St. James's, October 31.

THE Five following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop, Archdeacon, Vicars General and Clergy of the Isle and Diocese of Man.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Bishop, Archdeacon, Vicars General and Clergy of the Isle of Man, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with heartfelt Joy and most sincere Congratulations for the late providential Preservation of your Life from the violent Assault of a frantic Assassins.

Your Majesty's fatherly Protection of the Civil and Religious Liberties of this Isle and your other Dominions, your exemplary Piety, your liberal Bounty to the Church, of which we, even in this remote Diocese are duly sensible, your constant Practice of the various princely and private Virtues displayed in so high a Station and eminent Degree, as they render your Majesty's Life in this Age most dear and valuable, so the Loss of it must have affected your loving Subjects with the deepest Distress, and deprived Religion and Virtue of their brightest Pattern.

Having already returned our public and hearty Thanks to Almighty God, for this late signal Instance of His Goodness to these Nations, so shall we ever continue fervently to pray that the last may be the only Attempt upon a Life of so great Importance, and that your Majesty's Reign may be long, happy and glorious.

Bishop's Court, Isle of Man,
Sept. 29, 1786.

[ Signed by the Bishop and 18 of the Clergy. ]

[ Price Seven-Pence. ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders assembled in the Provincial Synod of Perth and Stirling, with unfeigned Satisfaction, embrace the earliest Opportunity we have had of presenting our most sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Escape from the desperate Attempt lately made on your Sacred Life.

We devoutly acknowledge the Hand of Providence in your Majesty's Preservation, and have returned our Thanks to Almighty God for His gracious Interposition in your Majesty's Behalf.

Happy under your Majesty's mild and equitable Government, it is our daily Prayer, that your valuable Life may long be preserved for a Blessing to the People over whom you reign; that while in this World you may enjoy the richest Communications of the Divine Favour, and in the World to come may, through the Merits of our Saviour, receive that Crown of Glory which fadeth not away.

Subscribed, in our Name and Presence, by our Moderator,

James Hunter.

Perth, October 18, 1786.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, Justices of Peace, and Heretors of the County of Ross, met at their Annual Meeting at Tain, upon the Eleventh of October, 1786.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, Justices of the Peace, and Heretors of the County of Ross, now met in our Annual Michaelmas Meeting, beg Leave to approach your Sacred Person with our most earnest and heartfelt Congratulations on your late providential Escape from the desperate

Designs

Designs of a frantic Assassin; yet we feel some Consolation in the Reflection, that no Fellow-Subject but one deprived of Reason could be daring and ungrateful enough to attempt a Life so valuable to all your Subjects. Attached to your Majesty by every Tie of Loyalty, Gratitude and Reverential Affection, we look up to you as our common Father, and pray that your Majesty may reign long and happily over a free, united and flourishing People,

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and by our Appointment,

F. H. Mackenzie, Præses.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of the Land-Tax of the Stewartry of Kirkcudbright, in their Head Court assembled.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of the Land-Tax of the Stewartry of Kirkcudbright, deeply sensible of the infinite Importance of your Majesty's Life to all your People, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our heartfelt Congratulations upon your providential Escape from the rash Attempt lately directed by the Hand of Insanity against your Sacred Person.

With great Satisfaction we at all Times embrace an Opportunity of expressing our affectionate Attachment to your Majesty, and more particularly so on the present Occasion, when we are called upon by every Tie which binds us as good Subjects, to rejoice with the Nation at large in the Preservation of your Majesty's Life and Reign, which we ardently wish may be long continued, for the Happiness and Prosperity of your Royal Family and your Majesty's Dominions.

Peter Johnston, Præses.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Denbigh, convened by the High Sheriff, in consequence of a Requisition made to him by the Justices of the Peace at their last General Quarter Sessions, held at Denbigh in and for the said County, on Tuesday the Third Day of October, 1786.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Denbigh, conscious of unfeigned Loyalty, and actuated by an honest and dutiful Concern for the Safety of our Sovereign, beg Permission to offer, with the general Voice of our Fellow Subjects, our sincere Congratulations on your providential Deliverance from the late Violence offered to your Royal Person. Happy in the Blessings of our most excellent Constitution, and in no wise diffident of your Majesty's paternal Care for the Welfare of your Subjects, we humbly implore the Dispenser of all Mercies, that He will continue to guard your Life and direct your Councils.

Signed by the Direction, and on Behalf, of the Gentlemen and Freeholders of the said County, assembled at Ruthin on Friday the Twentieth of October, 1786, by Ph. Yorke, Sheriff.

The Two following Addresses having been transmitted by his Grace the Duke of Rutland, Lord Lieutenant of the Kingdom of Ireland, to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Superiors of the Roman Catholick Clergy of the Province of Munster.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful Subjects, the Superiors of the Roman Catholick Clergy in the Province of Munster, having offered up our fervent Thanks to the Almighty God for your Majesty's happy Escape from the horrid Attempt made on your Majesty's most Sacred Person, presume, in all Humility, to present, at the Foot of your Royal Throne, in the Name of the Roman Catholick Clergy of this Province, our most dutiful and loyal Congratulations on such a signal Interposition of Divine Providence.

Whilst, in this Expression of our Duty to your Majesty, we join in the universal Exultation of all Ranks of our Fellow Subjects for the Preservation of a well-beloved Sovereign, we, your Majesty's Roman Catholick Subjects, feel an additional Joy from the grateful Remembrance we constantly have, that whatever happy Change has been made in our Situation in this Kingdom is chiefly owing to your Majesty's paternal Attention to us.

Our Joy, may it please your Majesty, would have been as complete on the present Occasion as any human Event could make it, but for the Alloy it receives in the Affliction brought upon us by the tumultuous Meetings of some of the lowest Clafs in this Province. Yet, at the same Time that we bemoan the unwarrantable Excesses of a misguided Rabble, it is no small Comfort to us to think, that we have not been wanting in what depended on us to prevent and to remedy these Evils. Our constant Endeavours to promote Religion, Peace and good Order have not been altogether fruitless; whatever be the Guilt of the deluded People who now disturb the Public Tranquility, we have the heartfelt Satisfaction of being convinced that not a Shadow of Disaffection to your Majesty's Person or Government is imputable to them.

We hope that the prudent Measures, the firm yet merciful Exertions adopted by those entrusted here with your Majesty's Authority, will be efficient to put a Stop to the licentious Misdeeds of an unruly Multitude, and to provide effectually against a Repetition of them.

We, on our Parts, shall continue to employ our most zealous Efforts to impress those under our Influence with a Sense of conscientious Subordination to the Laws, and to exhort them ever to follow that peaceful, industrious, upright Line of Conduct, which alone can become them, and which the Religion they profess, as well as their Gratitude, dictate to be due to the Justice and Mildness of your Majesty's Government.

May

May the Almighty God, by whom Kings reign, long preserve your Majesty, amidst the Enjoyment of every desirable Blessing, to be an Example, from your Royal Virtues, to the Rulers of the Earth, and to be, from the univalled Success of your Government, the Comfort and the Happiness of your People.

We are, may it please your Majesty, with the most inviolable Attachment and submissive Gratitude, your Majesty's most loyal, most dutiful, and most obedient Subjects, the Superiors of the Roman Catholick Clergy of the Province of Munster.

Thurles, Oct. 4,

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Sheriff, Governors, Nobility, Grand Jury, and others, Freeholders, assembled at the Assizes for the King's County, held at Philipstown the Twentieth of September, 1786.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful, loyal and affectionate Subjects, the Sheriff, Governors, Nobility, Grand Jury, and others, assembled at the Assizes for the King's County, beg Leave to offer our warmest Congratulations upon your Majesty's most providential Escape from the Danger to which your Life was lately exposed.

When the Subjects of a despotic Prince address him in Terms expressive of Loyalty and Affection, these may be considered as flowing from a slavish Fear and servile Adulation; but when the Monarch of a free Nation receives the Congratulations of His Subjects, they bear the most authentic Testimony of His publick and private Virtues.

Enthroned as you are in the Hearts of your loving People, it is a Consolation to reflect, that the late horrid Attempt proceeded from Insanity, and we trust that Insanity alone could prompt any Subject in your Dominions to thus endanger the Peace and Welfare of your Kingdoms.

To repeat the unfeigned Professions of our unalterable Fidelity and Affection to your Majesty's Sacred Person and Government may seem unnecessary, as it is evident that our Property, Liberty and Religion, (the Preservation of which we must hold most dear) inseparably depend upon the Permanence of the present happy Establishment.

But we should do Injustice to our Feelings of Loyalty to our Sovereign and Attachment to the Constitution, if we did not, at this particular Period, declare the fixed unshaken Purpose of our Hearts to defend your Majesty's Government at the Expence of our Lives and Fortunes; and at the same Time to express our sincere and ardent Wishes, that every Measure taken for the Safety of your Majesty's Person, the Support of our Laws, the Preservation of our Rights, and the Establishment of Publick Peace and good Order, may at all Times be crowned with Success.

[ Signed by John Warburton, Sheriff, and by 466 other Persons. ]

Whitehall, October 27, 1786.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, That on Thursday Evening the 12th of October instant, between Nine and Ten o'Clock, as Mr. Thomas Maffett, Ship Surveyor of Union-street, Deptford, was walking Home from Rotherhithe, he was met by a Man near the Black Horse Alehouse, in the Lower Road, in the the Parish of St. Paul, Deptford, who said to Mr. Maffett, "Damn your Eyes" "now I'll shoot you," and immediately fired a Pistol (as is supposed) and shot Mr. Maffett in the Belly, of which Wound he died the next Day; and that as no Attempt was made to rob Mr. Maffett, it is probable that the Villain maliciously lay in Wait for the sole Purpose of murdering him.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in this most inhuman Murder, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually fired) who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said Offence.

" Esteemed Friend,
THY Cordial is here in Estimation, and has done great Good but one particular Case I am induced to relate; not that I have the Gentleman's Authority, neither do I suppose he would have his Name appear; he has however spoke of it in Company, which has greatly enhanced its Sale.

" The Gentleman alluded to was confined to his Bed in the most excruciating Pain, with the Gout in his Head, Stomach and Limbs, attended by his Apothecary, who perceiving the Case dangerous thought proper to call to his Assistance an eminent Physician, who pronounced the Patient could not live Twenty-four Hours; of which being made acquainted, he desired his Wife, as a forlorn Hope, to send to my House for a Bottle of Oriental Vegetable Cordial; and though these Gentlemen said it could do him no Good, he found essential Relief by the first Dose, and by repeating it every third Hour, for half a Dozen Doses, was enabled to walk about his Room, and the next Day to make his Appearance about Town. At every Attack of this Disease since, he has had Recourse to the same Remedy, with the same Success.

I can also add, that I have known pregnant Women receive instantaneous Relief in Fits of the Cholic, by the Use of this Cordial.

I am, with Respect, thy Friend,

Rd. WAGSTAFFE.

To Mr. B. Cornwell, London.

* * * The extraordinary Influence that the ORIENTAL VEGETABLE CORDIAL imparts to the Stomach from its tonic and invigorating Qualities is strongly exemplified by the immediate Effects produced in taking it when the Stomach is overloaded with Food, naufrated with Surfeit, or debilitated by Intemperance.

To constitutionally weak Stomachs it affords a pleasing Sensation; it accelerates the Process of Digestion, corrects Crudities, and removes the Cholic and Flatulencies; it diffuses a genial Warmth that cherishes the Animal Spirits, and takes away the Listlessness and Langour that so greatly embitters the Hours of Nervous People; and the unerring Test of Experience has confirmed its Utility.

||§|| Sold by Mr. B. Cornwell, Conduit-street, Hanover-square, in Bottles at 5s. each, Duty included, and by one Dealer in Medicines in most Towns in Great Britain, &c.

Allowances as usual for Exportation.

ALL Persons who have any Claims or Demands on the Estate of George Cook, late of the High-street, Southwark, Livery-stable-keeper, deceased, are requested to send an Account thereof forthwith to Mr. Townsend opposite St. George's Church, Southwark, Solicitor for the Executors; and all Persons who were indebted to the said George Cook at his Decease, are desired to pay their respective Debts to the said Mr. Townsend immediately, or they will be sued without any further Notice.

LONDON. At the General Quarter Session of the Peace of our Lord the King, holden for the City of London, at the Guildhall within the said City, on Monday the Twenty-third Day of October, in the Twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord George the Third, King of Great Britain, &c. before Thomas Wright, Esquire, Mayor of the City of London, James Adair, one of His Majesty's Serjeants at Law, Recorder of the said City, William Gill, Esquire, John Boyddell, Esquire, William Newman, Esquire, Aldermen of the said City, and others their Fellows, Justices of our said Lord the King, assigned to keep the Peace of our said Lord the King within the said City, and also to hear and determine divers Felonies, Trespases, and other Misdemeanors committed within the said City.

BE it remembered, That the Inspector of Corn Returns, hath this Day, in open Court, presented and delivered to the Lord Mayor, Recorder and Aldermen, assembled at this present Session, a certain Book into which the States or Accounts of the General Aggregate Quantities, Prices, and Average Prices of English Barley, Beans, Malt, Oats, Pease, Rye, and Wheat, bona fide sold and delivered between the 10th Day of July last, and the 14th Day of October instant, by each and every Corn-factor dealing by Commission in the Sale of Corn and Grain in the Corn-Exchange, London, have been made up, formed, computed and distinguished, and fairly and properly inserted; and hath verified upon his Oath that the same have been fairly, correctly, and properly made up, formed and computed, to the best of his Power, Skill and Judgment, and according, so far as in him lay, to the true Intent and Tenor of the Act of Parliament in that Behalf: And the General Average Prices of each of the said respective Sorts of Corn and Grain thereby appearing to the said Lord Mayor, Recorder and Aldermen, they do hereby, in pursuance of the said Act, deem and certify the same to be as follows, viz.

Barley	1	5	1	} Average Prices per Quarter.
Beans	1	8	3
Malt	1	15	3
Oats	0	13	7
Pease	1	14	7
Rye	1	5	7
Wheat	1	16	2

And do hereby further order, that the said General Average Prices be published in the London Gazette once in Four several Weeks immediately succeeding this present Session.

By the Court,

R I X.

October 18, 1786.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the surviving Assignees of the Estate and Effects of Matthew Wright, late of Lancaster, in the County of Lancaster; Merchant, who took the Benefit of an Act of Parliament passed in the Fourteenth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, "An Act for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, and for the Relief of Bankrupts in certain Cases," intend to make a Dividend of the Money in their Hands belonging to the Estate, at the Counting-house of Mr. John Barrow, Woollen-draper, in Lancaster aforesaid (one of the said Assignees) on Wednesday the 22d of November next, at Two of the Clock in the Afternoon, unto and amongst the Creditors of the said Matthew Wright; and such of the Creditors as have not delivered an Account of their respective Demands are desired to transmit the same unto the said John Barrow, on or before the 15th Day of that Month, otherwise they will be excluded the Benefit of the said Dividend.
