and Charlemont. This afternoon comes in the Post from Flanders and Brabant, they give us different accounts of the motions of the Enemy; those from Bruffers fay, that the grois of the French Forces were matched to wards the Meufe ; hut from Animerp they write, that the Enemy was come before Ghent, and had belieged it : certain it is, that a confiderable party of French Horfe and Foot under the command of the Baron de Quincy, had passed the schelde, and was posted at Lokeren in the Country of Waes. In a day or two we may expect to have a more partiqular, as well as a certain information of what the Enemy does. This morning early marched from hence the Foot-guards towards Brabant. We believe his Highness is by this time with the Army. The Deputies of the respective Admiralties are still here

Bruffels, March 3. The French alarm us on all fides, every hour fome Express or other arrives here, fent by the Governor of fome place, to give his Excellency an account of the motions of the Enemy, and the apprehenfion he has of being befieged. This morning we have notice, that the French have thewn themselves with a Body of 4 or 5000 Horse near Alost and Grammont, a party of which is come to the Abby of Affligem, three Leagues from hence, where they burnt all the Corn and Forage. They have broken down all the Bridges on the Dender, fo that there cannot come any Wagons hither from Ghent. From the Meuse we have advice, that the French are drawing together about Charlemont, and that according to all appearance they will befiege that Caffle, and perhaps Namur at the fame time, Count Waldeck has received orders from the Prince of Orange to march with the Troops under his command towards Haffelt. We have advice at this in-Rant, that the 5000 French Horse abovementioned, being commanded by the Baron de Quincy, are marched towards the schelde, having laid a Bridge over that River at Quarebbe, between Ghent and Dendermonde, Namur, March I. This afternoon 4000 French Horle, and some Foot, appeared near this City; our Governor fent out feveral parties, who skirmished with them; they have, we hear, laid a Bridge over the Sambre near the Abby Florette. Just now we have advice, that the Marquis de Choifeul is coming this way with 4000 Horle, and 2000 Foot; fo that rearc expecting a Siege. It is reported that Char-Lemont is already belieged.

Antwerp, March 3. We are here in much diforder, occasioned by the account we receive from t' c Country people that are fled hither, that a Body of French have pailed the Schelde, and are come into the Country of Waes, feeming to have a defign upon Ghent. We have feveral uncertain reports here, the one, that Gbent is formally belieged, and that the French had already made an Affault upon the Cittadel, this is certain, that we have heard great fhooting these two days. We are told that the Duke de Villa Hermofa was the last night at Dendermond, and that the French King is come into Flanders.

ders, Duite. The first inflant the Feench flewed themselves in the Neighborthood of Gunn, and passed the Schelde at Melle and Mininkule.
