Vienna, August 13.

The latest Letters from Semlin mention, that His Imperial Majesty, after a slight Indisposition which had confined him to his Apartment for several Days, had again resumed his usual Exercise on Horseback, and that his Health was almost entirely re-established. There had been no Alteration whatever in the Position of the Army; and the Sickness amongst the Troops was augmented to a very alarming Degree. The Diseases under which they labour are chiefly Fevers, Agues, and the Dysentery; but there is not the smallest Symptom of any contagious or epidemical Distemper in either of the Armies.

Marshal Laudohn set out very early this Morning for Croatia, where he will put himself at the Head of the Army lately under the Command of Prince Charles Lichtenstein. The Head Quarters are at Czervolyani, on the River Unna, and Marshal Laudohn is expected to arrive there in three or four Days.

The Grand Vizir has pitched his Camp near to Nissa, and on the high Road to Belgrade.

Vienna, August 16.

Letters from the Bannat of Temeswar, of the 7th and 8th Instant, mention, that a large Body of Turkish Troops made an Irruption on the 7th into the Austrian Territory in that Province, and took Possession of Altorfova, Schupaneck, and several other Villages; that they had set Fire to the two first mentioned Places, and reduced them to Ashes; but that General Wartenleben, who commands at Meadia, in that Neighbourhood, had made the best Preparations to give the Invaders a warm Reception at a Defile near Schupaneck.
