Dublin-Castle, December 16, 1787.

His Excellency the Marquis of Buckingham, Lord Lieutenant of this Kingdom, having embarked on Board His Majesty's Yacht the Dorset at Holyhead, Yesterday at Eight o'Clock in the Evening, arrived safely in this Bay, and landed near Dunlary at Four o'Clock this Afternoon. A Squadron of Horse was immediately dispatched thither, and attended his Excellency to this City. The Infantry of the Garrison lined the Streets, through which his Excellency passed on his Way to the Castle; and, upon his Excellency's Arrival there, he was introduced in Form to the Lords Justices, who received him, under the Canopy of State, in the Presence Chamber, from whence a Procession was made in the usual State to the Council Chamber. The Council sitting, his Commission was read, and the Oaths being administered to him, his Excellency was invested with the Collar of the Most Illustrious Order of St. Patrick, and received the Sword of State from the Lords Justices. The Great Guns in His Majesty's Phoenix Park were then fired, and answered by Volleys from the Regiments on Duty. His Excellency afterwards repaired to the Presence Chamber, and received the Compliments of the Nobility, and other Persons of Distinction, upon his safe Arrival, and taking upon him the Government of this Kingdom.

Stockholm, November 27.

On the 22d Instant his Swedish Majesty returned from his Journey to Denmark.

Yesterday being the Anniversary of the Chapter Day of the Swedish Orders, his Majesty conferred the Two vacant Blue Ribbons of the Seraphim on Count Possé, Great Chamberlain, and Baron Kurk, President of the Tribunal at Ionkooping. The King, at the same Time, created a new Class of Knights of the Order of the Seraphim, who, like the Rest, are to wear all the Badges of that Order, with this Difference only, that on Days of Ceremony, they are not to appear with the Collar. The first Knights of this new Class named by his Majesty are the Senators Baron Ridderstolpe, Baron Liliencranz, and Count Bunge.

The King has also conferred the vacant Grands Croix of the Order of the Sword on Baron de Wachmeister, Governor of the Prince Royal, and on Baron Stromfelt. The Four vacant Commanderies of the Order of the Polar Star are conferred on Senator Geer, Monf. de Schroderheim, and Monf. de Carlson, Secretaries of State, and Monf. de Kohler, Governor of Carlscron. Bishop Wingard is also admitted into that Order; and Baron Essen succeeds Count Possé, as Chief Secretary of the King's Orders.

St. Petersburg, November 27.

The Frost set in here a few Days ago, and, on Saturday last, the River Neva was covered with Ice. Twenty-four British Ships are actually frozen up in or near the Port of Cronstadt. Some of them had indeed failed a short Time before the Frost set in, but had been obliged by contrary Winds to make the best of their Way back again; which, however, from the Quantity of Ice they met with on their Return, they were unable to effect, and are at present frozen up at about Two English Miles Distance from that Port.

Dresden, December 2.

His Electoral Highness has appointed Monf. de Stutterheim, Minister for Foreign Affairs, to be at the same Time Minister of the War Department, in the Room of the late General Gerdorff.

The Emperor having prohibited the Exportation of Grain from Bohemia, and allowed the free Admittance of it from other Countries, this Government has judged it expedient to forbid, under Pain of Confiscation, and of severe corporal Punishment, the Exportation to Bohemia of all Sorts of Grain from the Circles of Misnia, of the Mountains, and of Neustadt, which are contiguous to that Country.

Munich, December 13.

Monf. de Petersen, the new Russian Envoy at this Court, has had his public Audience in that Character, in the usual Form.

Yesterday Baron d'Oberndorf was appointed President of the Finances, in the Room of Count de Seefeld.

HIS Majesty has been graciously pleased to grant Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain to Mr. Nathaniel Watts, of Stroud, in the County of Gloucester, enabling him solely to carry on a new Branch of Manufacture occasioned by his having discovered a peculiar Method of dying Woollen Cloth, or Articles composed for the most Part of Woollen, after a Form calculated for decorating that Part of Dress known by the Name of the Waistcoat or Vest.

Whitehall, December 22, 1787.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that in the Night of the 12th of December instant, between the Hours of Nine and Ten o'Clock, a Fire broke out in the Stables at Ampthill Park in the County of Bedford, the Property of the Earl of Upper Ossory, by which Part of the said Stables was burnt down and consumed, and other Parts materially damaged; that during the Continuance of the said Fire, another Part of the said Stables, (totally unconnected) appeared to be in Flames; that as soon as the abovementioned Fire and Flames began to subside, the Mansion-House at a considerable Distance was discovered to have taken Fire; and that from the above Circumstances there are strong Reasons to suspect that the said Stables and Mansion-House were maliciously and wilfully set on Fire by some Person or Persons unknown.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in this atrocious Offence, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually set Fire to the said Stables or Mansion-House,) who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said Offence.

SYDNEY.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person or Persons (except as before excepted) who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, any one or more of the Offenders, to be paid upon Conviction, by me

And the said Wardens and Commonalty do hereby give this further Notice, that the said several Bonds of the Numbers and Principal Sums abovementioned will be paid off at the Clerk's Office at Mercers Hall, on the 5th Day of July next, together with the Interest that will then be due thereon, at which Time the Interest on such Bonds will cease and determine.

Packets to and from France.

TWO new and commodious Packets for Goods and Passengers, elegantly fitted up and well manned, sail every Tuesday and Friday from Gosport (in Portsmouth Harbour) to Havre de Grace, which is the best French Harbour in the Channel, and the Sea-Port of Paris, Rouen, &c. and from Havre de Grace to Gosport every Tuesday and Saturday. These two Vessels are the Gosport and Havre Packet, Captain Wilson, Burthen 120 Tons, having two Cabins with 18 Beds, besides 6 Beds for Steerage Passengers; and the Herald, Captain Plowman, Burthen 80 Tons, accommodated with two Cabins and 16 Beds, besides those for Steerage Passengers: They are remarkable for quick Sailing, and are the only Packets that now go constantly between the English Coast and Havre de Grace.

A peculiar Advantage of Portsmouth Harbour is not only that Goods and Passengers may be embarked and disembarked at the Wharf, at all Times of the Tide; but that Vessels of any Burthen, (the Wind permitting) may go in and out with Safety at any Time; Advantages possessed by no other Port in the Channel to the Eastward of Plymouth: And if Travellers consider the Safety of the two Ports on each Side of the Channel, they will take this Passage in Preference to those exposed to the Surfs and Shallows of unsheltered Beaches. For Freight and Passage apply to Robert Forbes and Co. of Gosport, who will carefully forward every Article addressed to their Care.
