From Tuesday January 30, to Saturday February 3, 1787.

Whitehall, February 3.

ON Thursday last One of the King's Messengers, dispatched by the Right Honourable William Eden, His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary at the Court of France, arrived at the Office of the Marquis of Carmarthen, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, with the Most Christian King's Ratification of the Convention, signed the 15th of January last, concerning the Execution of the Treaty of Navigation and Commerce lately concluded between His Majesty and the Most Christian King, which was exchanged with Mr. Eden against His Majesty's Ratification, on the 29th of January last, at Versailles, by his Most Christian Majesty's Plenipotentiary.

St. James's, February 3.

The following Addresses from the Islands of Dominica, Montserrat, and Tortola, having been transmitted by the respective Governors, &c. to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the New-adopted Subjects and others in the Island of Dominica.

May it please your Most Excellent Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's New-adopted Subjects, and others, in this your Island of Dominica, take the most early Opportunity, after the Information communicated by the Care of our worthy Chief Governor had reached us, to join our humble and sincere Congratulations on the frustrated Attempt of a vile and daring Assassin on your Majesty's Sacred Person, at the same Time humbly assuring your Majesty that we, equally with all other Ranks of People in this Colony, entertain the warmest Sentiments of Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

The long Experience we have had of the Blessings of a British Constitution, and of the impartial Administration of Justice during the Reign of your Majesty, have excited in us such affectionate Feelings towards our virtuous Sovereign, to whom we are indebted for those Blessings, that we cannot see Him exposed to Danger without the greatest Alarm:

We receive with the highest Gratitude the wise Dispensations of Divine Providence, whose Love of Virtue has been manifested in the Protection of your Majesty in this Instance, as a favourable Omen of your long and happy Reign; and we most earnestly pray that you may long remain the tender Husband of our most Amiable and Gracious Queen, the revered Parent of your Royal Offspring, and the beloved Protector of your faithful Subjects.

Dominica, Sept. 30, 1786.

[Signed by 104 Persons.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Council and Assembly of the Island of Montserrat.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

IMRESSED with the greatest Zeal, and actuated by the warmest Affection for the best of Kings, the Council and Assembly of this your loyal Island of Montserrat offer their sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's late happy Escape from Assassination.

It is with Horror we reflect upon the Danger from which the Interposition of a gracious and merciful Providence hath delivered your Person; yet the Minds of your faithful Subjects derive the utmost Consolation from the Thought, that a Life so justly dear, and inestimably valuable to them, could only be attempted by the undistinguishing Hand of Infamy.

Animated with these Sentiments, we offer up our fervent Prayers to the Supreme Disposer of all Events for the Preservation of your Sacred Life, and trust the Period may be far distant, when, after having fulfilled the important Duties of your high Station, you may be called upon to receive the Rewards due for the faithful Discharge of them.

Henry Dyer, President of the Council.

Montserrat, Thomas Harcum, Speaker of the House
Dec. 2, 1786. of Assembly.

Virgin Islands, }
Tortola. } ff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Speaker and the Assembly of the Virgin Islands, in the West Indies.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and obedient Subjects, the Speaker and Members of the Assembly of your Majesty's Virgin Islands, in the West Indies, beg Leave to solicit your Royal Attention, while we join the general Voice of your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects, and offer our sincere and unfeigned Congratulations to your Majesty, your Royal Consort, the Heir Apparent, the Rest of your most excellent Family, and the Nation in general, for your late fortunate and happy Escape from the atrocious and horrible Attempt, so openly and daringly made upon your Sacred and Royal Person, by a Woman to the last Degree desperate and abandoned, but who, for the Honour of Human Nature, we hope was at the Time insane, and of a disturbed Imagination. We should conceive ourselves wanting in Duty to the best of Sovereigns did we not upon this singular Occasion unite with the general Voice of Congratulation and Praise for the signal Interposition of Divine Providence, which has thus beneficently stretched out It's protecting Arm to shield our most Gracious Sovereign in the Moment of impending Danger, a Danger so unmerited, and so little to be expected. Permit us, therefore, Royal Sir, though so far removed from the Seat of Empire, and from your immediate Observance, to call your Attention a Moment from the more weighty Cares of Empire, while we offer this humble Tribute of our Loyalty and well-meant Zeal, and while we exult at your Majesty's happy Deliverance from so violent and daring an Attempt, an Attempt which, in this enlightened Age, and in this free and happy Country, is of a Nature so uncommon and extraordinary, and an Attempt which, if Success had crowned it's diabolical Endeavours, would have been attended with Consequences so fatal to the Peace and Happiness of your Illustrious Family, and to the Repose of all your Majesty's loyal, faithful, and obedient Subjects.

That your Majesty may enjoy a Fullness of Days, and a long, happy, and prosperous Reign, undisturbed by the Clamours of Faction, and uninjured by the Attempts of secret Conspiracy, or open Rebellion: That every Blessing which the Favour of Heaven can bestow, or which in this Life can be possessed and enjoyed, may be the Lot of your Majesty, your Royal Consort, and of all your Illustrious Family; and that your Royal House may long sway the Sceptre of these Realms and Dominions, will ever be the most ardent Wish and earnest Prayer of your Majesty's faithful and obedient Subjects, the Assembly of the Virgin Islands.

Jabez Doty, Speaker.

Dated at Tortola, this 23d Day of October, 1786.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your dutiful Subjects, the Lieutenant-Governor and Members of the Council of your Virgin Islands, impressed at all Times with the warmest Sentiments of Affection for your Sacred Person, and animated by that Solitude for it's Safety which Filial Attachment and all the Duties of Loyalty can inspire, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty, and to lay at the Foot of your Throne our heartfelt Tribute of Congratulation on the joyful Incident of your happy and providential Escape from the fell Designs of a traiterous Parricide to deprive you of your Life, and your Empire of the best of Sovereigns.

With Hearts teeming with Gratitude to the All-wise and All-merciful Ruler of human Events, and replete with the purest Fervour of Devotion, we implore him to accept our humble Thanks for permitting the Guardian Genius of Britain to watch over and protect the Father of her People in the Hour of Danger; and we hope that your Delivery is meant as the auspicious Prefage to a free and happy People, that they are destined to enjoy, under your Majesty, the Blessing of a long and prosperous Reign.

John Nugent, Lieutenant-Governor.

Berlin, January 23.

The King has repealed the Edict prohibiting the Transit of Earthen and Stone Wares through his Territories, and they are now allowed to pass as formerly, on paying the usual Duties. His Majesty has likewise taken off the Prohibition on the Importation of English Beer into his Dominions, and the Excise with which it is charged, amounts to about Fifteen Shillings the Hogshead.

An Edict was published here To-day, to abolish the Monopolies of Tobacco and Coffee, &c.

Whitehall, January 19, 1787.

Office for Auditing the Public Accounts,

January 26, 1787.

WHEREAS divers Persons, to whom Money has been issued for Public Services, have neglected to deliver into this Office the Vouchers for the Expenditure thereof, together with an Account Current, in the Manner, and within the Time prescribed by the Act for better examining and Auditing the Public Accounts of this Kingdom, the Commissioners for Auditing the Public Accounts have directed that Copies of the following Sections of the said Act be inserted in the London Gazette, in order that all Persons to whom Public Money has been, or shall be, so issued, may be informed of the Consequences of such Neglect.

Philip Deare,
John Wiggleworth,
Inspectors-General of Accounts.

SECTION XVII. And whereas great Losses and Inconveniences have arisen to the Public, by Sub-Accountants not having been put in Charge till a long Time has elapsed after the Monies were issued to them, be it enacted, That the Paymaster-General of His Majesty's Forces, the Treasurer of the Navy, the Treasurer of the Ordnance, and every other Public Officer who shall hereafter pay into the Hands of any Person or Persons whomsoever, Money for Public Services, by Way of Imprest or on Account, shall, within Thirty Days of the 31st Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, and within Thirty Days of the 31st Day of December in every future Year, transmit an Account of all Sums of Money issued or paid by him or them to any Person or Persons, for the Public Service, within the preceding Year, to the Commissioners to be appointed under the Authority of this Act; who shall, and they are hereby required forthwith to transmit Duplicates of the same to His Majesty's Remembrancer in the Court of Exchequer, who shall immediately, on Receipt of such Accounts, put the several Sums so issued in Charge against the Parties, in like Manner as now practised with respect to Persons who receive Money by Way of Imprest, and on Account, at the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer.

SECTION XVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Accountant shall be allowed in his Account any Sum which he shall issue or pay over to any Sub-Accountants, unless he shall have transmitted to the said Commissioners regular Accounts thereof, in the Manner and within the Times abovementioned; unless Proof shall be produced, to the Satisfaction of the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of the Treasury, that any Failure of transmitting the same did not happen from the wilful Neglect of the Person issuing or paying over the Money as aforesaid.

SECTION XX. And be it further enacted and declared, That every Sub-Accountant to whom Money shall hereafter be issued for Public Services, in case the Money so issued shall have been for Services to be performed in Great Britain, shall deliver into the Office of the Commissioners to be appointed by virtue of this Act, the Vouchers for the Expenditure thereof, together with an Account Current, within Three Months of the End of each Year from the Commencement of his Account, unless it has been usual for such Account to be made up to any fixed Period in the Year; in which Case they shall be delivered within Three Months of the usual annual Time of the Determination of each Account respectively; and in case such Monies shall have been issued for Services to be performed in any Part of Europe out of this Kingdom, then the Vouchers shall be delivered within Four Months of the Expiration of each Year's Accounts; if in the West Indies, the Continent of America, or in Africa, within Six Months after the Expiration of each Year's Accounts; and if in the East Indies, within Twelve Months after the Expiration of each Year's Accounts; unless it shall in each and every Case be made appear to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of the Treasury, that the Failure of transmitting the same, within the Periods beforementioned, was unavoidable; in which Case such further Delay may be granted by Warrant under the Hands of the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three of them, as they shall judge reasonable; and in such Cases the Vouchers shall be delivered at the Expiration of the Term of Delay so granted, on Pain, upon Failure in any of the abovementioned Cases, of paying such Fine to His Majesty as the Court of Exchequer, on Application made to them, shall think fit to set and impose; which Fine the said Court is hereby authorized and empowered to set and impose accordingly.

SECTION XXII. Provided always, and be it enacted, that when any Sub-Accountant or Sub-Accountants shall transmit to the Commissioners, to be appointed under the Authority of this Act, a sufficient and satisfactory Discharge from the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, the Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy, or the Commissioners for Sick and Hurt, for any Monies he or they shall have received in the said Departments severally; the said Commissioners shall transmit a Duplicate of the same to His Majesty's Remembrancer in the Court of Exchequer, who shall forthwith strike out the Name or Names of such Sub-Accountant or Sub-Accountants from the Imprest Roll; and such Sub-Accountant or Sub-Accountants shall from thenceforth be discharged from any other or further Account for the same.

Office of Ordnance, January 23, 1787.

THE Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give Notice, That they will sell by Public Auction at the Tower, on Wednesday the 7th Day of February next, at Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon, sundry Lots of old Cartridges of Sorts, Sheepskins, Artillery Cloathing, Breast and common Harness, Barrack and Hammock Bedding, old Flocks, Lignum Vitæ Sheaves, Iron Wood Pins, old Flags, Muzzle Caps, Tarpsaulins, Hair Cloths, Oil Dupper, Canvas Wallets, Sandbags, Painted Cloths, Lanthorns of Sorts, Powder Horns, Funnels of Plate, Tin Canteens, Tin Kettles, Bellows of Sorts, Stoves of Sorts, Ranges, Carpenters and Smiths Tools, Standing Vices, Hand Screws, Pole Axes, Fire Engines, Leather Buckets, Oil, Paint, Drums, Lump, Busbel and Cast Iron, old Files of Sorts, old Copper, White and Tarred Rope, Breechings, Tackle Falls, Rope Sponges, Junk, and other unserviceable Stores; which may be seen at the Tower till the Day of Sale.
