St. James's, November 18.

THE following Address of the Lord Lieutenant, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Cumberland, has been presented to the King by the Earl of Lonsdale, Lord Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum of the said County: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Cumberland.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Cumberland, humbly beg Leave to lay at the Foot of your Throne our most sincere Congratulations on the late providential Preservation of your Majesty's Life, and to express our just Abhorrence of a Deed, which, had it succeeded, must have involved your Majesty's loyal and affectionate Subjects in a Scene of inexpressible Calamity.

Impressed with every Sense of Loyalty and Affection to your Majesty's Person and Government, we pray to God that your Life may be long continued with uninterrupted Felicity to yourself and a Blessing to all your Subjects.

[Signed by 2690 Persons.]

The following Address of the Lord Lieutenant, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Westmoreland, has been presented to the King by James Lowther, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Westmoreland.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Westmoreland, with all Humility beg Leave to express our utmost Abhorrence of the late daring Attempt on your Majesty's Sacred Person.

We most fervently offer up our Prayers of Thanksgiving and Praises to the Divine Providence, for having frustrated this most wicked Design; and we implore Almighty God, that He will be graciously pleased to continue your Majesty's Life, for the Happiness of us your loyal and affectionate Subjects, and the Welfare and Prosperity of all your People.

[Signed by 1352 Persons.]

The following Address of the Bishop and Clergy of the Cathedral and Diocese of Carlisle, has been presented to the King by his Grace the Lord Archbishop of York: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop and Clergy of the Cathedral and Diocese of Carlisle, sensible of the Security which this Church and Nation have enjoyed under the mild and paternal Government of your Illustrious House, and assured of your Majesty's sincere Regard to the truest Interest of your Subjects, the Advancement amongst them of Christianity and Virtue, beg Leave to offer your Majesty our unfeigned Congratulations upon the providential Deliverance by which your Life has lately been preserved.

The frantic Attempt which endangered your Majesty's Safety, by calling forth Expressions of the deepest Concern from every Order of Men in the Kingdom, hath produced a convincing Proof that your Majesty reigns in the Hearts of your People.

We intreat the Supreme Disposer of human Events to receive your Majesty's Life into His Holy Protection, that it may long continue dear to your Country; and that to yourself it may be blessed with every personal Satisfaction, and with a constant View of National Happiness and Public Prosperity.

[Signed by the Bishop and 68 of the Clergy.]

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Citizens of the City of Carlisle, has been presented to the King by Sir Joseph Senthouse, Knt. Mayor of the said City, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address

[Price Seven-pence.]

Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously-

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen,
Bailiffs and Citizens of the City of Carlisle, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

IMRESSED with the deepest Sense of Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, we humbly beg Leave to express the Effusions of our Joy in our most sincere Congratulations on your blessed Escape from an Attempt big with every melancholy Consequence to the Happiness and Welfare of these Kingdoms.

We rest in the full Confidence that the same Providence which has lately so manifestly displayed itself in the Protection of your Sacred Person, will grant a long Continuance of your most valuable Life, to the Prayers of your faithful and affectionate People.

Given under the Seal of the said City of Carlisle, the Third Day of October, in the Twenty-sixth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

Joseph Senhouse, Mayor.

The following Address of the Provincial Synod of Dumfries, has been presented to the King by his Grace the Duke of Queenberry, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provincial Synod of Dumfries, met at Dumfries the Eighteenth Day of October, 1786.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Synod of Dumfries embrace this first Opportunity of our meeting together to congratulate your Majesty upon your Deliverance from the late imminent Danger. Your Majesty's Preservation from the daring Attempt that was made upon your most valuable Life, from a Quarter of which you could have no Apprehension, fills us with Gratitude to that Good Providence to which it is to be ascribed.

That your Majesty's Life may still be, in a peculiar Manner, the Care of that God who giveth Salvation to Kings; and that your Majesty and your Illustrious House may long reign over a free, a loyal, a pious, and a happy People, are the Prayers of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Dumfries.

Subscribed in our Name, Presence, and at our Appointment, by James Heron, Moderator.

The Six following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiff, Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Franchise of Wenlock in County of Salop.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Bailiff, Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Franchise of Wenlock, in the County of Salop, humbly beg Permission to join, before the Throne, in the general Voice of Joy and Congratulation, on the Failure of the late frantic Attempt, from which your Majesty's Life was in such imminent Danger.

Actuated as well by our Interest in the public Welfare, as by Affection to your Royal Person, it cannot fail to be our ardent Prayer, that your Majesty may enjoy a very long and happy Reign.

[Signed by 143 Persons.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Justices of Peace, Commissioners of Supply, Freeholders, and other Heritors of the County of Berwick.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Justices of Peace, Commissioners of Supply, Freeholders, and other Heritors of the County of Berwick, assembled at our General Quarter Sessions, with Hearts full of Gratitude for the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and beneficent Government, and feeling ourselves, in common with the rest of our Fellow Subjects, deeply interested in the Preservation of a Life so precious to your Majesty's Family and to your People, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Person, to join in the general Congratulations for your late providential Escape, to express the Sincerity of our Attachment to the best of Kings, and our ardent Wishes that your Majesty may long continue to reign over a happy and united People.

Signed by Patrick Home, Esquire, of Wedderburn, our Praeses, in Name and by Warrant of the Meeting, at Greenlaw, the 31st of October, 1786.

Pat. Home.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Justices of the Peace, Freeholders and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Lanark.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Justices of the Peace, Freeholders and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Lanark, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne with our warmest Congratulations, on your late providential Escape from the most imminent Peril.

While we return Thanks to the Almighty for averting a Blow, aimed equally at your Majesty's most precious Life and the Happiness of your Subjects, we cannot but view with Horror so execrable an Attempt which the Hand of Infamy alone could direct against a Prince who reigns in the Hearts of His People.

That your Majesty may be long preserved, to perpetuate the Blessings of your auspicious Reign, is our ardent Wish.

Signed in Presence, and by Appointment, of the Meeting, held at Hamilton, this 30th of October, 1786 Years.

Hamilton and Brandon.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders and Commissioners of Supply of the Shire of Ayr, met here here this Day, beg Leave to approach the Throne with the most sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's fortunate Escape from the late Attempt of an infatuated Assassin.

That your Majesty may be long preserved to rule over these Kingdoms is our most ardent Desire; and we humbly hope the united Prayers of your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects to that Effect may not be in vain.

Signed by our Præses,
Eglintoun.

At Ayr, the 14th Oct. 1786.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Provost, Baillies and Town Council of the Burgh of Ayr.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Baillies and Town Council of your Majesty's ancient and Royal Burgh of Ayr, beg Leave, with the warmest Affection, to congratulate your Majesty on the narrow Escape from the late daring Attempt made against your Sacred Life. We express our Thankfulness, with the utmost Gratitude and Joy, to Almighty God, for the Preservation of your Majesty's precious Life, so essential and important to us as a Nation. Many are the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's Government by your Majesty's unremitting Attention to maintain our free and happy Constitution in Church and State.

May the rich Blessing of Heaven be ever on the Head of your Majesty and your Royal Offspring: May your Sacred Life, with that of your Royal Consort, be long and happily lengthened out, to reign over a free and happy People, is the earnest Prayer of your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Provost, Baillies and Town Council of the Burgh of Ayr, in Common Council assembled, this Twenty-fifth of October, 1786.

Signed in their Presence, and by their Direction,
Da. Fergusson, Provost.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The Address of the Synod of Angus and Mearns, convened at Forfar, on the Twenty-fourth of Day of October, 1786.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Ministers of the provincial Synod of Angus and Mearns, with all all due Humility and Respect would approach the Throne, to express our warmest and most sincere Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family and Government.

The many Blessings which the Church of Scotland, and all your Subjects, enjoy under your Majesty's most auspicious Reign, render the Preservation of your Majesty's Life the Subject of our most fervent Prayers. And we, and the People under our pastoral Care, unite in returning our most unfeigned Thanks to Almighty God, for having preserved your Majesty's most valuable Life in the Moment of imminent Danger.

That Almighty God may long preserve a King who reigns in the Hearts of a People, who are free and happy under His Administration, is the earnest Prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most loyal, and most faithful Subjects, the Ministers of the Synod of Angus and Mearns.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment,

William Milligan, Moderator.
