St. James's, November 18.

THE following Address of the Lord Lieutenant, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Cumberland, has been presented to the King by the Earl of Lonsdale, Lord Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum of the said County: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Cumberland.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Cumberland, humbly beg Leave to lay at the Foot of your Throne our most sincere Congratulations on the late providential Preservation of your Majesty's Life, and to express our just Abhorrence of a Deed, which, had it succeeded, must have involved your Majesty's loyal and affectionate Subjects in a Scene of inexpressible Calamity.

Impressed with every Sense of Loyalty and Affection to your Majesty's Person and Government, we pray to God that your Life may be long continued with uninterrupted Felicity to yourself and a Blessing to all your Subjects.

[Signed by 2690 Persons.]

The following Address of the Lord Lieutenant, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Westmoreland, has been presented to the King by James Lowther, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Westmoreland.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Westmoreland, with all Humility beg Leave to express our utmost Abhorrence of the late daring Attempt on your Majesty's Sacred Person.

We most fervently offer up our Prayers of Thanksgiving and Praises to the Divine Providence, for having frustrated this most wicked Design; and we implore Almighty God, that He will be graciously pleased to continue your Majesty's Life, for the Happiness of us your loyal and affectionate Subjects, and the Welfare and Prosperity of all your People.

The following Address of the Bishop and Clergy of the Cathedral and Diocese of Carlisle, has been presented to the King by his Grace the Lord Archbishop of York: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop and Clergy of the Cathedral and Diocese of Carlisle, sensible of the Security which this Church and Nation have enjoyed under the mild and paternal Government of your Illustrious House, and assured of your Majesty's sincere Regard to the truest Interest of your Subjects, the Advancement amongst them of Christianity and Virtue, beg Leave to offer your Majesty our unfeigned Congratulations upon the providential Deliverance by which your Life has lately been preserved.

The frantic Attempt which endangered your Majesty's Safety, by calling forth Expressions of the deepest Concern from every Order of Men in the Kingdom, hath produced a convincing Proof that your Majesty reigns in the Hearts of your People.

We intreat the Supreme Disposer of human Events to receive your Majesty's Life into His Holy Protection, that it may long continue dear to your Country; and that to yourself it may be blessed with every personal Satisfaction, and with a constant View of National Happiness and Public Prosperity.

[Signed by the Bishop and 68 of the Clergy.]
