrid Attempt on your Sacred Person.

Deeply sensible of the Value and Importance of your Majesty's Life to the Prosperity of your Kingdoms, and of the unspeakable Affliction which your People would have sustained, we, in common with our Fellow Subjects, desire to express our Joy and Gratitude to Almighty God for your Preservation, as important as it is dear to us and these Nations.
