

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday August 16, to Tuesday August 19, 1788.

Windfor, August 18.

THEIR Majesties, and their Royal Highnesses the Princess Royal, Princess Augusta and Princess Elizabeth, set out from Cheltenham at Eight o'Clock on Saturday Morning last, the Nobility, Gentry and Inhabitants of that Place and its Neighbourhood being assembled there, to testify their Respect on the Occasion. At Half an Hour after One Their Majesties and the Princesses alighted at the Earl Harcourt's at Nuneham, where they remained till near Six o'Clock in the Evening, and at Half an Hour after Nine arrived in perfect Health at this Royal Residence, where they were received with every possible Demonstration of Joy, by all Ranks of People.

Dublin Castle, August 13, 1788.

Yesterday being the Anniversary of the Birth of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, the Flag was displayed on Bedford Tower, the Great Guns at the Salute Battery in His Majesty's Park the Phoenix were fired three Rounds, and answered by Volleys from the Regiments in Garrison, which were drawn up in the Royal Square at the Barracks; and at Night there were Bonfires, and other Demonstrations of Joy throughout the City.

Vienna, August 6.

On Saturday last Marshal Laudohn received his Imperial Majesty's Orders to prepare to take on him the Command of the Army in Croatia.

Intelligence is received from the Army in Transylvania, that on the 17th of July last, Colonel Schultz, of Szeklers Hussars, who occupied the Pass of Bozza, being informed that a Corps of the Enemy, to the Number of 10,000 Men, with Artillery, were in Motion on the Side of Valeny, towards Konigsberg, he went to reconnoitre them, when he found that they had already pushed their advanced Posts to Lobkowitz-Schantz, and that about 6000 Horse and 2000 Foot were encamped with their Right Wing extending to the Mountains of Tattaz, whilst their Left was covered by the Forest situated within the Austrian Frontier, which determined Colonel

Schultz to distribute his Corps at the several Forts on the Line, and to pass the Night under Arms.

The next Morning Advice was received of the Enemy having begun to entrench themselves near Lobkowitz-Schantz; and at the same Moment their Detachments were seen advancing along the Mountains in such great Numbers that the Austrian advanced Guard were forced to retire on all Sides to the main Army.

About Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, the Enemy's Van approached the Front of the Austrians, whilst another Turkish Detachment filed off towards the Forest, and the greatest Part of the Cavalry dismounted, and fixed Fifty-one Standards in the Ground.

The Fire of the Artillery and Musquetry having continued for some Time on both Sides, a Party of the Austrian Cavalry at length put the Turkish Infantry to Flight. But the Enemy being continually reinforced from a Corps de Reserve which they had left in their Rear, they renewed the Attack with the greatest Fury, which lasted the whole Night.

In the Morning of the 19th Colonel Schultz, being reinforced by a Squadron of the Hussars of Leopold-Tuscany, under the Command of Count Willhorski, the Turks were totally defeated, compelled to abandon their Camp, and to retreat to Valeny, a violent Storm, and the Approach of Night, preventing the Austrians from pursuing them.

The Loss of the Austrians in this Action was 6 Men killed and 32 wounded; whilst that of the Turks amounted to 103 Men left dead on the Field, 5 taken and 27 Horses killed. They had sent away the preceding Day 76 Men killed, and carried away with them 19 Waggons filled with the dead, and about 300 wounded; so that their whole Loss may be computed at 400 killed and 300 wounded.

By the last Accounts from Chotzym we learn, that the Provisions in that Fortress having been entirely destroyed by the Fire from the Batteries, the Prince de Cobourg and General Soltikow, on the 26th of July summoned the Place to surrender; but the Garrison having desired a Delay of Three Days for Deliberation, and a Suspension of Hostilities, their Request was complied with.