His Royal Highness the Duke of York, First and Principal Knight Companion, as Great Master, in the full Habit of the Order, covered.

Twelve Yeomen of the Guards closed the Procession.

The Staff-Men entered the Chapel, and passed Three on each Side of King Henry the Seventh's Tomb to the Recesses under the East Windows.

The Drums, Kettle-Drums and Trumpets divided at the Gate of the Chapel, and formed a Passage on the Outside.

The Alms-Men entered the Chapel, and having made joint Reverences, first to the Altar, and then to the Sovereign's Stall, passed Six on each Side of King Henry the Seventh's Tomb, to the Recesses of the Windows.

The Messenger, with like Reverences, placed himself between the Altar and the Stall of the Junior Knight.

The Esquires made like Reverences together in the Middle of the Choir, and stood before their respective Seats.

The Prebendaries, after like Reverences, placed themselves on Benches on each Side of the Altar.

The Sub-Dean, with like Reverences, went within the Rails of the Altar.

The Officers of Arms made like Reverences together in the Middle of the Choir, and stood near the Foot of the Prince's Stall.

The Band of Music now began to play.

The Knights Elect, and Knights Companions, made their double Reverences singly or in Pairs, according to the Order observed in the Procession, and retired under their respective Banners, the Knights Companions being covered.

The Register and Secretary, and the Usher, made their double Reverences in the Middle of the Choir, and stood before their Bench at the Foot of the Sovereign's Stall.

Deputy Garter, the Genealogist, and Deputy Bath did the same, and stood before their Bench.

The Dean did the same, and stood before his Chair, at the Foot of the Sovereign's Stall.

His Royal Highness the Duke of York, as Great Master, having made his double Reverences, stood under his Banner covered, and the Anthem began.

The Doors of the Chapel were then closed, and the Yeomen remained on the Outside.

The Anthem being ended, Deputy Bath King of Arms made his double Reverences in the Middle of the Choir, and then bowed to his Royal Highness the Duke of York, who thereupon made his double Reverences under his Banner, ascended into his Stall, repeated his Reverences, and sat down covered.

Deputy Bath then bowed to Sir Joseph Yorke, (singly, his Companion not being present) who thereupon made his double Reverences, ascended into his Stall, repeated his Reverences, and sat down covered.

Deputy Bath then bowed to Sir George Pocock and Lord Amherst, Companions, who made their double Reverences, ascended their Stalls, repeated their Reverences, and sat down covered.

In this Manner all the other Knights Companions took their Stalls, except the Two Juniors, Sir William Howe and Sir Edward Hughes, who remained under their Banners to offer the Achievements of the deceased Knights.

The Knights Elect also remained under their Banners.

Then the two Provincial Kings of Arms, making the usual Reverences, repaired to Deputy Bath, who taking up the Banner of the late Earl of Breadalbane, Senior deceased Knight, and bowing to the Two Junior Knights Companions, they came forward, made their double Reverences, received the Banner from Deputy Bath, and being accompanied by the Two Provincial Kings of Arms, carried it with the Point forward to the Altar, where with one Reverence they delivered it to the Prebendaries, and then with double Reverences returned to Deputy Bath:—The Organ and other Instruments accompanying this Part of the Ceremony with the Dead March in the Oratorio of Saul.

The Banners of all the other deceased Knights, viz. Sir Henry Calthorpe, Lord Hawke, Sir John Mordaunt, the Right Hon. Sir Edward Walpole, Sir Charles Frederick, Sir William Draper, Sir Horace Mann, Bart. Sir Eyre Coote, the Right Hon. Sir William Lynch, and Sir James Adolphus Oughton, were offered in like Manner by the Two Junior Knights Companions, preceded by Two Heralds, the Music accompanying throughout; which being done, they ascended into their Stalls, making the usual Reverences, and sat down covered.

Then Deputy Bath bowed to Lord Rodney, Senior Knight Elect, who thereupon made his double Reverences, ascended into his Stall, and stood therein, with his Hat and Feather in his Hand.

In like Manner all the other Knights Elect, either singly or as Companions, ascended their Stalls.

Then Deputy Bath, carrying the Book of the Statutes, and the Great Collar of the Order on a Cushion, having on his Left Hand the Usher, and being followed by the Dean, proceeded to the Middle of the Choir, where they made their Reverences together.

His Royal Highness the Duke of York, as Great Master, then made his double Reverences, descended from his Stall, and being followed by the Dean, proceeded to the Stall of Lord Rodney, where receiving the Book of the Statutes from Deputy Bath, his Royal Highness presented it to the Knight, and the Dean administered the Oath. Then the Collar being delivered to his Royal Highness, he invested the Knight therewith, put the Hat and Feathers on his Head, and placed him in his Seat, who thereupon rising up, and making his Reverences, his Royal Highness gave him the Accolade, and then returned with Deputy Bath, the Usher and the Dean, to the Middle of the Choir, the Knight sitting down covered.

All the other Knights, and the Proxy, having been installed in like Manner, (except that the Proxy was not invested with the Collar, nor covered with the Hat and Feathers) his Royal Highness returned to his Stall, where making his Reverences, he sat down covered.

The Officers then returned to their Seats, and the Sanctus being sung, the Dean was conducted to the Altar by the Usher. During Divine Service the Knights put their Hats and Feathers on the Cushions before them.

Upon the Sentence of the Offertory, "Let your Light so shine, &c." being read, Deputy Bath proceeded to the Middle of the Choir, and made his double Reverences; then bowing to Sir Alexander Hood and Sir George Yonge, they put on their Hats and Feathers, and making their double Reverences together, descended into the Middle of the Choir, repeated their Reverences, and withdrew under their Banners.

In like Manner all the Knights, and the Proxy, were summoned, descended from their Stalls, and stood under their Banners, and Deputy Bath returned to his Bench.

The Two Provincial Kings of Arms then making their Reverences, waited on his Royal Highness the Duke of York, who, going from under his Banner, made a Reverence towards the Altar, (but not to the Sovereign's Stall) and another Reverence at the Altar, where, taking off his Hat and kneeling down, he made his Offering of Gold and Silver; then rising up and putting on his Hat, he returned, making his double Reverences as he passed to his Stall, wherein he repeated the like Reverences, and sat down, placing his Hat on the Cushion before him.

The Rest of the Knights, including the Proxy, Seniors first, singly or with their Companions, were in like Manner conducted to the Altar by the Heralds, and, after making their Offerings, returned with the like Reverences to their Stalls.

Divine Service being ended, the Knights put on their Hats and Feathers, but the Proxy remained uncovered, and Deputy Bath summoned them as before under their Banners; and the Knights and Proxy then then installed, singly or with their Companions, were conducted by Two Heralds to the Altar, as at the first Offering, where each Knight standing and drawing his Sword, presented it to the Dean, who received it, and laid it on the Altar. The Knight then redeemed it of the Dean, who restored it with the proper Admonition, according to the Oath; which done, they returned under their Banners.

Mr. Handel's Coronation Anthem, GOD SAVE THE KING, being sung, and the Ceremony concluded, a Procession was made back to the Prince's Chamber in the same Order it came from thence, except that the Sub-Dean and Prebendaries retired to the Jerusalem Chamber from the Abbey-Door, and the Esquires, the Officers of Arms, and the Officers of the Order, when they came out of the Church, were covered.

Within the Door of the Abbey, the King's Master Cook made the usual Admonition to each Companion.

At the Door of the Prince's Chamber, a Person was appointed by Bath King of Arms to receive the Mantle from the Proxy.

GIFFORD's New History of England, in Folio,

With elegant Engravings, from original Designs.

On Saturday next, the 31st of May, will be published, Price 6d.

NUMBER I.

[To be continued Weekly, till completed in Two handsome Volumes, enriched and embellished with large Historical Engravings and beautiful Copper-Plate Head-Pieces, containing Portraits of the British Sovereigns, &c. &c.] of

THE HISTORY OF ENGLAND, from the EARLIEST TIMES, to the PEACE of 1783.

By JOHN GIFFORD, Esq;

* * This new and comprehensive History is meant to be comprized in One Hundred and Twenty Numbers, printed on Superfine Crown Paper, with Types of peculiar Beauty, cast on Purpose by William Caslon, Esq; Letter-Founder to His Majesty.

The Prints, which are intended, at once, to ornament and illustrate the Work, will be wholly engraved by Mr. Milton and Mr. Anker Smith, from original Drawings by Mr. Smirke; so that a pleasing and beautiful Uniformity may be expected in the Execution of the various Embellishments.

The Impressions of the Plates are to be all printed on the finest Colambier Paper; and will perhaps form the only complete Series of respectable Engravings from the British History, ever yet published.

The Historical Engravings will be given in every other Number; the Head-Pieces and Portraits at the Commencement of the respective Reigns.

In the Hands of most other Publishers of any Repute, a Work of such Splendor and Consequence would probably have been announced at a very extravagant Price; but Mess. Harrison and Co. having been happy enough to secure the Approbation of the Public, by uniting Cheapness with Elegance, in their other various Publications, are only studious to preserve the flattering Distinction by the same honorable Means as it was originally obtained.
