S^A L^V A G E:

The Brigantine Duke of Cornwall, of and belonging to Penzance.

ALL such Persons as had Goods on Board this Vessel at the Time she was wrecked on the Islands of Scilly on her Voyage from London to Falmouth and Penzance, and have hitherto to make and prove their Claims to the Parts thereof, which were salvaged out of the said Vessel, are again desired to make and prove the same to William Carne, of the Town of Penzance, Grocer, on or before the 31st Day of October next, or they will be utterly excluded from all Benefit that may arise from a Dividend (which will be Final) then to be made of the whole Goods salvaged out of the said Wreck, the Property of which is yet unproved, and which amounts to about 1701.

A Dividend was advertised and would have been made on the 20th Day of September instant, had it not been imagined from the small Number of Claims then made that many Persons interested had not received proper Notice of the intended Dividend.
