

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday January 19, to Tuesday January 22, 1788.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 16th of January, 1788,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this Day read at the Board, the humble Memorial of Sir George Baker, Baronet, Physician to Their Majesties, and President of the College or Commonalty of the Faculty of Physic in London, setting forth, that the said President and College have, with great Care, Pains and Industry, revised, corrected and reformed a Book by them formerly published, intituled, Pharmacopoeia Collegii Regalis Medicorum Londinensis, prescribing and directing the Manner of preparing all Sorts of Medicines therein contained, together with the true Weights and Measures by which they ought to be made, which Book is now perfected and ready to be published, and it is conceived will contribute to the public Good of His Majesty's Subjects, by preventing all Deceits, Differences and Uncertainties in making or compounding of Medicines, if, for the future, the Manner and Form prescribed therein should be practised by Apothecaries, and others, in their Compositions of Medicines: The Memorialist therefore most humbly prays, that His Majesty will be graciously pleased to enforce the Observance thereof, in such Manner as to His Majesty shall seem meet:— His Majesty this Day took the said Memorial into His Royal Consideration, and being desirous to provide in all Cases for the common Good of His People, and being persuaded that the establishing the general Use of the said Book may tend to the Prevention of such Deceits in the making and compounding Medicines, wherein the Lives and Health of His Majesty's Subjects are so highly concerned, hath therefore thought fit, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby to notify to all Apothecaries and others concerned, to the Intent they may not pretend Ignorance thereof, that the said Book called Pharmacopoeia Collegii Regalis Medicorum Londinensis, is perfected and ready to be published; And His Majesty doth therefore strictly require, charge and command, all and singular Apothecaries, and others whose Business it is to compound Medicines, or distil Oils or Waters, or make other Extracts, within any Part of His Majesty's Kingdom of Great Britain called England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, that they, and every of them, immediately after the said Pharmacopoeia Collegii Regalis Medicorum Londinensis shall be printed and published, do not compound or make any Medicine or Medicinable Receipt or Prescription, or distil any Oil or Waters, or make other Extracts that are or shall be in the said Pharmacopoeia Collegii Regalis Medicorum Londinensis mentioned, or named, in any other Manner or Form than is or shall be directed, prescribed and set down by the said Book, and according to the Weights and Measures that are or shall be therein limited, except it shall be by the special Direction or Prescription of some learned Physician in that Behalf:— And His Majesty doth hereby declare, that the Offenders to the contrary shall not only incur His Majesty's just Displeasure, but be proceeded against for such their Contempt and Offences, according to the utmost Severity of the Law.

Dublin-Castle, January 17, 1788.

THIS Day the Parliament having met, his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant went in State to the House of Peers, and being seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, Scroope Bernard, Esq; Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a Message from his Excellency to the House of Commons, signifying his Pleasure that they should immediately attend his Excellency in the House of Peers; and the Commons being come thither accordingly, his Excellency was pleased to open the Sessions with the following Speech from the Throne:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

HIS Majesty having been pleased again to call me to the Government of Ireland, I have received His Royal Commands to meet you in Parliament.

At the same Time that I feel myself highly flattered by this repeated Mark of His Majesty's Confidence, I must lament with you the heavy Loss which His Service has sustained by the Death of the Duke of Rutland, whose public and private Virtues had so deservedly conciliated the Esteem and Affections of this Kingdom.

His Majesty is persuaded that you will share the Satisfaction which He feels in the present Situation of Foreign Affairs; and particularly in the Restoration of the Constitution and Tranquillity of the United Provinces, favored by the seasonable and vigorous Exertions which were made by His Majesty, and by the brilliant Success of the Prussian Troops, under the Conduct of his Serene Highness the Duke of Brunswick. The Measures which His Majesty has adopted on this Occasion, have been productive of Advantages, which, while they have added to the Lustre of His Crown, have materially promoted the essential Interests of His Dominions.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I have ordered the National Accounts and the necessary Estimates to be prepared and laid before you; and, with the fullest Confidence in your Zeal and Loyalty, I obey His Majesty's Commands in recommending to you to provide for the Public Service.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

My former Experience of the affectionate Attachment which His Majesty's Subjects of Ireland have borne to His Person and Government, and the very particular Interest which I must feel in your Welfare, will never fail to animate my Endeavors in pursuit of every Object which may promote His Majesty's paternal Wishes for the Happiness of this Kingdom. With this View, I must more especially direct your Attention to the Support of that great Staple of your Commerce, the Linen Manufacture, to the Protection and Regulation of the Protestant Charter-Schools, to the Security of the Church of Ireland, and to those Principles, which your Wisdom and Humanity have already pointed out for the Advancement of Education and of useful Knowledge.

I have seen, with particular Satisfaction, your rising Prosperity, and the rapid Increase of your Commerce and Manufactures; and I shall be anxious to co-operate with you in improving the Advantages which the Credit of the Country must derive from the Blessings of Peace: But while you are sensible of the Value of these Blessings, I am persuaded that you feel the warmest Concern for the Honor of His Majesty's Crown, and for the general Interests of the Empire; and that there is no Part of His Dominions from which His Majesty would have received a warmer or more zealous Support, if He had judged it necessary to call forth into Action the Spirit and Resources of His People.

IRISH LIFE ANNUITIES,

With Benefit of Survivorship.

THE Subscribers to the Life Annuities, which commenced the 25th of March, 1778, according to a Resolution of the House of Commons of Ireland, Session 1777, and provided for by an Act of Parliament Session 1779, who are to be paid in London, may receive Six Months Annuity, due at Christmas last, at Messrs. Boldero, Adey, Lushington and Boldero, Bankers, No. 30, Cornhill, in the following Manner, viz.

The first Class in each (consisting of Nominees of the Age of Forty Years, and upwards) from the 29th instant to the 1st of February, both Days inclusive, from Ten in the Forenoon, until Two in the Afternoon.

The second Class in each (consisting of Nominees of the Age of Twenty Years, and upwards, but under Forty) from the 5th of February to the 8th ditto, both Days inclusive.

The third Class in each (consisting of Nominees under the Age of Twenty Years) from the 12th of February to the 15th ditto, both Days inclusive, and from the 19th ditto to the 22d ditto, both Days inclusive.

Those of each Class remainin unpaid will be paid every Tuesday and Thursday following, during the same Hours.

The Debentures to be produced, and a Certificate of the Life of the Nominee, otherwise a personal Appearance will be required; and it is particularly requested, upon the Demise of a Nominee, that the Debentures may be delivered in as above, to be transmitted to Ireland, to render the Lists of Deaths complete, for the future Benefit and Regulation of each Class; and as the earliest Information should be obtained of the Occurrences which affect a Reversionary Property, wherein so many Individuals are concerned, it is further requested of any Person, who may discover any Fraud or Imposition on these Annuities, to give Notice thereof, with all convenient Speed, to the Deputy Vice-Treasurer, Treasury Chamber, Dublin, or to Messrs. Boldero, Adey, Lushington and Boldero.

The Publick are requested to attend on the Days allotted for the Payment of the different Classes, and to take Notice, that in case any Person, who, by the Intent of the Act of Parliament providing for the Payment of these Annuities, shall neglect to demand the same for the Space of Three Years from the Receipt of their last Dividend, he or she shall for ever lose and forfeit the same, as if his or her respective Nominee had been dead at the Commencement of the said Three Years.

PUrsuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, dated the 25th Day of June 1787, made in a Cause Nicolls against Sheffield, the Creditors of the Rev.
