Published by Authority.

From Tuesday January 8, to Saturday January 12, 1788.

Whitehall, January 12, 1788.

THE King has been pleased to grant unto Robert Bowker, of Manchester in the County Palatine of Lancaster, Lieutenant of His Majesty's Sixtieth or Royal American Regiment of Foot, and his Issue, His Royal Licence and Authority to assume and take the Surname of Jebb, and also to bear the Arms of Jebb, (such Arms being first duly exemplified according to the Laws of Arms, and recorded in the Heralds Office,) pursuant to the Desire of his late Maternal Grandfather, Robert Jebb, of Manchester aforesaid, Gentleman, deceased; and also to order that this His Majesty's Concession and Declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, January 11, 1788.

SUCH Ladies as desire to dance Minuets at the Ball which is to be at St. James's on Friday next the 18th Instant, are requested to send their Names and Rank, in Writing, to this Office, on or before Wednesday next the 16th Instant, and to send for their Tickets the next Day (Thursday) between the Hours of Ten in the Morning and Two in the Afternoon.

N. B. No Attendance will be given at this Office, on the Day of the Ball, after Two o'Clock.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, January 11, 1788.

TO prevent the Inconveniencies which have arisen from the Space before Their Majesties, which is allotted for Minuet Dancing, being exceedingly crowded, it is requested, that those Ladies only who mean to dance will send for Dancers Tickets, and sit in those Places, as the Seats have been found too few to accommodate the Dancers.

Stockholm, December 11.

The new Class of Knights of the Order of the Seraphim, lately created here, is not to exceed Three in Number. They are to have the Inspection and entire Management of the Hospitals, and in some Manner to act as Deputies of the Order, to whom the Superintendency of all the charitable Foundations belongs. Count Bunge, whom the King had designed to be one of the Knights of this new Class, has since, on Account of his Age, declined that Honour, and Count Duben has been named in his Room.

Caserta, December 18.

Mount Vesuvius has been exceedingly turbulent for these Three Days past: The Reports of it's frequent Explosions are distinctly heard here, though at the Distance of Fifteen Miles; and there is every Symptom of a more considerable Eruption than usual being near at Hand.

Office for Auditing the Public Accounts,
Somerset Place, January 8, 1788.

WHEREAS divers Persons, to whom Money has been issued for Public Services, have neglected to deliver into this Office the Vouchers for the Expenditure thereof, together with an Account Current, in the Manner, and within the Time prescribed by the Act for better examining and Auditing the Public Accounts of this Kingdom, the Commissioners for Auditing the Public Accounts have directed that Copies of the following Sections of the said Act be inserted in the London Gazette, in order that all Persons to whom Public Money has been, or shall be, so issued, may be informed of the Consequences of such Neglect.

Philip Deare,
John Wigglesworth,
Inspectors-General of Accounts.

SECTION XVII. And whereas great Losses and Inconveniencies have arisen to the Public, by Sub-Accountants not having been put in Charge till a long Time has elapsed after the Monies were issued to them, be it enacted; That the Paymaster-General of His Majesty's Forces, the Treasurer of the Navy, the Treasurer of the Ordnance, and every other Public Officer who shall hereafter pay into the Hands of any Person or Persons whomsoever, Money for Public Services, by Way of Imprest or on Account, shall, within Thirty Days of the 31st Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, and within Thirty Days of the 31st Day of December in every future Year, transmit an Account of all Sums of Money issued or paid by him or them to any Person or Persons, for the Public Service, within the preceding Year, to the Commissioners to be appointed under the Authority of this Act; who shall, and they are hereby required forthwith to transmit Duplicates of the same to His Majesty's Remembrancer in the Court of Exchequer, who shall immediately, on Receipt

Receipt of such Accounts, put the several Sums so issued in Charge against the Parties, in like Manner as now practised with respect to Persons who receive Money by Way of Imprest, and on Account, at the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer.

SECTION XVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Accountant shall be allowed in his Account any Sum which he shall issue or pay over to any Sub-Accountants, unless he shall have transmitted to the said Commissioners regular Accounts thereof, in the Manner and within the Times abovementioned; unless Proof shall be produced, to the Satisfaction of the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of the Treasury, that any Failure of transmitting the same did not happen from the wilful Neglect of the Person issuing or paying over the Money as aforesaid.

SECTION XX. And be it further enacted and declared, That every Sub-Accountant to whom Money shall hereafter be issued for Public Services, in case the Money so issued shall have been for Services to be performed in Great Britain, shall deliver into the Office of the Commissioners to be appointed by virtue of this Act, the Vouchers for the Expenditure thereof, together with an Account Current, within Three Months of the End of each Year from the Commencement of his Account, unless it has been usual for such Account to be made up to any fixed Period in the Year; in which Case they shall be delivered within Three Months of the usual annual Time of the Determination of each Account respectively; and in case such Monies shall have been issued for Services to be performed in any Part of Europe out of this Kingdom, then the Vouchers shall be delivered within Four Months of the Expiration of each Year's Accounts, if in the West Indies, the Continent of America, or in Africa, within Six Months after the Expiration of each Year's Accounts; and if in the East Indies, within Twelve Months after the Expiration of each Year's Accounts; unless it shall in each and every Case be made appear to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of the Treasury, that the Failure of transmitting the same, within the Periods beforementioned, was unavoidable; in which Case such further Delay may be granted by Warrant under the Hands of the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three of them, as they shall judge reasonable; and in such Cases the Vouchers shall be delivered at the Expiration of the Term of Delay so granted, on Pain, upon Failure in any of the abovementioned Cases, of paying such Fine to His Majesty as the Court of Exchequer, on Application made to them, shall think fit to set and impose; which Fine the said Court is hereby authorized and empowered to set and impose accordingly.

SECTION XXII. Provided always, and be it enacted, that when any Sub-Accountant or Sub-Accountants shall transmit to the Commissioners, to be appointed under the Authority of this Act, a sufficient and satisfactory Discharge from the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, the Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy, or the Commissioners for Sick and Hurt, for any Monies he or they shall have received in the said Departments severally, the said Commissioners shall transmit a Duplicate of the same to His Majesty's Remembrancer in the Court of Exchequer, who shall forthwith strike out the Name or Names of such Sub-Accountant or Sub-Accountants from the Imprest Roll; and such Sub-Accountant or Sub-Accountants shall from thenceforth be discharged from any other or further Account for the same.

Whitehall, January 4, 1788.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that, on Wednesday the 19th Day of December last, a Barn belonging to the Reverend John Savage, situate at Tetbury, in the County of Gloucester, was wilfully and maliciously set on Fire by some wilful Person or Persons unknown, whereby the same was in Part consumed, together with a Quantity of Wood, Straw, and other Effects therein:

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in setting Fire to the said Barn as above mentioned, is hereby please to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually set Fire thereto) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SYDNEY.

And, as a further Encouragement, the said Mr. Savage doth hereby promise a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS, and the Principal Inhabitants of Tetbury aforesaid do hereby promise the further Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, (to be paid by the Bailiff of the said Town) to any Person making such Discovery as above mentioned, (except as is before excepted) to be respectively paid upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

Whitehall, December 22, 1787.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that in the Night of the 12th of December instant, between the Hours of Nine and Ten o'Clock, a Fire broke out in the Stables at Ampthill Park in the County of Bedford, the Property of the Earl of Upper Ossory, by which Part of the said Stables was burnt down and consumed, and other Parts materially damaged; that during the Continuance of the said Fire, another Part of the said Stables, (totally unconnected) appeared to be in Flames; that as soon as the abovementioned Fire and Flames began to subside, the Mansion-House at a considerable Distance was discovered to have taken Fire; and that from the above Circumstances there are strong Reasons to suspect that the said Stables and Mansion-House were maliciously and wilfully set on Fire by some Person or Persons unknown.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in this atrocious Offence, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually set Fire to the said Stables or Mansion-House,) who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said Offence.

SYDNEY.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person or Persons (except as before excepted) who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, any one or more of the Offenders, to be paid upon Conviction, by me

UPPER OSSORY.
