St. James's, November 25.

THE Account of the State of His Majesty's Health, received To-day from Windsor, dated at Eleven o'Clock this Morning, is, "That His Majesty has passed a more quiet Night than the preceding, but, with Respect to the Fever, remains as he was Yesterday."

Vienna, November 1.

Intelligence has been received here, that, on the 21st of last Month, a considerable Detachment from the Imperial Army, under the Command of Count Harrach, attacked the Turkish Garrison at Vipalanka, amounting to One Thousand Men, which, after a very obstinate Resistance, at length capitulated upon honourable Terms. The Loss of the Turks in this Action amounted to One Hundred and Forty Men killed, and Four Hundred and Fifty Prisoners. The Remainder of the Garrison found Means to escape in some Saicks.

Vienna, November 8.

Advices are received here, that the Emperor, with the main Body of the Army, having passed the Darube at Surduck, arrived at Semlin on the 28th of last Month.

The Army under the Command of Marshal Laudohn having been obliged, by the overflowing of the River Save, to desist from any further Operations, have fixed their Cantonments in the Environs of Gradisca. The Corps under General Fabris have also retired into Winter Quarters in Transylvania; and it is believed here that the Turks have actually abandoned, or are preparing to evacuate their Acquisitions in the Bannat.

Prince Colloredo, Vice-Chancellor of the Empire, died on the 1st Instant.

Vienna, November 10.

The Turks have almost entirely evacuated the Bannat: They have abandoned their Posts at Mehadia and Schupaneck, and have considerably diminished the Number of their Troops stationed at Belgrade, which Place and Orsova are now their Head Quarters.

A considerable Promotion of Military Officers has been made here this Week. The Lieutenant-Generals Fabris, De Vins and Clairfait are appointed Generals of Infantry; Count Hohenzollern and Monf. de Graever, Generals of Cavalry. Seven Colonels are advanced to the Rank of Major-Generals. Major Stein, who distinguished himself so much by his gallant Defence of the Veteranische Hole, is made Lieutenant-Colonel, and Commandant of the Battalion of Grenadiers, in the Room of Count Aversperg, who is promoted to the Rank of Colonel.

The Baron de Guldencrone, his Danish Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary at this Court, died here on Monday last.

Copenhagen, November 11.

Letters from Udevalla, of the 6th Instant, advise, that a Convention had been agreed upon between his Swedish Majesty and the Prince of Hesse, by which the Armistice is prolonged to the 15th of May next.

The combined Fleet, under Admiral Dessen, consisting of Ten Ships of the Line, Three Frigates and Two Store Ships, is returned to this Road.
