THE COMPLETE CONVEYANCER:
Or, The Theory and Practice of Conveyancing in all its Branches.

The Practical Part consisting of Precedents of every Kind that the Practisers of the Law, of every Denomination, can possibly have Occasion to consult in the Course of Business.

The Theoretical Part consists of the Law of Conveyancing; or, the various Methods of acquiring and conveying Estates, both Real and Personal.

The Precedents given in this Work are such as are universally approved, and consist, in a great Measure, of original Draughts, settled by eminent Council, whose Names are annexed to such Draughts, to point out the Nature of their Authority; and we have enriched this Performance with every Thing that is valuable in other Conveyancers of Reputation; we quote the Name of the Author to each respective Precedent; by which Means every Practiser, that may have Occasion to consult this Performance, will be certain as to the Authority upon which each Precedent is founded. The Whole illustrated with Notes, containing many Humbled Opinions of the most eminent Council on particular Cases in Conveyancing.
