Whitehall, November 16, 1787.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that, on Friday Evening the 2d Day of November instant, a most inhuman Murder was committed on the Bodies of William Jenkins and William Scott, late Officers in His Majesty's Excise, by a Gang of Smugglers, when the said Officers were in the Execution of their Duty; in attempting to seize some Run Goods, at a Place called Roncombe's Girt, on the Road between Honiton and Beer in the County of Devon.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said inhuman Murder, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except William Voysey, and any other who may be apprehended prior to the Date of this Advertisement) who shall discover his Accomplices therein, so that they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

S Y D N E Y.

And, as a farther Encouragement, the Commissioners of Excise do hereby promise a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons making such Discovery (except as before excepted) to be paid by their Secretary on Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

W. Jackson, pro Se.

Whitehall, November 9, 1787.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that on Friday Morning, the 26th of October last, about Two o'Clock, the Barn belonging to Sutton Hall, near Rochford, in the County of Essex, was discovered to be on Fire, by which the same was burnt down to the Ground, and the Corn therein, being about Thirty Quarters of Wheat threshed, a Bay of Wheat, and a Bay of Pease, as also a Stack of Wheat, Two Stacks of Oats, and a Stack of Beans, which were adjoining to the said Barn, the Property of Robert Huft, Esq; the Occupier, were entirely consumed; and that there is great Reason to suspect that the Premises were wilfully and maliciously set on Fire, by some evil-disposed Person or Persons unknown:

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in setting Fire to the Barn above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them (except the Person who actually set the same on Fire) who shall discover his, her or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

S Y D N E Y.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Association at Rochford, against Felons and other Offenders, do hereby offer a Reward of TEN POUNDS, (to be paid by the Treasurer out of the Fund of the said Association) and the said Robert Huft, and Mr. William Cockerton, of Sutton aforesaid, do hereby offer the further Reward of FIFTY POUNDS, to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid (except as is above excepted). The said Two several Rewards to be paid upon the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders.

J. V. Cope, Clerk to the said Association.
 Rob. Huft.
 Wm. Cockerton.

Whitehall, October 29, 1787.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that on Thursday Night last, between the Hours of Eleven and Twelve o'Clock, (as imagined) a large Barn full of Wheat, the Stables, Cart-House, and other Buildings, belonging to Mr. George Swardev, of Hocking Pelham Hall, in the County of Hertford, were wilfully set on Fire and burnt to the Ground by some evil-disposed Person or Persons unknown.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in setting the said Buildings on Fire, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who
