IN pursuance of the Directions of an Act passed in the Twenty-fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, intituled, "An Act to repeal so much of Two Acts made in the Tenth and Fifteenth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, as authorizes the Speaker of the House of Commons to issue his Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown for making out Writs for the Election of Members to serve in Parliament, in the Manner therein mentioned, and for substituting other Provisions for the like Purposes," I do hereby give Notice, that the Death of Lieutenant General James Cuninghame, late Member of Parliament for the Borough of East Grinstead, in the County of Suffex, hath been certified to me in Writing, under the Hands of Two Members of Parliament; and that I shall issue my Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown to make out a new Writ for the electing of a Burgess to serve in this present Parliament for the said Borough of East Grinstead, in the room of the said Lieutenant General James Cuninghame, deceased, at the End of Fourteen Days after the Insertion of this Notice in the Gazette. Dated the 15th Day of September, One thousand seven hundred and eighty-eight.

C. W. CORNWALL, Speaker.

Vienna, September 3.

On the 25th of August the Emperor's Army marched from the Camp of Weiskirchen towards Caranibes, which Place it may probably have reached by the 30th or 31st, the last Letters from the Head Quarters being dated at the Village of Klein Duvan on the 27th, which also mention that his Imperial Majesty's Health was daily improving. The Position of the Imperial Army at Caranibes will unite the two Advantages of being at Hand to give Succour either to General Wartenleben at Meadia, or to General Fabris in Transylvania, as Exigencies may require.

General Fabris has removed his Camp from Hermanstadt to Tallmach.

From the Bannat we learn, that, on the 24th of August, a Body of the Enemy's Troops, composed of Cavalry and Infantry, amounting to about 7000 Men, appeared on the Mountain of Czaplja, within a Mile of the Austrian Camp, and being soon reinforced they began to erect Batteries. Very early the next Morning the Turks discharged about Fifty Cannon Shot, but without causing any Damage to the Imperialists, who therefore declined to return their Fire. During this Cannonade, a Corps of Six or Seven Thousand Turks, with Artillery, filed off towards the Redoubt of Bersa, occupied by the Austrians, against which they maintained an incessant Fire till near Seven o'Clock in the Evening, when Lieutenant-General Count de Wartenleben ordered some Twelve-pounders to play upon them from a small Fort on his Left Wing, which immediately silenced their Fire.

Whitehall, September 3, 1788.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in wilfully and maliciously setting Fire to the Dwelling-house above-mentioned is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually set Fire to the same) who shall discover his, her or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

S Y D N E Y.

And, as further Encouragement, the Reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered by Joseph Banfield, Esq; Mayor of the said Town of Falmouth, and the additional Reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS by Sir John Wodehouse, Bart. and Robert Bathurst, Esq; (to be paid by their Steward, Mr. Richard Davis, of Falmouth,) to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted); the said several Rewards to be paid upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.
