Westminster, November 27.

THIS Day His Majesty came to the House of Peers, and being in His Royal Robes, seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, Sir Francis Molyneux, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a Message from His Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majesty was pleased to make the following most Gracious Speech:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

AT the Close of the last Session I informed you of the Concern with which I observed the Difficulties unhappily subsisting in the Republick of the United Provinces.

Their Situation soon afterwards became more critical and alarming, and the Danger which threatened their Constitution and Independence seemed likely in its Consequences to affect the Security and Interests of My Dominions.

No Endeavours were wanting on My Part to contribute, by My good Offices, to the Restoration of Tranquility, and the Maintenance of the lawful Government; and I also thought it necessary to explain My Intention of counteracting all forcible Interference, on the Part of France, in the Internal Affairs of the Republick. Under these Circumstances, the King of Prussia having taken Measures to enforce his Demand of Satisfaction for the Insult offered to the Princess of Orange, the Party which had usurped the Government of Holland applied to the Most Christian King for Assistance, who notified to Me his Intention of granting their Request.

In Conformity to the Principles which I had before explained, I did not hesitate, on receiving this Notification, to declare, that I could not remain a quiet Spectator of the armed Interference of France; and I gave immediate Orders for augmenting My Forces both by Sea and Land.

In the Course of these Transactions I also thought proper to conclude a Treaty with the Landgrave of Hesse Cassel, by which I secured the Assistance of a considerable Body of Troops, in case My Service should require it.

In the mean Time the rapid Success of the Prussian Troops, under the Conduct of the Duke of Brunswick, while it was the Means of obtaining the Reparation demanded by the King of Prussia, enabled the Provinces to deliver themselves from the Oppression under which they laboured, and to re-establish their lawful Government.

All Subjects of Contest being thus removed, an amicable Explanation took Place between Me and the Most Christian King; and Declarations have been exchanged by Our respective Ministers, by which We have agreed mutually to disarm, and to place Our Naval Establishments on the same Footing as in the Beginning of the present Year.

It gives Me the greatest Satisfaction that the important Events, which I have communicated to you, have taken Place, without disturbing My Subjects in the Enjoyment of the Blessings of Peace; and I have great Pleasure in acquainting you, that I continue to receive, from all Foreign Powers, the fullest Assurances of their pacific and friendly Disposition towards this Country. I must, at the same Time, regret that the Tranquility of one Part of Europe is unhappily interrupted by the War which has broken out between Russia and the Porte.

A Convention has been agreed upon between Me and the Most Christian King, explanatory of the Thirteenth Article of the last Treaty of Peace, and calculated to prevent Jealousies and Disputes between Our respective Subjects in the East Indies. I have ordered Copies of the several Treaties to which I have referred, and of the Declaration and Counter-Declaration exchanged at Versailles, to be laid before you.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I have ordered the Estimates for the ensuing Year to be laid before you, together with an Account of the extraordinary Expences which the Situation of Affairs rendered necessary.

I have the fullest Reliance on your Zeal and Public Spirit, that you will make due Provision for the several Branches of the Public Service. I am always desirous of confining those Expences within the narrowest Limits, which a prudent Regard for the Public Safety will permit; but I must, at the same Time, recommend to your particular Attention to consider of the proper Means for maintaining My distant Possessions in an adequate Posture of Defence.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

The flourishing State of the Commerce and Revenues of this Country cannot fail to encourage you in the Pursuit of such Measures as may confirm and improve so favorable a Situation.

These Circumstances must also render you peculiarly anxious for the Continuation of Public Tranquility, which it is My constant Object to preserve.

I am, at the same Time, persuaded you will agree with Me in thinking, that nothing can more effectually tend to secure so invaluable a Blessing, than the Zeal and Unanimity which were shewn by all Ranks of My Subjects on the late Occasion, and which manifested their Readiness to exert themselves whenever the Honour of My Crown, and the Interests of My Dominions, may require it.

Admiralty-Office, November 17, 1787.

THE King having signified to my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty His Royal Pleasure that the Frock Uniform Cloathing, at present worn by the Flag Officers of His Majesty's Fleet, and the Uniform Cloathing now worn by the Captains, Masters and Commanders, Lieutenants, and Midshipmen of His Royal Navy, shall be altered in the Manner mentioned at the Foot hereof; and also that the Uniform Cloathing hereafter described shall be worn by the Warrant Officers and Masters Mates of His Royal Navy; their Lordships do hereby give Notice thereof to all Flag Officers, Captains, Masters and Commanders, Lieutenants, Warrant Officers, Masters Mates, and Midshipmen abovementioned, and require and direct them to conform strictly thereto.

Such Officers, however, as are provided with the Uniforms in present Use, are permitted to wear the same, if they think fit, until they have Occasion to make up new Suits of Cloaths.

St. Petersburg, October 30.

On Sunday last a Messenger arrived here from Prince Potemkin, with the News of a Victory obtained over the Turks, at an Attack which they made upon Kimburn, on the Night of the 11th Instant, by a Detachment of 5000 Men, who landed near that Fortres from Otchakow; and although the Garrison was inferior in Number, upwards of 4000 Turks were killed or wounded, and the Remainder with Difficulty escaped to their Boats. The Number of slain and wounded on the Side of the Russians did not exceed Four Hundred; but several Officers lost their Lives on this Occasion, and Generals Souwarow and Reck, who had the principal Command, were dangerously wounded.

Upon the Arrival of this agreeable Intelligence, Te Deum was sung in all the Churches of this Capital, and the Cannons were fired from the Fortres.
