His Excellency was then pleased to make the following Speech:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

THE very constant and zealous Attention which you have given to the Dispatch of Public Business enables me, at this early Period of the Year, to close the Session of Parliament: And I feel the highest Gratification in expressing to you His Majesty's entire Satisfaction in the Temper and Wisdom which have uniformly distinguished your Deliberations.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I am commanded by His Majesty particularly to thank you for the warm Attention which you have shewn to the Honor and Interest of His Crown, and for the Liberality with which you have provided for the several Branches of the Public Service.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

No Object is nearer to His Majesty's Heart than the Prosperity of His faithful Subjects of Ireland. And I reflect with Pleasure, that your Example and Influence in your several Counties cannot fail to advance that Prosperity, by encouraging Habits of Industry in the People, and impressing upon their Minds a due Respect for the Laws. I am happy that the National Tranquillity and Security enable you to attend to those important Objects with peculiar Advantage.

I trust that it is unnecessary to repeat my Acknowledgments for the Confidence which you have so kindly reposed in me, and to assure you that the liveliest Emotions of Gratitude and Affection will excite my utmost Exertions for the Welfare and Happiness of this Kingdom.

After which the Lord Chancellor, by his Excellency's Command, said:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

IT is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleasure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Tuesday the 17th Day of June next, to be then here holden: And this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Tuesday the 17th Day of June next.
