And to Two Private Bills.

After which His Majesty was pleased to make the following most Gracious Speech:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I CANNOT close this Session of Parliament without expressing My entire Approbation of the Zeal and Assiduity with which you have applied yourselves to the important Objects which I recommended to your Attention, and at the same Time returning you My particular Thanks for the Proofs which you have given of your Affection for Me, and for My Family and Government.

The Assurances which I receive from Foreign Powers of their good Disposition to this Country, and the Continuance of the general Tranquillity of Europe, afford me great Satisfaction; but Dissentions unhappily prevail among the States of the United Provinces, which, as a Friend and Well-wisher to the Republic, I cannot see without the most real Concern.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

The Cheerfulness with which you have granted the necessary Supplies, and the ample Manner in which you have provided for the several Establishments, demand My sincerest Thanks.

I see with particular Satisfaction that you have at the same Time been able to furnish the Sum annually appropriated to the Reduction of the National Debt, without imposing any new Burdens on My People.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I reflect with peculiar Pleasure on the Measures which you have taken for enabling Me to carry into Effect the Treaty of Navigation and Commerce with the Most Christian King, and for facilitating the Collection and simplifying the Accounts of the various Branches of the Revenue, which I trust will be productive of the most beneficial Effects. And I rely upon your using your best Endeavours in your several Counties to carry into Effect the Measures which have been taken for the Prevention of illicit Trade, and to promote good Order and Industry among every Class of My Subjects.

Then the Lord Chancellor, by His Majesty's Command, said:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

It is His Majesty's Royal Will and Pleasure, That this Parliament be prorogued to Tuesday the Thirty-first Day of July next, to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Tuesday the Thirty-first Day of July next.

By the KING,

A PROCLAMATION,

For the Encouragement of Piety and Virtue, and for the preventing and punishing of Vice, Profaneness and Immorality.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS We cannot but observe, with inexpressible Concern, the rapid Progress of Impiety and Licentiousness, and that Deluge of Profaneness, Immorality, and every Kind of Vice, which, to the Scandal of Our Holy Religion, and to the evil Example of Our loving Subjects, hath broken in upon this Nation; We therefore esteeming it Our indispensable Duty to exert the Authority committed to Us for the Suppression of these spreading Evils, fearing lest they should provoke God's Wrath and Indignation against Us, and humbly acknowledging that We cannot expect the Blessing and Goodness of Almighty God, (by whom Kings reign, and on which We entirely rely) to make Our Reign happy and prosperous to Ourselves and Our People, without a religious Observance of God's Holy Laws, to the Intent that Religion, Piety and Good Manners may (according to Our most hearty Desire) flourish and increase under Our Administration and Government, have thought fit, by the Advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, and do hereby declare Our Royal Purpose and Resolution to discountenance and punish all Manner of Vice, Profaneness and Immorality, in all Persons, of whatsoever Degree or Quality, within this Our Realm, and particularly in such as are employed near Our Royal Person; and that, for the Encouragement of Religion and Morality, We will, upon all Occasions, distinguish Persons of Piety and Virtue by Marks of Our Royal Favour. And We do expect and require that all Persons of Honour, or in Place of Authority, will give good Example by their own Piety and Virtue, and, to their utmost, contribute to the discountenancing Persons of dissolute and debauched Lives, that they being reduced by that Means to Shame and Contempt for their loose and evil Actions and Behaviour, may be thereby also enforced the sooner to reform their ill Habits and Practices, and that the visible Displeasure of good Men towards them, may (as far as it is possible) supply what the Laws (probably) cannot altogether prevent. And We do hereby strictly enjoin and prohibit all Our loving Subjects, of what Degree or Quality soever, from playing on the Lord's Day at Dice, Cards, or any other Game whatsoever, either in Publick or Private Houses, or other Place or Places whatsoever; and We do hereby require and command them, and every of them, decently and reverently to attend the Worship of God on the Lord's Day, on Pain of Our highest Displeasure, and of being proceeded against, with the utmost Rigour that may be, by Law. And for the more effectual reforming all such Persons who, by Reason of their dissolute Lives and Conversation, are a Scandal to Our Kingdom, Our further Pleasure is, and We do hereby strictly charge and command all Our Judges, Mayors, Sheriffs, Justices of the Peace, and all other Our Officers and Ministers, both Ecclesi-tical and Civil, and all other Our Subjects, to be very vigilant and strict in the Discovery, and the effectual Prosecution and Punishment of all Persons who shall be guilty of excessive Drinking, Blasphemy, profane Swearing and Curfing, Lewdness, Profanation of the Lord's Day, or other dissolute, immoral, or disorderly Practices; and that they take Care also effectually to suppress all publick Gaming Houses, and other loose and disorderly Houses; and also all unlicensed publick Shews, Interludes, and Places of Entertainment, using the utmost Caution in licensing the same; also to suppress all loose and licentious Prints, Books and Publications, dispersing Poison to the Minds of the Young and Unwary, and to punish the Publishers and Venders thereof; and to put in Execution the Statute made in the Twenty-ninth Year of the Reign of the late King Charles the Second, intituled, "An Act for the better Observation of the " Lord's Day, commonly called Sunday;" and also an Act of Parliament made in the Ninth Year of the Reign of the late King William the Third, intituled, "An Act for the more effectual suppressing of Blasphemy and Profaneness;" and also an Act passed in the Twenty-first Year of Our Reign, intituled, "An Act for preventing certain Abuses and Profanations on the Lord's Day, called Sunday," and all other Laws now in Force for the punishing and suppressing any of the Vices aforesaid; and also to suppress and prevent all Gaming whatsoever in Publick or Private Houses on the Lord's Day; and likewise that they take effectual Care to prevent all Persons keeping Taverns, Chocolate-Houses, Coffee-Houses, or other Publick-Houses whatsoever, from selling Wine, Chocolate, Coffee, Ale, Beer, or other Liquors, or receiving or permitting Guests to be or remain in such their Houses, in the Time of Divine Service on the Lord's Day, as they will answer it to Almighty God, and upon Pain of Our highest Displeasure. And for the more effectual proceeding herein, We do hereby direct and command all Our Judges of Assize, and Justices of the Peace, to give strict Charge, at their respective Assizes and Sessions, for the due Prosecution and Punishment of all Persons that shall presume to offend in any of the Kinds aforesaid, and also of all Persons that, contrary to their Duty, shall be remiss or negligent in putting the said Laws in Execution; and that they do, at their respective Assizes and Quarter Sessions of the Peace, cause this Our Royal Proclamation to be publickly read in open Court immediately before the Charge is given. And We do hereby further charge and command every Minister, in his respective Parish Church or Chapel, to read, or cause to be read, this Our Proclamation, at least Four Times in every Year, immediately after Divine Service; and to incite and stir up their respective Auditors to the Practice of Piety and Virtue, and the avoiding of all Immorality and Profaneness. And to the End that all Vice and Debauchery may be prevented, and Religion and Virtue practised by all Officers, Private Soldiers, Mariners and others, who are employed in Our Service by Sea and Land, We do hereby strictly charge and command all Our Commanders and Officers whatsoever, that they do take Care to avoid all Profaneness, Debauchery and other Immoralities, and that, by their own good and virtuous Lives and Conversation, they do set good Examples to all such as are under their Care and Authority, and likewise take Care of and inspect the Behaviour of all such as are under them, and punish all those who shall be guilty of any of the Offences aforesaid, as they will be answerable for the ill Consequences of their Neglect herein.

An Act to prevent the Stealing of Dogs.

His Grace was then pleased to make the following Speech:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

IN relieving you from further Attendance in the present Session of Parliament, I have the Satisfaction of signifying to you His Majesty's entire Approbation of the wise and vigorous Measures by which you have distinguished your Zeal for the Preservation of the Public Peace and the Tranquillity of the Country. My strenuous Exertions shall not be wanting to carry your salutary Provisions into Execution, so assert the just Dominion of the Laws, and to establish the Security of Property, as well as personal Safety, to all Descriptions of His Majesty's Subjects in this Kingdom.

The decided Tenor of your Conduct assures me of your continued and cordial Assistance, and that you will, with your utmost Influence, impress upon the Minds of the People a full Conviction what dangerous Effects to the general Welfare, and to the growing Prosperity of the Nation, arise from the Prevalence of even partial or temporary Disturbance. Admonish them, that the benevolent but watchful Spirit of the Legislature, which induces it to encourage Industry and Exertion, will, at the same Time, be awake to the Correction of those Excesses, which are the inseparable Companions of Idleness and licentious Disorder.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I thank you, in the King's Name, for the Supplies which you have so cheerfully provided for the Support of His Majesty's Government. You may depend upon their being faithfully applied to the Purposes for which they are granted.

The Measures you have taken for increasing Public Credit and diminishing the National Debt, are consonant to that Wisdom and Affection to your Country, which have ever distinguished the Parliament of Ireland.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

A new and powerful Incitement to the National Industry has been opened by the Treaty of Commerce with France, in which the utmost Attention is manifested to the Interests of Ireland. The Claims of this Kingdom to an equal Participation in Treaties between Great Britain and Portugal, have been acknowledged by the Court of Lisbon. These are decided Testimonies of His Majesty's paternal Regard, and fresh Confirmations of His gracious Resolution to consider the Interests of Great Britain and Ireland as inseparable: A Principle which, by uniting the Faculties and Affections of the Empire, gives Strength and Security to every Part of it; a Principle which, with your accustomed Wisdom, you have still further corroborated by the late Arrangement of your Laws of Navigation.

The Loyalty and Attachment of His faithful People of Ireland are highly grateful to the King, and by His Majesty's express Command I am to assure you of His most gracious and affectionate Protection.

To fulfil my Sovereign's Pleasure, which constantly directs me to study the true Happiness of this Kingdom, is the great and settled Object of my Ambition; and upon this Basis I shall hope to have established a permanent Claim to your good Opinion, and to the Confidence and Regard of the People of Ireland.

After which the Lord Chancellor, by his Grace's Command, said,

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

IT is his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Pleasure that this Parliament be prorogued to Tuesday the 24th Day of July next, to be then here holden: And this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Tuesday the 24th Day of July next.
