WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that in the Morning of the 10th Instant, about One o'Clock, a Fire broke out in the Dwelling-house of Mr. James Falk, of Happisburgh in the County of Norfolk, Farmer, which in a short Time entirely consumed the same, together with the Barn, Stable and Out-Houses adjoining, and with all the Furniture, Corn and Implements of Husbandry therein; and that from several Circumstances, particularly from the Horses, which were carefully tied up in the Stable, and the Door locked the preceding Evening, being found at large in the Morning, it is greatly suspected that the said Fire was not accidental, but occasioned by some malicious Person or Persons unknown: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in this atrocious Offence, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of the Offenders, (except the Person who actually set Fire to the said House, Barn, Stable and Out-Houses) who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.
