From Saturday November 8, to Tuesday November 11, 1788.

St. James's, November 11.

THERE will not be a Levee at St. James's Tomorrow, on Account of His Majesty's Indisposition.

The last Accounts from Windsor, dated at Ten o'Clock this Morning, were that His Majesty had passed the Night quietly, but that there was no Abatement in his Complaint.

London, November 11.

On Saturday last William Gill, Esq; the Lord Mayor Elect for the Year ensuing, was sworn at Guildhall, when the Chair and other Ensigns of Mayoralty were surrendered to him in the accustomed Manner.

Yesterday the new Lord Mayor, accompanied by the late Lord Mayor, many of the Aldermen, and Sheriffs, in their Scarlet Gowns, went in their Coaches to the Water-side, the Sword and Mace being carried before them, and the City Officers attending; and from thence proceeded in the City Barge, attended by several of the Companies in their respective Barges, adorned with Streamers and Pendants, to Westminster; and having walked round the Hall, and solemnly saluted all the Courts, they went to the Exchequer Bar, and the Lord Mayor did there take the Oaths appointed; and, having recorded Warrants of Attorney in the proper Courts, returned by Water to Black Fryars, and from thence in Coaches, with the usual Solemnity, to Guildhall, where a magnificent Entertainment was provided; at which were present several of the Foreign Ministers and other Persons of Quality and Distinction.

By the Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND,

A P R O C L A M A T I O N.

NUGENT BUCKINGHAM.

WHEREAS His Majesty hath signified unto us His Royal Pleasure, that the Parliament of this Kingdom, which now stands prorogued to Tuesday the Fourth Day of November next, be further prorogued to Tuesday the Twentieth Day of January next, 1789, then to be held at Dublin and fit for the Dispatch of Business: We do therefore publish and declare, that the said Parliament be, and accordingly the said Parliament is, hereby further prorogued to Tuesday the Twentieth Day of January, 1789; and the same shall be then held at Dublin, and fit for the Dispatch of Business: Whereof the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this present Parliament, are to take Notice, and to give their Attendance accordingly.

Given at His Majesty's Castle of Dublin, the 29th Day of October, 1788.

By his Excellency's Command,

Alleyne Fitz-Herbert.

G O D Save the KING.

Dublin-Castle, November 5.

Yesterday being the Anniversary of the Birth of the late King William the Third, of glorious Memory, in the Morning the Flag was displayed on Bedford Tower; at Noon there was a splendid Appearance of the Nobility and other Persons of Distinction at the Castle to compliment his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant; after which his Excellency, attended by the Nobility and Gentry, and escorted by a Squadron of Horse, went in Procession round the Statue of King William. On his Excellency's Return to the Castle the Great Guns at the Salute Battery in His Majesty's Park the Phoenix were fired Three Rounds, and answered by Volleys from the Regiments in Garrison, which were drawn up in College Green; and at Night there were Bonfires, Illuminations, and other Demonstrations of Joy.
