Office for Auditing the Public Accounts,
Somerset Place, July 14, 1787.

WHEREAS divers Persons, to whom Money has been issued for Public Services, have neglected to deliver into this Office the Vouchers for the Expenditure thereof, together with an Account Current, in the Manner, and within the Time prescribed by the Act for better examining and Auditing the Public Accounts of this Kingdom, the Commissioners for Auditing the Public Accounts have directed that Copies of the following Sections of the said Act be inserted in the London Gazette, in order that all Persons to whom Public Money has been, or shall be, so issued, may be informed of the Consequences of such Neglect.

Philip Deare,
John Wiggleworth,
Inspectors-General of Accounts.

SECTION XVII. And whereas great Losses and Inconveniences have arisen to the Public, by Sub-Accountants not having been put in Charge till a long Time has elapsed after the Monies were issued to them, be it enacted, That the Paymaster-General of His Majesty's Forces, the Treasurer of the Navy, the Treasurer of the Ordnance, and every other Public Officer who shall hereafter pay into the Hands of any Person or Persons whomsoever, Money for Public Services, by Way of Imprest or on Account, shall, within Thirty Days of the 31st Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, and within Thirty Days of the 31st Day of December in every future Year, transmit an Account of all Sums of Money issued or paid by him or them to any Person or Persons, for the Public Service, within the preceding Year, to the Commissioners to be appointed under the Authority of this Act; who shall, and they are hereby required forthwith to transmit Duplicates of the same to His Majesty's Remembrancer in the Court of Exchequer, who shall immediately, on Receipt of such Accounts, put the several Sums so issued in Charge against the Parties, in like Manner as now practised with respect to Persons who receive Money by Way of Imprest, and on Account, at the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer.

SECTION XVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Accountant shall be allowed in his Account any Sum which he shall issue or pay over to any Sub-Accountants, unless he shall have transmitted to the said Commissioners regular Accounts thereof, in the Manner and within the Times abovementioned; unless Proof shall be produced, to the Satisfaction of the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of the Treasury, that any Failure of transmitting the same did not happen from the wilful Neglect of the Person issuing or paying over the Money as aforesaid.

SECTION XX. And be it further enacted and declared, That every Sub-Accountant to whom Money shall hereafter be issued for Public Services, in case the Money so issued shall have been for Services to be performed in Great Britain, shall deliver into the Office of the Commissioners to be appointed by virtue of this Act, the Vouchers for the Expenditure thereof, together with an Account Current, within Three Months of the End of each Year from the Commencement of his Account, unless it has been usual for such Account to be made made up to any fixed Period in the Year; in which Case they shall be delivered within Three Months of the usual annual Time of the Determination of each Account respectively; and in case such Monies shall have been issued for Services to be performed in any Part of Europe out of this Kingdom, then the Vouchers shall be delivered within Four Months of the Expiration of each Year's Accounts; if in the West Indies, the Continent of America, or in Africa, within Six Months after the Expiration of each Year's Accounts; and if in the East Indies, within Twelve Months after the Expiration of each Year's Accounts; unless it shall in each and every Case be made appear to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of the Treasury, that the Failure of transmitting the same, within the Periods beforementioned, was unavoidable; in which Case such further Delay may be granted by Warrant under the Hands of the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three of them, as they shall judge reasonable; and in such Cases the Vouchers shall be delivered at the Expiration of the Term of Delay so granted, on Pain, upon Failure in any of the above-mentioned Cases, of paying such Fine to His Majesty as the Court of Exchequer, on Application made to them, shall think fit to set and impose; which Fine the said Court is hereby authorized and empowered to set and impose accordingly.

SECTION XXII. Provided always, and be it enacted, that when any Sub-Accountant or Sub-Accountants shall transmit to the Commissioners, to be appointed under the Authority of this Act, a sufficient and satisfactory Discharge from the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, the Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy, or the Commissioners for Sick and Hurt, for any Monies he or they shall have received in the said Departments severally, the said Commissioners shall transmit a Duplicate of the same to His Majesty's Remembrancer in the Court of Exchequer, who shall forthwith strike out the Name or Names of such Sub-Accountant or Sub-Accountants from the Imprest Roll; and such Sub-Accountant or Sub-Accountants shall from thenceforth be discharged from any other or further Account for the same.

Office of American Claims, Lincoln's-inn-Fields,
July 21, 1787.

WHEREAS several Persons, who have lodged Claims at this Office, have, upon being summoned to attend, neglected or omitted to appear in consequence thereof; This is FINALLY to require, that all Persons within the Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland, whose Claims have not been examined, do, by themselves or their Agents, signify at this Office, in Writing, on or before the 29th Day of September next, their Intentions of prosecuting their Claims; and that all such Persons who are Abroad do attend at this Office, for the like Purpose, within Six Months from the Date hereof; and such who may be incapacitated to attend in Person are required, within the Times above limited, to transmit a special State of the Circumstances which disable them, authenticated on the Oaths of themselves and One or more reputable Inhabitants of the Place or Neighbourhood where they reside: And all such Claimants as have already given, or shall hereafter give Notice in Writing, of their Intentions to prosecute their Claims, are hereby informed, that, on receiving a further Summons, they will be expected to attend and be examined forthwith. And Notice is hereby given to all whom it may concern, that the Commissioners will presume that all Persons, who fail in complying with the above Requisitions, have abandoned or declined the Prosecution of their Claims, and will be reported upon accordingly.

John Forster, Secretary to the Commissioners.

Pay-Office, Horse Guards, July 18, 1787.

THE Right Honourable the Pay-Master General of His Majesty's Forces having ordered Six Months Half Pay to be issued to all the Reduced Officers of His Majesty's British and American Land Forces, from the 25th of December, 1786, to the 24th of June, 1787; also Six Months Allowance to the Officers and Private Gentlemen of His Majesty's late 3d and 4th Troops of Horse Guards to the same Time; Notice is hereby declared, That on Monday next the 23d Instant, Attendance will be given at the above-said Office for Payment of the same accordingly.

D. Thomas, Cashier of Half-Pay.

General Post-Office, July 21, 1787.

A Mail will be made up and dispatched from this Office for Halifax in Nova Scotia, on Wednesday the 1st of August next, by which will be forwarded the Letters for the Provinces of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Canada, and all Parts of His Majesty's Dominions in North America.

The Packet Postage of One Shilling for each Single Letter, and so in Proportion for Double, Treble and Ounce Letters and Packets, must be paid upon their Delivery into this Office; and the Inland Postage to London from all Parts of Great Britain and Ireland must also be paid over and above the said Rates, without which they cannot be forwarded.

By Command of the Post-Master General,
Anth. Todd, Sec.

Sea Officers Widows Pensions.
