Madrid, January 20.

The King of Spain was proclaimed in this Capital on Saturday the 17th Instant, with all customary Ceremonies. The Conde de Altemira, as Alferez-Maior of Madrid, bore the Royal Standard, and was accompanied in the Procession by a great Number of Grandees on Horses very richly caparisoned, and also by the Corregidor, Alguazils, Heralds, and others. The Proclamation was repeated in different Parts of the City, and Silver and Gold Coins, prepared for the Occasion, were thrown by the Heralds among the People. The first Proclamation was made in the great Square, in Front of the Palace. Their Catholick Majesties were present, seated in a Balcony, and attended by the Ambassadors, and other Foreign Ministers, and by the principal Officers of State. The Acclamations of the People were great, and expressive of much Loyalty and Affection to their Sovereigns. The public Mourning was suspended during Three Days, a very large List of Promotions was published, various Entertainments and Balls were given, and there was a general Illumination on each of the Three Evenings.
