ERRATUM in last Saturday's Gazette. In the Oxford Circuit for Gloucestershire, Monday March 26, at Gloucester, read Gloucestershire, Wednesday March 26, at Gloucester.

Whitehall, February 16, 1788.

WHEREAS on the 31st of January last, a Boat belonging to His Majesty's Ship the Druid, commanded by Captain Ellison, fell in with and took, in Cawsand Bay within the Limits of the Port of Plymouth, a Smuggling Luggier called the Revenge, belonging to Guernsey, whereof Henry Carter was Master, with a Cargo of Spirituous Liquors in Ankers, and other prohibited Goods, but that previous to the Boat's boarding the Luggier, she was fired into by the Smugglers, whereupon an Action commenced, and in the Course of it One of the Druid's Crew was killed and seven others wounded; after which the Master and Ten of the Crew belonging to the said Luggier made their Escape.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in this Outrage and Murder, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of the said Offenders (except the Master of the said Luggier) who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so that any Two or more of those, who so made their Escape as aforesaid, may be apprehended and convicted.

S Y D N E Y.

Custom-House, London, February 16, 1788.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs do hereby promise a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person who will discover any Two or more of the said Offenders; who so made their Escape as aforesaid, to be paid by the Receiver-General of the Customs upon their Conviction:

And if any one of the said Offenders, (the Master of the said Luggier only excepted) shall, within Three Months from the Date hereof, discover his Accomplices, so that Two of them at least be apprehended and convicted of the said Offence, the Offender making such Discovery shall be entitled to the like Reward.

By Order of the Commissioners,
 W. Stiles, Secretary.
