Published by Authority.

From Saturday May 24, to Tuesday May 27, 1788.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, May 27, 1788.

SUCH Ladies as desire to dance Minuets at the Ball which is to be at St. James's on Wednesday the 4th of June next, are requested to send their Names and Rank, in Writing, to this Office, on or before Monday the 2d of June, and to send for their Tickets the next Day (Tuesday) between the Hours of Ten in the Morning and Two in the Afternoon.

N. B. No Attendance will be given at this Office, on the Day of the Ball, after Two o'Clock.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, May 27, 1788.

TO prevent the Inconveniencies which have arisen from the Space before Their Majesties, which is allotted for Minuet Dancings, being exceedingly crowded, it is requested, that those Ladies only who mean to dance will send for Dancers Tickets, and sit in those Places, as the Seats have been found too few to accommodate the Dancers.

Commissions in the Eastern Regiment of the Essex Militia, signed by the Lord Lieutenant.

Captain-Lieutenant John Sperling to be Captain of a Company, vice Captain Whaley, who resigns. Dated May 24, 1788.

Lieutenant Mark Ant. Barwick to be Captain-Lieutenant, vice Captain Sperling, promoted. Dated as above.

Petersburgh, May 2.

This being the Anniversary of her Imperial Majesty's Birth-Day, and the Name's Day of her Imperial Highness the Great Dutchess, it was celebrated at Court in grand Gala, and in the Evening there will be a Ball.

Vienna, May 10.

In the subsequent Accounts received from Prince Lichtenstein, of the late Attempt to storm Dubicza, he bestows great Commendations on the Bravery and Ardour of the Austrian Troops, declaring, that had not Major-General Schlaun, on whom the Command of that Detachment devolved upon Major-General Khun's being wounded, been mortally wounded himself, he would certainly have forced his Way into the Town.

In the general Action, which followed this unsuccessful Attempt, the Turks advanced so near the Bayonets of the Austrians as to be able to reach them with their Spears. Neither Side seemed inclined to give Way, till the Arrival of Major Schubirfch, with a Squadron of the Kincky Light Horse, when the Turks were totally routed.

The Loss of the Austrians in these Actions amounted to two Lieutenant-Colonels, one Captain, 117 Non-commissioned Officers and Privates, and 67 Horses, killed; and three Lieutenant-Colonels, two Captains, four Lieutenants, 391 Non-commissioned Officers and Privates, and 67 Horses, wounded. Ten Privates were missing, and two Pieces of Cannon were taken by the Turks during the Attack.

The Loss of the Turks is computed at upwards of 900 Men killed, and the Austrians took one Turkish Standard.

Advices from Lieutenant-General Fabricius, who commands the Army in Transilvania, mention, that on the 20th, 26th and 27th of April, several Bodies of Turks, amounting together to 2500 Men, attacked different Parties of the Austrian Troops, posted in the Neighbourhood of Terzbouurg; but finding they could gain no Advantage, they retreated, leaving 46 Men killed, whilst the Austrians had only two Men slightly wounded.

Frequent Skirmishes also happen between the Austrian Volunteers posted at Grozka, in the Bannat, and the Turks, in one of which the former lately made twelve Prisoners, and took a Standard.

Vienna, May 14.

The Letters from Semlin of the 7th Instant give no certain Information of the Austrian Army having passed the Save; nor has any Account been yet received
