Published by Authority.

From Tuesday October 23, to Saturday October 27, 1787.

By the KING,
A PROCLAMATION,
Respecting the GOLD COIN.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS it has been represented unto Us, that great Quantities of the Gold Coin of this Realm, deficient in Weight, are now in Circulation, contrary to the Tenour of Our Royal Proclamation of the Twelfth Day of April, One thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, and there being Reason to believe that due Attention is not paid to the weighing of the said Gold Coin, and to the Directions given in the Acts of Parliament now in Force with Respect to the cutting, breaking or defacing of such Pieces thereof as are found to be of less Weight than those declared and allowed by Our said Proclamation to be current and pass in Payment; We do think proper, by this Our Royal Proclamation, to declare and command, in like Manner as We did declare and command in Our before-mentioned Proclamation of the Twelfth Day of April, One thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, That all Guineas, Half Guineas and Quarter Guineas, more deficient in Weight than the Rates specified in the Table following,

	Dwts.	Grs.
Guineas, - - - - -	5	8
Half Guineas, - - - - -	2	16
Quarter Guineas, - - - - -	1	8

be not allowed to be current or pass in any Payment whatsoever: And We do hereby strictly require and command all Our loving Subjects, and particularly all the Officers, Collectors and Receivers of Our Revenues, strictly to conform to the Orders hereby given, and to the Directions and Regulations enacted and established in the several Acts of Parliament now in Force with Respect to the cutting, breaking and defacing such Pieces of the said Gold Coin as shall be found deficient in Weight. Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Twenty-first Day of September, One thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven, in the Twenty-seventh Year of Our Reign.

G O D save the KING.

Act of the 14th Year of His present Majesty's Reign, Chap. 70. Sect. 7.

AND be it further enacted, by the Authority aforesaid, That the Tellers in the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer in Great Britain, and all Receivers, Collectors and other Officers of all His Majesty's Revenues wheresoever, and all other Persons whatsoever, are hereby authorized and required to cut, break or deface, or cause to be cut, broken or defaced, every Piece of Gold Coin of this Realm that shall be tendered to them or any of them in Payment, after such Time and Times as any such Piece of Gold Coin shall, by virtue of any Proclamation of His Majesty in Council, be declared not to be allowed to pass in any Payment whatsoever, any Law or Statute to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding; and the Person tendering the same shall bear the Loss: But if any such Piece so cut, broken or defaced, shall be of due Weight, and appear to be lawful Money, the Person that cut, broke or defaced the same, shall and is hereby required to take and receive the same at the Rate it was coined for: And if any Questions or Disputes shall arise, whether the Piece so cut be lawful Coin, within the Intent and Meaning of His Majesty's Proclamations, it shall be heard and finally determined by the Mayor, Bailiff or Bailiffs, or other Chief Officer of any City or Town Corporate where such Tender shall be made; and if such Tenders shall be made out of any City or Town Corporate, then by some Justice of the Peace of the County inhabiting or being near the Place where such Tender shall be made; and the said Mayor or other Chief Officer, and Justice of the Peace, shall have full Power and Authority to administer an Oath, as he shall see convenient, to any Person, for determining mining any Questions relating to the Weight and lawful Currency of the said Piece of Coin.

All of the 14th Year of His present Majesty's Reign, Chap. 92. Sect 4.

AND be it further enacted, by the Authority aforesaid, that from and after the 31st Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and seventy-four, all Weights to be made Use of for Weighing the said Gold and Silver Coin, shall be regulated and ascertained by the Duplicates or Copies of the said Standard Weights of a Guinea, and of a Shilling, and of the Parts and Multiples thereof respectively, lodged in the Custody of the Officer beforementioned, (viz. the Officer appointed by His Majesty for this Purpose, in pursuance of a preceding Clause of the said Act) and after having been tried and compared therewith, and found to be just and true, shall, in Testimony thereof, be marked by the said Officer with a Stamp or Mark, or Stamps or Marks, to be approved of by the Master of His Majesty's Mint; which Stamps or Marks the said Officer is hereby directed to provide: And in order that the Impression or Impressions made thereby may be known to all His Majesty's Subjects, the said Officer is hereby also directed to publish a Description of the same, by Advertisement in the London Gazette, Three Times at least before the said Thirty-first Day of December, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy-four; and the said Officer is hereby required, upon Application made to him, at all reasonable Hours to stamp or mark, in Manner aforesaid, all Weights to be used for weighing the said Gold and Silver Coin, which shall be brought to him for that Purpose, and which he shall find to be just and true, according to the said Duplicates or Copies of the Standard Weights of a Guinea and of a Shilling, and of the Parts and Multiples thereof respectively, hereby directed to be lodged in his Custody, without Fee or Reward, and without wilful Delay: And from and after the said Thirty-first Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and seventy-four, no other Weights but such as shall be just and true, according to the Weights with and by which they are hereby directed to be compared and ascertained, and shall be marked in Manner before-mentioned, shall be reputed or accepted in Law to be true or of any Effect for determining the Weight of the Gold or Silver Coin of this Realm.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 26th of October, 1787,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the Twenty-first Day of September last, to promise and declare, That the Bounties of Three Pounds for every Able Seaman, of Two Pounds for every Ordinary Seaman, and of Twenty Shillings for every Able-bodied Landman, fit for His Majesty's Service, should be paid, in the Manner thereby directed, to every such Able and Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty nor under the Age of Eighteen Years, and to every such Able-bodied Landman, not above the Age of Thirty-five nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the Thirty-first Day of October then next, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships, or Officers employed in Tenders, or at Rendezvous on Shore, for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And whereas His Majesty was likewise pleased by another Proclamation, bearing Date the said Twenty-first Day of September last, to promise and declare, That a Reward of Two Pounds for every Able, and Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, should be paid, in the Manner thereby directed, to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who might secrete themselves, that so such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's said Service, by any of His Majesty's Sea Officers employed for raising Men, on or before the said Thirty-first Day of October then next: And whereas the Time limited by the said Proclamations for Payment of the said Bounties and Rewards is near expiring; and it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the said Bounties should be continued to be paid for some Time longer; but that, instead of the said Rewards of Two Pounds for every Able, and Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, ordered to be paid to Persons discovering Seamen who may secrete themselves, a Reward of Twenty Shillings be paid for the Discovery of any such Seaman or Seamen: His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, That the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties be prolonged and extended from the said Thirty-first Day of this instant October, to the Thirty-first Day of December next inclusive; and that a Reward of Twenty Shillings be paid to any Person who shall, on or before the said Thirty-first Day of December next, discover any Seaman or Seamen who may secrete themselves, that so such Seaman or Seamen shall be taken for His Majesty's Service, by any of His Majesty's Sea Officers employed in raising Men; whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

General Post-Office, October 27, 1787.

A Mail will be made up at this Office on the First and Third Wednesday of every Month for the West Indies.

Their Course will be for Barbadoes, St. Vincent, Grenada, and from thence to St. Kitt's and Jamaica, where, instead of being detained to receive the Answers to all their Letters from the internal Parts of the Island, they will stay but Forty-eight Hours, and return by the Windward Passage to England; and the next Packet will take up the Answers to the Letters delivered by the first.

The Packets will leave at Barbadoes all Letters for the Leeward Islands, which will be conveyed by a Brig to Dominica, Antigua and St. Kitt's, where they will be delivered to the English Packets upon their Arrival from Grenada, and forwarded with the rest to Jamaica and England.

This is a temporary Plan, 'till another upon a larger Scale can be carried into Effect.
