

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday February 6, to Saturday February 10, 1787.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 9th of February, 1787,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this Day read at the Board, the humble Petition of several Merchants of London, in Behalf of themselves and others trading to Spain, humbly praying, for the Reasons therein contained, that all Ships coming from the Ports of Spain within the Mediterranean, laden with Fruit, Wine, and other Goods not enumerated in the Quarantine Regulations, may, on the same being verified to the Officers of the Customs at the Ports where such Ships may arrive, be freely admitted to Entry without performing Quarantine: His Majesty having taken the said Petition into Consideration, and being desirous to remove all Obstructions upon Trade, so far as may be consistent with the Health and Safety of His Subjects, is pleased, with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the Quarantine at present subsisting upon all Ships and Vessels coming from or through the Mediterranean be taken off, so far as respects Ships and Vessels coming directly from any of the Ports of the Kingdom of Spain, within the Mediterranean, or from the Island of Minorca, laden with the Products of Spain only; and that all such Ships, and also all Ships and Vessels arriving from the Town or Port of Gibraltar, be permitted to discharge their respective Ladings without unpacking, opening and airing, and without performing any Quarantine: Provided that the Cargo on board such Ships shall consist entirely of Articles not enumerated in the Orders of Council directing the Performance of Quarantine, except any Bags, Straw, Matting or Platting on Jars, which shall have been solely made Use of as Package for the said non-enumerated Articles: And provided also that they bring with them Clean Bills of Health, and that the Master or other Person taking Charge of such Ship or Vessel, do first make Answer, upon Oath, before the Superintendent of Quarantine, or other Person appointed for that Service, to the printed Questions usually put to the Masters of Ships coming from Places from whence Quarantine is required to be performed, and that by the said Answers, which shall be transmitted by the said Superintendent or other Person appointed to see Quarantine performed, to the Principal Officers of the Customs, or to the Chief Magistrate at the Place to which the Ship is bound, it shall appear, to the Satisfaction of the said

Principal Officers or Chief Magistrate, that such Ship did not touch at any infected Place, nor had Communication with any infected Ship or Vessel, during the Voyage, and that the Crew is free from Infection. — And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master General of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief for the Time being of the Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark and Man are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Rich. Orlebar, pro Wm. Fawkener.

St. James's, February 10.

THE following Address of the Freeholders, Justices of Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Aberdeen, has been presented to the King by George Skene, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the said County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the County of Aberdeen.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Aberdeen, beg Leave to approach the Throne with the most sincere Assurances of their steady Attachment and Loyalty, and the most ardent Wishes for the Preservation of your Royal Person from all Danger.

May your Majesty's Life be long preserved, to enjoy, through many succeeding Years, that Felicity which is attendant on Virtue.

May your Reign be glorious, and your People happy.

Geo. Skene,

by Appointment of the Meeting.

Whitehall, February 9, 1787.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, That on the Night between the 3d and 4th Instant, some evil disposed Person or Persons unknown burglariously broke into and entered the Counting-house and Parlour adjoining of Mess. Allan Stewart and Co. Merchants, at Leith, and proceeded to force open Two Desks in the said Counting-house, when not finding any Money therein, they damaged several Articles of the Furniture, and made their Escape.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the Burglary and Outrage above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person who first broke into the said Counting-house and Parlour) who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

S Y D N E Y.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person making such Discovery as above-mentioned (except as is before excepted) to be paid by Mess. Allan Stewart and Co. upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

General Post-Office, January 8, 1787.

BANK Note for FIFTEEN POUNDS, No. 513, dated November 2, 1786. The Person in Possession of the above Bank Note, or any Person through whose Hands it may have passed since the 16th of November, are requested to give immediate Information at this Office.

By Command of the Post-Master General,

Anth. Todd, Sec.

Office for Auditing the Public Accounts,

January 26, 1787.

WHEREAS divers Persons, to whom Money has been issued for Public Services, have neglected to deliver into this Office the Vouchers for the Expenditure thereof, together with an Account Current, in the Manner, and within the Time prescribed by the Act for better examining and Auditing the Public Accounts of this Kingdom, the Commissioners for Auditing the Public Accounts have directed that Copies of the following Sections of the said Act be inserted in the London Gazette, in order that all Persons to whom Public Money has been, or shall be, so issued, may be informed of the Consequences of such Neglect.

Philip Deare,

John Wigglesworth,

Inspectors-General of Accounts.

SECTION XVII. And whereas great Losses and Inconveniences have arisen to the Public, by Sub-Accountants not having been put in Charge till a long Time has elapsed after the Monies were issued to them, be it enacted, That the Paymaster-General of His Majesty's Forces, the Treasurer of the Navy,

Navy, the Treasurer of the Ordnance, and every other Public Officer who shall hereafter pay into the Hands of any Person or Persons whomsoever, Money for Public Services, by Way of Imprest or on Account, shall, within Thirty Days of the 31st Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, and within Thirty Days of the 31st Day of December in every future Year, transmit an Account of all Sums of Money issued or paid by him or them to any Person or Persons, for the Public Service, within the preceding Year, to the Commissioners to be appointed under the Authority of this Act; who shall, and they are hereby required forthwith to transmit Duplicates of the same to His Majesty's Remembrancer in the Court of Exchequer, who shall immediately, on Receipt of such Accounts, put the several Sums so issued in Charge against the Parties, in like Manner as now practised with respect to Persons who receive Money by Way of Imprest, and on Account, at the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer.

SECTION XVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Accountant shall be allowed in his Account any Sum which he shall issue or pay over to any Sub-Accountants, unless he shall have transmitted to the said Commissioners regular Accounts thereof, in the Manner and within the Times abovementioned; unless Proof shall be produced, to the Satisfaction of the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of the Treasury, that any Failure of transmitting the same did not happen from the wilful Neglect of the Person issuing or paying over the Money, as aforesaid.

SECTION XX. And be it further enacted and declared, That every Sub-Accountant to whom Money shall hereafter be issued for Public Services, in case the Money so issued shall have been for Services to be performed in Great Britain, shall deliver into the Office of the Commissioners to be appointed by virtue of this Act, the Vouchers for the Expenditure thereof, together with an Account Current, within Three Months of the End of each Year from the Commencement of his Account, unless it has been usual for such Account to be made up to any fixed Period in the Year; in which Case they shall be delivered within Three Months of the usual annual Time of the Determination of each Account respectively; and in case such Monies shall have been issued for Services to be performed in any Part of Europe out of this Kingdom, then the Vouchers shall be delivered within Four Months of the Expiration of each Year's Accounts; if in the West Indies, the Continent of America, or in Africa, within Six Months after the Expiration of each Year's Accounts; and if in the East Indies, within Twelve Months after the Expiration of each Year's Accounts; unless it shall in each and every Case be made appear to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of the Treasury, that the Failure of transmitting the same, within the Periods beforementioned, was unavoidable; in which Case such further Delay may be granted by Warrant under the Hands of the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three of them, as they shall judge reasonable; and in such Cases the Vouchers shall be delivered at the Expiration of the Term of Delay so granted, on Pain, upon Failure in any of the abovementioned Cases, of paying such Fine to His Majesty as the Court of Exchequer, on Application made to them, shall think fit to set and impose; which Fine the said Court is hereby authorized and empowered to set and impose accordingly.

SECTION XXII. Provided always, and be it enacted, that when any Sub-Accountant or Sub-Accountants shall transmit to the Commissioners, to be appointed under the Authority of this Act, a sufficient and satisfactory Discharge from the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, the Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy, or the Commissioners for Sick and Hurt, for any Monies he or they shall have received in the said Departments severally, the said Commissioners shall transmit a Duplicate of the same to His Majesty's Remembrancer in the Court of Exchequer, who shall forthwith strike out the Name or Names of such Sub-Accountant or Sub-Accountants from the Imprest Roll; and such Sub-Accountant or Sub-Accountants shall from thenceforth be discharged from any other or further Account for the same.

*Office of American Claims, Lincoln's-Inn-Fields;
February 6, 1787.*

WHEREAS several Persons who have lodged Claims at this Office have, upon being summoned to attend, neglected or omitted to appear in Consequence thereof: This is to desire that all Claimants to whom such Summons has been sent (of which Information may be obtained at this Office, in case the Summons has not been received) will, by themselves or their Agents, within Two Months from the Date hereof, signify at this Office their Intention of prosecuting their Claims, or in Default thereof it will be presumed that they mean to relinquish the same.

John Forster, Secretary to the Commissioners.

*Marine Pay-Office, St. Alban's-Street,
February 10, 1787.*

IN pursuance of the Direction of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the Pay-Master of His Majesty's Marine Forces hereby gives Notice, That on Thursday the 15th Instant will be issued at this Office Six Months Half-Pay due to the Reduced Officers of the said Forces, from the 1st of July to the 31st of December last inclusive.

Admiralty-Office, February 9, 1787.

THESE are to give Notice, That a General Court of the Governors of the Charity for the Relief of Poor Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy will be held at this Office on Thursday the 22d Instant, in order to choose Two Vice-Presidents and Fifteen Assistants for the Year ensuing.

Bank of England, February 10, 1787.

THE Court of Directors of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England give Notice, That the Transfer Books for Bank Stock will be shut from Friday the 2d Day of March next, till Friday the 20th of April following.

Francis Martin, Secretary.

Leicestershire Militia.

By an Order made under the Hands of Three of His Majesty's Deputy Lieutenants of the County of Leicester, I am directed to give you Notice, That the General Meeting of the said Deputy-Lieutenants, held at the Cranes, in Leicester, on Thursday the 30th of January last for the Purpose of Raising and Training the Militia of the said County, is adjourned to Monday the 19th of February instant, to be held at the said Cranes Inn, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon.
