WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that on Wednesday the 20th Day of August instant, an anonymous incendiary Letter, of which the following is a Copy, was received from the General Post Office by Mr. Alexander Read, Fruit-Merchant, in Thames-Street:

"Sir,
"You are the damn'd f'f rascal existing, and by
"God, I will either revenge myself on your person,
"or property, and perhaps both before the Years
"expir'd, for if I don't find a convenient opportunity, in executing my design, against your
"person, in going to and fro, to your country
"house at blackheath [which is maintained by me and
"some few more, in the like situation with myself
"at the expence and ruin of our family's by your
"damn'd sly and artfull insinuations] I will set
"fire to it."

(Superfcribed)

"Mr. Alex. Read, 112

"thames street."

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in writing and sending the Letter above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person who actually wrote the said Letter) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SYDNEY.

And, as a further Encouragement, the said Alexander Read doth hereby offer a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS, to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid (except as is above excepted) to be paid by him upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

Alexander Read.
