On Sunday last the new-born Princess was christened at the Empress's Chapel at Czarsko-Zelo by the Name of Catherine; and after the Ceremony invested by her Imperial Majesty with the Ensigns of the Order of St. Catherine. The Empress has also conferred on Count Soltikow, Governor to their Imperial Highnesses the Young Great Dukes, the Order of the First Class of St. Volodimer, and has distinguished several other Persons, both in the Civil and Military Line, with particular Marks of Honour.

By Letters from Field Marshal Count Wartenleben, of the 4th Infant, it appears that a Detachment of his Army had intercepted a Turkish Convoy of Provisions intended for Belgrade, and destroyed what they could not carry off.

The last Accounts from Semlin contain nothing interesting.

Turin, June 7.

The Vicomte de la Herreria, late Spanish Ambassador at this Court, has presented his Letters of Recall, and is succeeded by the Count de Guemes, who has presented his Credentials in the same Character.

Vienna, June 14.

Advices of the 3d Instant from Prince Lichtenstein mention that a Body of Turks, consisting of 3000 Men, Horse and Foot, in Three Divisions, made an Attempt on the Austrian Lines, extending from the Right Side of the Glina to the Redoubt of Szaro Szello. As soon as the advanced Posts perceived the Enemy marching in superior Force, they gave the Alarm, and retired under the Fort, the Fire of which soon obliged the Turks to disperse. A Party then attempted to pass the Glina, and attacked the Austrians posted at the Bridge at Katinovacz, but met with so vigorous a Resistance, that after returning Three Times to the Assault, they were repulsed with Loss. This Party afterwards rejoined the main Body, and returned to the Charge in greater Numbers, but with no better Effect, finding a braver Resistance from a Detachment of the Regiment of Szuiper, under the Command of Major Knesevich, and from a Company of the First Regiment of the Frontiers, who at length put the Turks to Flight, and pursued them into their own Lines.

The Enemy left behind them 34 dead, with the Standard-Bearer, and several Horses. They threw about 40 Men into the River, and carried with them besides a considerable Number of killed and wounded. Our Loss amounts to Two Officers and 40 Men killed, and Four wounded.
