And to Five Private Bills.

His Excellency was then pleased to make the following Speech :

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

THE very constant and zealous Attention which you have given to the Dispatch of Public Business enables me, at this early Period of the Year, to close the Session of Parliament : And I feel the highest Gratification in expressing to you His Majesty's entire Satisfaction in the Temper and Wisdom which have uniformly distinguished your Deliberations.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I am commanded by His Majesty particularly to thank you for the warm Attention which you have shewn to the Honor and Interest of His Crown, and for the Liberality with which you have provided for the several Branches of the Public Service.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

No Object is nearer to His Majesty's Heart than the Prosperity of His faithful Subjects of Ireland. And I reflect with Pleasure, that your Example and Influence in your several Counties cannot fail to advance that Prosperity, by encouraging Habits of Industry in the People, and impressing upon their Minds a due Respect for the Laws. I am happy that the National Tranquillity and Security enable you to attend to those important Objects with peculiar Advantage.

I trust that it is unnecessary to repeat my Acknowledgments for the Confidence which you have so kindly reposed in me, and to assure you that the liveliest Emotions of Gratitude and Affection will excite my utmost Exertions for the Welfare and Happiness of this Kingdom

After which the Lord Chancellor, by his Excellency's Command, said :

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

IT is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleasure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Tuesday the 17th Day of June next, to be then here holden : And this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Tuesday the 17th Day of June next.

General Post-Office, March 29, 1788.

IN Compliance with the unanimous Request of a Meeting of West India Merchants in the City of London, the following Alteration will be made in the Plan which has been recently adopted for dispatching the Packets to the West Indies, and will be carried into Effect till further Notice.

A Mail will be made up at this Office on the first Wednesday of every Month for Jamaica, and also for the Leeward Islands, with which a Packet will be dispatched immediately from Falmouth to touch at Barbadoes on her Outward Bound Passage, and leave there the Letters for all the Leeward Islands, and then proceed directly to Jamaica, from whence she is to return, after staying Fourteen Days, and no more, by the Windward Passage to England.

Another Mail will be made up for the Leeward Islands on the Third Wednesday in every Month, with which a Packet will proceed, first to Barbadoes, and from thence to St. Vincent's, Grenada, Dominica, Antigua, Montserrat, Nevis, St. Kitt's and Tortola, and, after having staid no longer than Forty-eight Hours at Barbadoes, St. Vincent's, Grenada, Dominica, Antigua and St. Kitt's, and Twenty-four Hours at each of the other Islands, she is to return directly to England with the Letters she may have collected for Great Britain and Ireland.

All Letters for the Leeward Islands, which may be sent by the Jamaica Packet on the first Wednesday in every Month, will be conveyed from Barbadoes, either by the Government Vessels of the respective Islands, or by a Brig to be specially employed for that Purpose, in order that the Answers may be prepared against the Arrival of the Leeward Island Packet from hence of the Third Wednesday in every Month.

From the First Wednesday in March to the First Wednesday in October inclusive, each Packet going to New York is to touch at Halifax, and stay there two Days and no longer, in her Way to New York; and each Packet coming from New York in the same Months is to touch at Halifax, and stay there two Days, and no longer, in her Way to England.

By Command of the Postmaster-General,

Auth. Todd, Sec.
